Zarucchi, 2018-06-28 The Material Culture of Tableware is a fascinating and authoritative study of patterned tableware in the US The book undertakes a visual analysis of Johnson Brothers patterns of tableware pottery with reference to comparable designs by other British companies such as Spode and Adams It examines how this practical genre reflected the aesthetic values sense of identity and aspirations of the American consumers who purchased its products The study also sheds light on British opinions and understandings of American culture The book s chronological organization shows how tableware designs reflected the cultural developments of American society during the long 20th century From status seeking 1890s beaux arts patterns and the nostalgic historical scenes of the 1930s to whimsical 1960s patterns and the contemporary motifs of the 1970s The Material Culture of Tableware tells a compelling story about who 20th century middle class Americans were and wanted to be      Treasury of Smocking Designs Allyne S. Strohmayer, 2021-04-16 This book weaves together disparate worlds of crafting social justice and digital technologies around The Partnership Quilt It crafts a manifesto for meaningful action and design processes in charitable organizations through participatory sewing and its digital augmentation The book charts a history of how sewing has been used to voice concerns of oppression and how digital technologies can be embedded into textiles to tell stories more powerfully It explores the relationship between quilting and research looking beyond the seams of The Partnership Quilt to shed light on the importance of invisible work behind such participatory justice oriented design projects It concludes with a discussion of the impacts and potential future avenues for research on digitally quilting social justice This book is an excellent offering that highlights ways in which visual approaches to research and community work can serve as a canvas for the outpouring of oppression anger hope resilience and reimagining of a socially just future It is a great gift and valuable resource for academics activists and students interested in social justice participatory action research and digital technologies Puleng Segalo Professor University of South Africa SA This expansive undertaking exhibits Strohmayer s force as a thinker author and partner in design From the soldering of electrodes through the review on craft based activism Strohmayer generously takes us through a design process from start to finish to examines the relationships that shift along the way She shows us how worlds of textiles partake in the making of collective futures nurturing forms of connection as a means of creative expression self determination and remembrance Daniela Rosner Associate Professor Human Centered Design Engineering

University of Washington USA This book is a highlight for the courageous minds to break the circle and re think artistic practices as a more justice oriented connected and collaborative mechanisms for our futures You will have a journey to face who and what forms of designs were privileged or silenced in the global history of quilting You will be inspired and provoked by the making of the Partnership Quilt The quilt piece is the materialized example that embodies the many ways of touchy feely conversations and the possibilities to weave stitch or this time to quilt new worlds together This book is about the making of artistic hope It is about what is possible once we see the beauty of equity instead of privileges in design zge Suba Futurewell Assistant Professor Department of Media and Visual Arts Ko University Turkey The Partnership Quilt is a powerful example of the transformative power of craftivism In this book Dr Angelika Strohmayr pragmatically illustrates how carefully considered participatory craft based projects empower those involved value add to the important work being done by NGO s and provide researchers with a methodology that supports and promotes social justice outcomes Dr Tal Fitzpatrick Artist Craftivist and Disability Support Worker Naarm Melbourne Australia The Partnership Quilt as a model of participatory textile making draws together relational expertise from the distinct worlds of communication technologies crafting and ecologies of care With a focus on collaboration Strohmayr experiments with the quilt as a metaphor for a layered interdisciplinary research process as well as a material expression of carefully crafted relationships between makers researchers charitable organisations and a marginalised group of sex workers This richly detailed and insightful book is a timely addition to a growing literature around participatory textile making advocating for interdisciplinary practices that address the care and maintenance of people s lived experiences Dr Emma Shercliff Arts University Bournemouth UK

Ethnomathematics of Negev Bedouins' Existence in Forms, Symbols and Geometric Patterns Ada Katsap, Fredrick L. Silverman, 2015-12-17 Ethnomathematics of Negev Bedouins Existence in Forms Symbols and Geometric Patterns provokes a journey into the world of Negev Bedouins and attests to the beauty and sophistication of mathematics that occurs naturally in their craftwork structures games and throughout Bedouin life The major focus is Bedouin women s traditional craftwork by which they reflect social and cultural activities in their weaving embroidery and similar pursuits Their creations reveal mathematical ideas incorporated in embroidery compositions in repeated patterns of flowers and geometric figures in varying scales The women use ground staked looms stabilized by block stones to make multi color repeating pattern strip rugs in a process practiced for generations An image of this appears in the book s cover photo collage Bedouin men construct dwellings tents desert wells and such They and their children play games attuned to sand and other specific desert conditions These activities of Bedouin women men and children require mathematical thinking and strategic reasoning to achieve desired outcomes The book opens with a narrative of Bedouin history followed by a brief overview of ethnomathematics and concludes with discussion about bridging the gap between school mathematics experiences and those outside school It considers mathematically problematic situations embedded in Bedouin sociocultural heritage likely to appeal to teachers for use with school students The book is intended for a diverse audience from Bedouin communities in different countries to the general public and professionals including ethnomathematicians and mathematics educators Numerous photographs document the examples of Bedouin ethnomathematics They are the subject of considerable analysis and appear throughout the book     Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1980 Bobbs-Merrill Educational Co,1980     Ornament in European Silks Alan Summerly Cole,1899     The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1978     Tudor Textiles Eleri Lynn,2020-04-03 A detailed study of Tudor textiles highlighting their extravagant beauty and their impact on the royal court fashion and taste At the Tudor Court textiles were ubiquitous in decor and ceremony Tapestries embroideries carpets and hangings were more highly esteemed than paintings and other forms of decorative art Indeed in 16th century Europe fine textiles were so costly that they were out of reach for average citizens and even for many nobles This spectacularly illustrated book tells the story of textiles during the long Tudor century from the ascendance of Henry VII in 1485 to the death of his granddaughter Elizabeth I in 1603 It places elaborate tapestries imported carpets lavish embroidery and more within the context of religious and political upheavals of the Tudor court as well as the expanding world of global trade including previously unstudied encounters between the New World and the Elizabethan court Special attention is paid to the Field of the Cloth of Gold a magnificent two week festival and unsurpassed display of golden textiles held in 1520 Even half a millennium later such extraordinary works remain Tudor society s strongest projection of wealth taste and ultimately power     Mother Goose Charted Designs Kathleen Thorne-Thomsen,1987-01-01 Beloved nursery characters Little Bo Peep Jack and Jill Little Miss Muffet others for needlepoint cross stitch latch hook more 34 designs     The Fairchild Books Dictionary of Textiles Phyllis G.
