Edward Said Continuing The Conversation:

Edward Said Edward W. Said, 2004 In Edward Said Continuing the Conversation Edward Said's long time friends and collaborators continue their dialogue with Said where they had left off following his death in the fall of 2003 The essays imagining and recalling the cadences of Said's conversation take various forms including elaborations on his ideas applications of his thought to new problems and recollections of the indescribable electricity that made conversation with him intense and memorable This lively personal tone is a direct result of editors Homi Bhabha and W J T Mitchell urging contributors to write in the spirit of a conversation interrupted a call on hold a letter waiting for a reply a question hanging in the air This is a work of immense imaginative and intellectual force and compelling candor honoring Said's legacy as an activist intellectual This collection includes essays by Lila Abu Lughod Daniel Barenboim Akeel Bilgrami Paul Bov Timothy Brennan Noam Chomsky Ranajit Guha Harry Harootunian Saree Makdisi Aamir Mufti Roger Owen Gyan Prakash Dan Rabinowitz Jacqueline Rose and Gayatri Spivak Edward Said's Translocations Tobias Döring, Mark Stein, 2012 In this contribution to contemporary political philosophy Jensen aims to develop a model of civil society for deliberative democracy In the course of developing the model he also provides a thorough account of the meaning and use of civil society in contemporary scholarship as well as a critical review of rival models including those found in the work of scholars such as John Rawls Jürgen Habermas Michael Walzer Benjamin Barber and Nancy Rosenblum Jensen's own ideal treats civil society as both the context in which citizens live out their comprehensive views of the good life as well as the context in which citizens learn to be good deliberative democrats According to his idealization groups of citizens in civil society are actively engaged in a grand conversation about the nature of the good life Their commitment to this conversation grounds dispositions of epistemic humility tolerance curiosity and moderation Moreover their regard for the grand conversation explains their interest in deliberative democracy and their regard for democratic virtues principles and practices Jensen is not a naive utopian however he argues that this ideal must be realized in stages that it faces a variety of barriers and that it cannot be realized without luck Edward Said and the Authority of Literary Criticism Nicolas Vandeviver, 2019-09-26 This book examines the earliest writings of Edward Said and the foundations of what came to be known as postcolonial criticism in order to reveal how the groundbreaking author of Orientalism turned literary criticism into a form of political intervention Tracing Said's shifting conceptions of literature and agency in relation to the history of American literary studies in the thirty years or so between the end of World War II and the last quarter of the twentieth century this book offers a rich and novel understanding of the critical practice of this indispensable figure and the institutional context from which it emerged By combining broad scale literary history with granular attention to the vocabulary of criticism Nicolas Vandeviver brings to light the harmonizing of methodological conflicts that informs Said's approach to literature and argues that Said's enduring political significance is grounded in his practice as a literary critic Edward Said and Education Zeus

Leonardo,2020-04-06 This volume offers a deep interpretation of Edward Said's literary thought towards the development of educational criticism Insofar as Said's academic career was built around the contours of literary analysis Leonardo demonstrates how Said's work propels scholarship on schooling in ways that enrich our ability to generate insights about the educational enterprise The book draws from four main themes of Said's work knowledge construction as part of empire representations and reconstruction of the intellectual the exile condition and contrapuntal analysis These themes cohere in providing the elements of educational criticism and placing them in the wider context of a rapidly changing sociality and educational system The author reviews key arguments in the field whilst contributing new analyses designed to elicit wide ranging discussions Edward Said and Education is a valuable teaching resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students of education studies postcolonial studies and ethnic studies Edward Said's Rhetoric of the Secular Mathieu E. Courville,2011-10-20 Edward Said's Rhetoric of the Secular provides an important new reading of Edward W Said's work emphasizing not only the distinction but also the fuzzy borders between representations of the religious and the secular found within and throughout his oeuvre and at the core of some of his most customary rhetorical strategies Mathieu Courville begins by examining Said's own reflections on his life before moving on to key debates about Said's work within Religious Studies and Middle Eastern Studies and his relationship to French critical theorists Through close attention to Said's use of the literal and the figurative when dealing with religious national and cultural matters Courville discerns a pattern that illuminates what Said means by secular Said's work shows that the secular is not the utter opposite of religion in the modern globalized world but may exist in a productive tension with it Edward Said Adel Iskandar,Adel Iskander,Hakem Rustom,2010 This indispensable volume a comprehensive and wide ranging resource on Edward Said's life and work spans his broad legacy both within and beyond the academy The book brings together contributions from 31 luminaries to engage Said's provocative ideas Reading Orientalism Daniel Martin Varisco,2017-04-11 The late Edward Said remains one of the most influential critics and public intellectuals of our time with lasting contributions to many disciplines Much of his reputation derives from the phenomenal multidisciplinary influence of his 1978 book Orientalism Said's seminal polemic analyzes novels travelogues and academic texts to argue that a dominant discourse of West over East has warped virtually all past European and American representation of the Near East But despite the book's wide acclaim no systematic critical survey of the rhetoric in Said's representation of Orientalism and the resulting impact on intellectual culture has appeared until today Drawing on the extensive discussion of Said's work in more than 600 bibliographic entries Daniel Martin Varisco has written an ambitious intellectual history of the debates that Said's work has sparked in several disciplines highlighting in particular its reception among Arab and European scholars While pointing out Said's tendency to essentialize and privilege certain texts at the expense of those that do not comfortably fit his theoretical framework Varisco analyzes the extensive commentary the book has engendered in Oriental studies literary and cultural studies feminist scholarship history political science and anthropology He employs critical satire to parody the exaggerated and pedantic aspects of post colonial discourse including Said s profound underappreciation of the role of irony and reform in many of the texts he cites The end result is a companion volume to Orientalism and the vast research it inspired Rather than contribute to dueling essentialisms Varisco provides a path to move beyond the binary of East versus West and the polemics of blame Reading Orientalism is the most comprehensive survey of Said s writing and thinking to date It will be of strong interest to scholars of Middle East studies anthropology history cultural studies post colonial studies and literary studies

Gender and Space in British Literature, 1660-1820 Mona Narain, Karen Gevirtz, 2016-04-15 Between 1660 and 1820 Great Britain experienced significant structural transformations in class politics economy print and writing that produced new and varied spaces and with them new and reconfigured concepts of gender In mapping the relationship between gender and space in British literature of the period this collection defines charts and explores new cartographies both geographic and figurative The contributors take up a variety of genres and discursive frameworks from this period including poetry the early novel letters and laboratory notebooks written by authors ranging from Aphra Behn Hortense Mancini and Isaac Newton to Frances Burney and Germaine de Sta l Arranged in three groups Inside Outside and Borderlands the essays conduct targeted literary analysis and explore the changing relationship between gender and different kinds of spaces in the long eighteenth century In addition a set of essays on Charlotte Smith s novels and a set of essays on natural philosophy offer case studies for exploring issues of gender and space within larger fields such as an author s oeuvre or a particular discourse Taken together the essays demonstrate space s agency as a complement to historical change as they explore how literature delineates the gendered redefinition occupation negotiation inscription and creation of new spaces crucially contributing to the construction of new cartographies in eighteenth and early nineteenth century England

Postcolonial Literatures and Deleuze L. Burns, B. Kaiser, 2012-06-19 Bringing together high profile scholars in the fields of Deleuze and postcolonial studies this book highlights the overlooked connections between two major schools of contemporary criticism and establishes a new critical discourse for postcolonial literature and theory

Representing Jihad Jacqueline O'Rourke, 2012-08-09 The jihad has been at the centre of the West s securitization discourse for more than a decade Theorists constantly use the jihadist as a discursive tool to further their neoliberal military and market agendas perpetuating massive gaps of understanding between the West Muslims and jihadists themselves They are helped by Muslim interlocutors who all too often play the role of good Muslims explaining the motifs of the bad Muslims This timely book argues that Muslim theory and fiction has been significantly commodified to cater to the needs of western ideology It skillfully critiques the ideological contradictions of the debate around the jihadist by offering a comprehensive analysis of Muslim and non Muslim cultural critics Ranging from Edward Said to Slavoj Zizek from Don DeLillo to Orhan Pamuk and from Mohammed Siddique Khan to Osama bin Laden this vastly heterogeneous discourse produces a multi dimensional Muslim response O Rourke examines some of its critical fault lines in postcolonial theory and literary analysis This groundbreaking book argues that the temptation to appropriate the figure of the jihadist offers a fertile area from which to launch a discussion about the limits of current theory Derrida and Law Pierre Legrand,2017-07-05 This volume gathers together sixteen seminal articles all written by leading scholars which articulate and effectuate the influence of Derrida's scholarship on the field of law The articles included in this collection are underpinned by the authors shared belief that the intellectual challenges posed by Derrida's work to legal scholarship are as challenging as they are pressing and as profound as they are inescapable In addition to a thorough introduction addressing salient aspects of Jacques Derrida's engagement with law this book comes with an extensive bibliography of sources in English This provides the reader with a carefully selected list of more than one hundred texts all of which serve as introductory pathways to Derrida's philosophy and in particular to the interaction between Derrida and law A fine reminder of the trans disciplinary influence of Jacques Derrida's thought this landmark collection is destined to generate substantial interest in philosophy departments and law schools alike Desire, Market,

Religion Jung Mo Sung,2013-01-26 Jung Mo Sung has pioneered a theological analysis of economics in his previous publications developing a penetrating ethico religious critique of the international capitalist systems whose institutions he likens to altars Where ancient idolatry had visible altars the modern altar of the global market god is invisible but still demands human sacrifices in the name of objective desires Here Sung recovers theology's relevance for a world where the most dangerous idols those that sacrifice millions of people upon the altar of wealth have for too long been ignored by theology Desire Market Religion Sung investigates themes such as the struggle against social exclusion the relationship between economics and religion in the 21 century where global brands and global economies reigns supreme and theology's role in the struggle against social exclusion and the giving of hope for plenty when the reality is scarcity Early

Orientalism Ivan Kalmar,2013-06-17 The history of western notions about Islam is of obvious scholarly as well as popular interest today This book investigates Christian images of the Muslim Middle East focusing on the period from the Renaissance to the Enlightenment when the nature of divine as well as human power was under particularly intense debate in the West Ivan Kalmar explores how the controversial notion of submission to ultimate authority has in the western world been discussed with reference to Islam's alleged recommendation to obey unquestioningly a merciless Allah in heaven and a despotic government on earth He discusses how Abrahamic faiths Christianity and Judaism as much as Islam demand devotion to a sublime power with the faith that this power loves and cares for us a concept that brings with it the fear that on the contrary this power only toys with us for its own enjoyment For such a power Kalmar borrows Slavoj Zizek's term obscene father He discusses how this describes exactly the western image of the Oriental despot Allah in heaven and the various sultans emirs and ayatollahs on earth and how these despotic personalities of imagined Muslim society function as a projection from the West on to the Muslim Orient of an existential anxiety about sublime power Making accessible academic

In the Shadow of World Literature Michael Allan, 2016-04-05 We have grown accustomed to understanding world literature as a collection of national or linguistic traditions bound together in the universality of storytelling Michael Allan challenges this way of thinking and argues instead that the disciplinary framework of world literature far from serving as the neutral meeting ground of national literary traditions levels differences between scripture poetry and prose and fashions textual forms into a particular pedagogical aesthetic and ethical practice In the Shadow of World Literature examines the shift from Qur'anic schooling to secular education in colonial Egypt and shows how an emergent literary discipline transforms the act of reading itself The various chapters draw from debates in literary theory and anthropology to consider sites of reception that complicate the secular religious divide from the discovery of the Rosetta stone and translations of the Qur'an to debates about Charles Darwin in the modern Arabic novel Through subtle analysis of competing interpretative frames Allan reveals the ethical capacities and sensibilities literary reading requires the conceptions of textuality and critique it institutionalizes and the forms of subjectivity it authorizes A brilliant and original exploration of what it means to be literate in the modern world this book is a unique meditation on the reading practices that define the contours of world literature

Empire, Race and Global Justice Duncan Bell, 2019-02-21 The status of boundaries and borders questions of global poverty and inequality criteria for the legitimate uses of force the value of international law human rights nationality sovereignty migration territory and citizenship debates over these critical issues are central to contemporary understandings of world politics Bringing together an interdisciplinary range of contributors including historians political theorists lawyers and international relations scholars this is the first volume of its kind to explore the racial and imperial dimensions of normative debates over global justice
