Wieringa, E. Blackwood, A. Bhaiya, 2007-04-30 Through detailed studies this collection of writings by academics and activists explores the emergence of contemporary lesbian and butch femme relationships and communities throughout Asia and their location within the context of nationalist struggles religious fundamentalism state gender regimes and global queer movements Genocides and Xenophobia in South Asia and Beyond Rituparna Bhattacharyya, 2023-07-07 This volume foregrounds some of the unknown or lesser known incidents of xenophobia and genocide from India Bangladesh Sri Lanka South Africa and Rwanda It critically analyses the cultural and structural contexts triggering these various forms of genocides and xenophobia and situates them within modern histories of violence and human tribulations The book discusses various non Western case studies which include the communal violence incited by anti CAA protests in Delhi the expulsion and displacement of Kashmiri Pandits xenophobic attitudes against illegal immigrants in Assam genocide in Sylhet during the Liberation War of Bangladesh the 1994 genocide in Rwanda and incidences of human rights violations across the world A comprehensive and transdisciplinary text the book will be useful for students and researchers of human geography sociology political science social work anthropology colonialism and postcolonialism nationalism imperialism human rights and history Sexuality, Obscenity and Community C.

Gupta,2002-05-30 Through analysis of an impressive array of low and high Hindu literatures particularly pamphlets tracts newspapers and archival data Gupta explores the emerging discourse of gender and sexuality which was essential to the development of notions of Hindu communality and nationalism in the colonial period The book offers an exceptionally nuanced account of Hindi gender politics The Fabric of Cultures Eugenia Paulicelli,Hazel Clark,2009-06-02 The Fabric of Cultures examines the impact of fashion as a manufacturing industry and as a culture industry that shapes identities of nations and cities in a cross cultural perspective and within a global framework Staging Feminisms Anita Singh,2021-07-15 This book questions how feminist beliefs are enacted within an artistic context It critically examines the intersection of violence gender performance and power through contemporary interventionist performances The volume explores a host of key themes like feminism and folk epic community theatre performance as radical cultural intervention volatile bodies and celebratory protests Through analysing performances of theatre stalwarts like Usha Ganguly Maya Krishna Rao Sanjoy Ganguly Shilpi Marwaha and Teejan Bai the volume discusses the complexities and contradictions of a feminist reading of contemporary performances A major intervention in the field of feminism and performance this book will be useful for scholars and researchers of gender studies performance studies theatre studies women s studies cultural studies sociology of gender and literature Civility in Crisis Suryakant Waghmore,Hugo Gorringer,2020-12-23 This book critically examines the relationship between civility citizenship and democracy It engages with the oft neglected idea of civility as a Western concept to explore the paradox of high democracy and low civility that plagues India This concept helps analyse why democratic consolidation translates into limited justice and minimal equality along with increased exclusion and performative violence against marginal groups in India The volume brings together key themes such as minority citizens and the incivility of caste civility and urbanity the struggles for dignity and equality pursued by subaltern groups along with feminism and queer politics and the exclusionary politics of the Citizenship Amendment Act to argue that civility provides crucial insights into the functioning and social life of a democracy In doing so the book illustrates how a successful democracy may also harbour illiberal values and normalised violence and civil societies may have uncivil tendencies Enriched with case studies from various states in India this book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of political science political philosophy South Asian studies minority and exclusion studies political sociology and social anthropology

Routledge Readings on Law and Social Justice Kalpana Kannabiran, 2022-07-11 Routledge Readings on Law and Social Justice Dispossessions Marginalities Rights presents some of the finest essays on social justice rights and public policy. With a lucid new Introduction it covers a vast range of issues and offers a compelling guide to understanding law and socio legal studies in South Asia. The book covers critical themes such as the jurisprudence of rights, justice, dignity, with a focus on the regimes of patriarchy, labour and dispossession. The fourteen chapters in the volume, divided into three sections, examine contested sites of the constitution, courts, prisons, land and complex processes of migration, trafficking, digital technology, regimes, geographical indications and their entanglements. This multidisciplinary volume foregrounds the politics and plural lives of law by including perspectives from major authors who have contributed to the academic and or policy discourse of the subject. This book will be useful to students, scholars, policymakers and practitioners interested in a nuanced understanding of law, especially those studying law, marginality and violence. It will serve as essential reading for those in law, socio legal studies, legal history, South Asian studies, human rights, jurisprudence and constitutional studies, gender studies, history, politics, conflict and peace studies, sociology and social anthropology. It will also appeal to legal historians and practitioners of law and those in public administration, development studies, environmental studies, migration studies, cultural studies, labour studies and economics.

Images of the Modern Woman in Asia Shoma Munshi, 2013-01-11 In examining the links between gender and the media, this volume asks questions involving the relationship between global media flows, gender and modernity in the region.

Rethinking New Womanhood Nazia Hussein, 2018-04-09 Covering India, Bangladesh, Pakistan and Nepal, Rethinking New Womanhood effectively introduces a new wave of gender research from South Asia that resonates with feminist debates around the world. The volume conceptualises new womanhood as a complex, heterogeneous and intersectional identity. By deconstructing classification systems and highlighting women's everyday ongoing negotiations with boundaries of social categories, the book reconfigures the concept of new woman as a symbolic identity denoting modern femininity at the intersection of gender, class, culture, sexuality and religion in South Asia. The collection maps new sites and expressions on women and gender studies around nationhood, women's rights, transnational feminist solidarity, new girlhoods, aesthetic and sexualised labour, respectability and modernity, LGBT discourses, domestic violence and new feminisms. The volume will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of disciplines including gender studies, sociology, education, media and cultural studies, literature, anthropology, history, development studies, postcolonial studies and South Asian studies.

Resistance & Recovery in the #MeToo era, Volume I Kate Richmond, Nicole L. Johnson, 2024-02-15 Using an intersectional approach, this book amplifies the voices of those who were and continue to be at the frontlines resisting and responding to sexual violence during the rise of digital feminist movements, including NoMoreTimesUp and most notably MeToo. This book outlines the current socio-political landscape, including increased visibility of movements such as NoMoreTimesUp and most notably MeToo, and the public showcase of accused perpetrators becoming elected to the highest offices in the United States e g Brett Kavanaugh s election to the Supreme Court Donald Trump s election to the Presidency It offers note to how this political landscape has impacted survivors and therapists alike The first of the two volumes include 10 chapters that provide a critique of the silencing of survivors who are marginalized e g women of color trans and queer survivors within the current movements and offer recommendations for how to center their experiences through an intersectional approach Both the volumes together cover a wide range of perspectives that bring to light the solidarity that was built among survivors regardless of identity and experience within the current socio political climate while continuing to center the voices of those who are most often marginalized The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Women Therapy

Literature Malashri Lal, Sukrita Paul Kumar, 2007 Contributed articles Toward a Politics of The (Im)Possible Anirban Das, 2012-10 This book works at the intersection of two related yet different fields One is the heterogeneous feminist effort to question universal forms of knowing The second field follows from this conundrum how does one think of the body when s he speaks of embodiment Toward a Politics of the Im Possible engages the forefront of contemporary thought on the body while remaining mindful of the requirements of a feminist approach The Cinematic ImagiNation [sic] Jyotika Viridi, 2003
