Guys In Suits A Novel:

A Novel Marketplace Evan Brier, 2012-02-25 As television transformed American culture in the 1950s critics feared the influence of this newly pervasive mass medium on the nation's literature. While many studies have addressed the rhetorical response of artists and intellectuals to mid twentieth century mass culture, the relationship between the emergence of this culture and the production of novels has gone largely unexamined. In A Novel Marketplace Evan Brier illuminates the complex ties between postwar mass culture and the making, marketing and reception of American fiction. Between 1948 when television began its ascendancy and 1959 when Random House became a publicly owned corporation, the way American novels were produced and distributed changed considerably. Analyzing a range of mid century novels including Paul Bowles's The Sheltering Sky, Ray Bradbury's Fahrenheit 451, Sloan Wilson's The Man in the Gray Flannel Suit and Grace Metalious's Peyton Place, Brier reveals the specific strategies used to carve out cultural and economic space for the American novel just as it seemed most under threat. During this anxious historical moment, the book business underwent an improbable expansion by capitalizing on an economic boom and a rising population of educated consumers, and by forming institutional alliances with educators and cold warriors to promote reading as both a cultural and political good. A Novel Marketplace tells how the book trade and the novelists themselves successfully positioned their works as embattled holdouts against an oppressive mass culture, even as publishers formed partnerships with mass culture institutions that foreshadowed the multimedia mergers to come in the 1960s. As a foil for and a partner to literary institutions, mass media corporations assisted in fostering the novel's development as both culture and commodity. John Sandford Lucas Davenport Novels 6-10 John Sandford, 2012-01-10 Novels six through ten in 1 New York Times bestselling and Pulitzer Prize winning author John Sandford's Prey series featuring Minneapolis homicide investigator Lucas Davenport. NIGHT PREY: A savage psychopath is playing cat and mouse with Lucas Davenport. But both killer and detective find themselves at odds with a female investigator who has intensely personal reasons for catching the killer herself, and fast. MIND PREY: Lucas Davenport has met his match, a nemesis more intelligent and more depraved than any he has tracked before. A pure, wanton killer who knows more about mind games than Lucas himself, and with a female psychiatrist already in his trap, he's one step ahead. SUDDEN PREY: The crime spree should have ended when Lucas Davenport killed the female bank robber during the shoot out. But it's just beginning because the woman's husband isn't about to let Lucas or anyone he loves escape retribution. SECRET PREY: When a wealthy banker is shot dead during a hunting trip, Lucas Davenport's routine murder investigation turns into a cat and mouse game with a killer who won't hesitate to take the fight to Lucas himself. And those he loves. CERTAIN PREY: A wealthy socialite has been murdered. Now the killer must tie up a few loose ends. One is the witness. The other is Lucas Davenport, and of all the criminals Davenport has hunted, none has been as efficient or as ferociously intelligent as the woman who's hunting him. Supernatural Horror 3-Pack (Three Complete Novels) Rod Little, 2025-07-15 Three Complete Novels bundled
