Emblems Practice:

Customary International Humanitarian Law Jean-Marie Henckaerts, Louise Doswald-Beck, 2005 In 1996 the International Committee of the Red Cross alongside a range of renowned experts embarked upon a major international study into current state practice in international humanitarian law in order to identify customary law in this area This book is the result of that study a comprehensive analysis of the customary rules of international humanitarian law applicable in international and non international armed conflicts Given that important treaties in this area have not yet been universally ratified this is a publication of major importance carried out at the express request of the international community In so doing this study identifies the common core of international humanitarian law binding on all parties to all armed conflicts

Emblems in the Free Imperial City Mara R. Wade, Christopher D. Fletcher, Andrew C. Schwenk, 2024-03-04 Civic virtues were central to early modern N rnberg s visual culture These essays in this volume explore N rnberg as a location from which to study the intersection of art and power The imperial city was awash in emblems and they informed most aspects of everyday life The intent of this collection is to focus new attention on the town hall emblems while simultaneously expanding the purview of emblem studies moving from strict iconological approaches to collaborations across methodologies and disciplines

Collections Management as Critical Museum Practice Cara Krmpotich, Alice Stevenson, 2024-07-22 There is a common misconception that collections management in museums is a set of rote procedures or technical practices that follow universal standards of best practice This volume recognises collections management as a political critical and social project involving considerable intellectual labour that often goes unacknowledged within institutions and in the fields of museum and heritage studies Collections Management as Critical Museum Practice brings into focus the knowledges value systems ethics and workplace pragmatics that are foundational for this work Rather than engaging solely with cultural modifications such as Indigenous care practices the book presents local knowledge of place and material which is relevant to how collections are managed and cared for worldwide Through discussion of varied collection types management activities and professional roles contributors develop a contextualised reflexive practice for how core collections management standards are conceptualised negotiated and enacted Chapters span national museums in Brazil and Uganda to community led heritage work in Malaysia and Canada they explore complexities of numbering digitisation and description alongside the realities of climate change global pandemics and natural disasters The book offers a new definition of collections management travelling from what is done to care for collections to what is done to care for collections and their users Rather than use being an end goal it emerges as a starting point to rethink collections work

The Freemason's Monthly Magazine , 1860 The Emblem and its Variations Paulette Choné, Marie Chaufour, Jean-Jacques Chardin, 2025-07-22 An emblem is a combination of images and texts that flourished in the early modern period The book presents the culture of the emblem and its influences and adaptations in various art forms from the late sixteenth century to the 1930s It also looks at the production of emblem books the symbolism of certain recurring motifs in emblem collections and printed emblems as objects of religious devotion The emblem requires the deciphering of images whose meaning often remains obscure and the book aims to remind twenty first century readers living in a world where iconographic motifs are ubiquitous that understanding images is as demanding today as it was in the early modern period The book will be of interest to specialists in the history of art and early modern culture as well as to readers wishing to familiarize themselves with the art of reading images

Grand Lodge of the State of New York,1870 Physical Training ,1914 Modern Federal Practice Digest ,1960 Images and Objects in Ritual Practices in Medieval and Early Modern Northern and Central Europe Krista Kodres,Anu Mänd,2014-07-18 This multidisciplinary collection of essays explores the functions meanings and use of images and objects in various late Medieval and Early Modern social practices which were linked by their ritual character The book approaches ritual as an action which is discussed under the general umbrella term performative practice and is characterised by a synthesis between the repetitive and the extraordinary that carries an intense symbolic meaning and is emotionally charged Images spaces and rituals were closely interconnected in both the religious and the secular spheres and played a relevant role in the symbolic communication of the time The essays in this volume are devoted to a complex study of these phenomena in Northern and Central Europe including regions which due to linguistic or cultural barriers have thus far received comparatively little attention in Anglo American scholarship including Scandinavia Poland and the Baltic states
