Emancipation Still Comin Explorations In Caribbean Emancipatory Theology:

Emancipation Still Comin' Kortright Davis, 2008-04-01 The Caribbean awash with sun and water is a meeting place of many races religions and cultures There North and South Latin and Anglo native Carib African black French and English white races and cultures meet In a religious melting pot Protestant and Catholic Christian Afro Caribbean Hindu and secularist faiths intertwine cross pollinate and go their ways separate yet together in the divine milieu Such a place has a rich and revealing story to tell of history nature and humanity of the understanding of freedom of the meaning and scope of theology itself The key in Caribbean society with its experiences of slavery colonialism neocolonialism and structural dependence is emancipation the pursuit proclamation and practice of human freedom Emancipation is the key to Caribbean theology as well This is the focal point of Kortright Davis s work He introduces the complex tapestry of this unique society its social and cultural pluralism its particular strengths and weaknesses poverty dependence alienation and divisiveness Davis explores many aspects of Caribbean religion and spirituality especially the complexities of carnival and its uniquely African soul He notes too a theological dependency and posits again a unique Caribbean emancipatory theology to establish a theological self reliance In emancipatory theology as in Latin American liberation theology the source for praxis and reflection is faith linked to historical experience And the Caribbean experience of continual struggle for identity distinguishes and yet unites Caribbean Christians with Christians everywhere Caribbean Contextual Theology Carlton

Turner, 2024-01-31 Caribbean Contextual Theology introduces readers to the robust theological conversations taking place in the Caribbean region since the early 1970s and the region s key theologians and texts Attempting to bring a contextual theological gaze to what is a fascinating and often understated context it offers readers an introduction to the unique and important contribution that a Caribbean theological lens can bring to the broader theological landscape The Anglican Church in the Anglophone Caribbean Chris Fauske, 2025-10-02 This book highlights the Church s significant cultural social and political presence across the Anglophone Caribbean Individual authors collectively provide a series of readings of historical and contemporary issues negotiated by the Anglican Church in the Caribbean that capture the complex integral role the church played in shaping the individual identities of the islands while seeking also to be a pan national voice for a shared set of global values and aspirations expressed regionally The volume offers religious and secular readers an opportunity to better understand the role and history of the Anglican Church in the region It acknowledges historical failures challenges the notion that the church is colonial and highlights the continuing importance of the Church to individual lives and regional aspirations Combining examination of the church s complicated relationship with history and a variety of personal engagements with Anglicanism in the Caribbean The Anglican Church in the Anglophone Caribbean demonstrates the continuing significance of the Anglican Church in the development and contemporary life of the region Fire Cast on the Earth-Kindling: Being Mercy in the Twenty-First Century International Research Conference, 2009-03-01 Fire Cast on the Earth Kindling Being Mercy in the Twenty First Century is the proceedings of the International Research Conference sponsored in California in November 2007 by the International Research Commission of the Sisters of Mercy The book contains the theological reflection process used at the conference the sixteen research papers presented by international Mercy research scholars the Vision Theology and Praxis that emerged at the conference and other material This publication will be of interest to Sisters of Mercy and to all those who are committed to indepth reflection on and response to the global human sufferings in the contemporary world Introducing Black Theology of Liberation Hopkins, Dwight N.,2014-04-10 A book that reviews the principles of modern Black Theology its roots and contributions to the Christian world It also discusses what challenges Black theologians face in their minister and their religious communities Stirring Up Liberation Theologies Jione Havea,2024-07-31 In this critical time in world history when many spirits and bodies are plagued by AIDS covid monkeypox hunger bird flu mad cow disease and other ailments and many communities are broken by wars juntas climate crises domestic abuse poverty and other shitstems this book stirs up the ends of Liberation Theology re l ease As long as the world is plagued and broken the re l ease that Liberation Theology seeks are needed Bringing together a diverse and global array of theologians who have taken up the liberative mantel this book will demonstrate why liberation theology today needs releasing from its illusions and assumptions and what comes next once it does so With contributors including Miguel A De La Torre Anna Kasafi Perkins and Michael Jaggesar the book demonstrates that Liberation Theology is not pass or dead But it needs some stirring up Manifesto for New Social Movements César Augusto Rossatto,2019-10-01 The world is currently witnessing the emergence of a new context for education labor and transformative social movements Global flows of people capital and energy increasingly define the world we live in The multinational corporation with its pursuit of ever cheaper sources of labor and materials and its disregard for human life is the dominant form of economic organization where capital can cross borders but people can t Affirmative action democracy and human rights are moving in from the margins to challenge capitalist priorities of efficiency i e exploitation In some places the representatives of popular movements are actually taking the reins of state power Across the globe new progressive movements are emerging to bridge national identities and boundaries in solidarity with transnational class gender and ethnic struggles At this juncture educators have a key role to play The ideology of market competition has become more entrenched in schools even as opportunities for skilled employment diminish We must rethink the relationship between schooling and labor developing transnational pedagogies that draw upon the myriad social struggles shaping students lives and communities Critical educators need to connect with other social movements to put a radically democratic agenda based on the principles of equity access and emancipation at the center of educational praxis Many countries in Latin America like in other continents are developing new alternatives for the reconstruction of social projects these emerging sources of hope are the central focus of this book Major historical change always starts with people s social movement Democracy can be one of the best political and social systems in the world but for it to work entails the sustainable participation of citizens Above all it requires that people be informed and critically educated since the quality of democracy depends on quality of education There are 2 kinds of power money and people If people exercise their agency they can be more powerful than money There are some organizing principles of social movements as don t do for others what they should do for themselves Saul Alinsky wrote Rules for Radicals A pragmatic primer for realistic radicals Mary Rogers Cold Anger A story of faith and power politics Michael Gecan Going Public An organizer s guide to citizen action and Ernesto Cortez s Industrial Area Foundation are all great sources for organized activism that do work I put some of these principles to the test and they produced positive results I was a founder and president of a union at my university and I lived my whole life as an activist and learned that we can do more together than alone Now we also have a new digital war with the Cambridge Analytica and Breitbart s fake news manipulation however we also have social justice hacktivism to counter act it as well as other democratic social media venues that critical thinkers and activist use The chapters in this book demonstrate the importance of widening and diversifying social movements at the same time emphasizes the need to build cohesive alliances among all the different fronts What some people think is impossible can become a transformed reality for those who dare attempt changing the world as global citizens

Theological Education and Christian Scholarship for Human Flourishing Celucien L. Joseph, 2022-09-14 This book explores the interconnection of theological education and Christian scholarship cultural and theological hermeneutics pedagogy and community knowledge democracy and citizenship Yet the three major disciplines or discourses covered in this work include multicultural education theology and hermeneutics through the lens of human flourishing and the concept of the good life From this angle this project is written from three different methods and approaches that intersect with each other a theology of contextualization a hermeneutics of interculturality and a pedagogy of cultural literacy and transformative community knowledge The book advances the idea that theological education should be the starting point to foster candid conversations about the importance of democracy and human rights civic engagement and the political life inclusion and diversity and pluralism and difference in our multicultural society The book uses the tools of multicultural education and cultural knowledge to enhance democracy and promote fundamental human virtues that would sustain the good life and human flourishing in the world in the Aristotelian sense and in the Socratic idea of local and world citizenship Finally this text offers an alternative vision to contemporary theological education to deconstruct the white male and Eurocentric narratives of theological education and Christian scholarship

Moravian Americans and their Neighbors, 1772-1822 Ulrike Wiethaus, Grant McAllister, 2022-11-28 American Moravians and their Neighbors 1772 1822 edited by Ulrike Wiethaus and Grant McAllister offers an interdisciplinary examination of Moravian Americanization in the Early Republic With an eye toward the communities that surrounded Moravian settlements in the Southeast the contributors examine cultural social religious and artistic practices of exchange and imposition framed by emergent political structures that encased social privilege and marginalization Through their multidisciplinary approach the authors convincingly argue that Moravians encouraged assimilation converged with core values and political forces of the Early Republic but also contributed uniquely Moravian innovations Residual newly dominant and increasingly subjugated discourses among Moravians other European settlers Indigenous nations and free and enslaved communities of color established the foundations of a new Moravian American identity Contributors include Craig D Atwood David Bergstone David Blum Stewart Carter Martha B Hartley Geoffrey R Hughes Winelle Kirton Roberts Grant P McAllister Thomas J McCullough Paul Peucker Charles D Rodenbough John Ruddiman Jon F Sensbach Larry E Tise Riddick Weber and Ulrike Wiethaus Duppy Conqueror Robert

Baptism, Superstitions, and the Supernatural Lesley George Anderson, 2022-07-07 Baptism Superstitions and the Supernatural by Rev Dr Lesley G Anderson is a book uniquely and unquestionably one of the most informative and remarkable of its type The sacrament of baptism is undoubtedly to this day an exceedingly controversial sacrament of the Christian Church The continuing differing debates arguments and views about adult believers versus infant baptism are examined Superstitions and the supernatural associated with this sacrament are given adequate attention in addition to the many other informative factors relating to this sacrament Further this sacrament is examined as a scriptural psychological theological and social reality The introduction of baptism as a liturgical phenomenon highlights the educational quality of this book as it takes the reader into the interesting and fascinating areas of baptism of blood baptism by fire baptism of the dead baptism of the Holy Spirit and baptism in the name of Jesus only In addition this book brings to the fore an intrinsic excitement and understanding about the symbols and symbolism s images and mysteries signs and wonders associated with this sacrament The role of the Holy Spirit and the centrality of Jesus in the baptismal act are of importance recognized If symbolically baptism means dying to sin and rising to new life with Christ does this apply only to adult believers This book explores the question against the background of research conducted in the Central American country of Belize that unearthed the views and beliefs of laypersons The reach of the work extends beyond Belize and Methodist traditions are compared with contrasting beliefs and practices of other denominations Popular superstitions associated with baptism are also explored as well as the impact of African cultural practices on Christian theology in the lived experience of Caribbean peoples Although this research was conducted in Belize it is borderless and boundless Of vital interest is the exploration of this sacrament in African religious beliefs and cultural practices According to Professor Neville Duncan former director of the Sir Arthur Lewis Institute of Social and Economic Studies at the University of the West Indies Mona Jamaica the book is theologically and sociologically stimulating while written from the Methodist perspective the issues raised will resonate with all Christian denominations All denominations noted in this book are given their due respect regardless of their beliefs and or baptismal practices The Routledge Companion to Modern Christian Thought Chad Meister, James Beilby, 2013-10-28 This Companion provides an unrivalled view of the field of modern Christian thought from the Enlightenment to the twentieth century and beyond Written by an outstanding team of theologians and philosophers of religion it covers the following topics within Christian thought Key figures and influencers Central events and movements Major theological issues and key approaches to Christian Theology Recent topics and trends in Christian thought Each entry is clear and accessible making the book the ideal resource for students of Christian thought and history and philosophy of religion and a valuable reference for professional theologians and philosophers Wiley Blackwell
