Susan Waller,2017-07-05 Foreign Artists and Communities in Modern Paris 1870 1914 examines Paris as a center of

Transnationalism, Gender and the History of Education Deirdre Raftery,Marie Clarke,2018-10-03 In the past anthropologists and sociologists in their study of the movement and flow of ideas between continents and countries Historical scholarship has adopted this tool and in this book historians of education use it to add nuance and depth to research on gender and education and particularly to the education experiences of women and girls The book brings together a group of internationally regarded scholars who are doing important research on transnationalism and the social construction of gender with particular reference to education environments such as schools and colleges The book is therefore very much at the cutting edge of theoretical and methodological advances in the history of education This book was originally published as
