Dafydd ap Gwilym: Paraphrases and Palimpsests Giles Watson, 2014-05-07 These 99 paraphrases of the works of the fourteenth century Welsh poet Dafydd ap Gwilym explore the extraordinary diversity of his work from poems inspired by love and nature through scathing self examinations and bitter satires to poems in praise of literary patrons The style humour and cadences of Dafydd s work can never be satisfactorily translated but the interpretations in this volume are a tribute to the genius of the master bard Please note although the illustrations are in colour in the preview they are black and white in the printed copy

Urban Culture in Medieval Wales Helen Fulton, 2012-05-15 This collection of twelve essays describes aspects of town life in medieval Wales from the way people lived and worked to how they spent their leisure time Drawing on evidence from historical records archaeology and literature twelve leading scholars outline the diversity of town life and urban identity in medieval Wales While urban histories of Wales have charted the economic growth of towns in post Norman Wales much less has been written about the nature of urban culture in Wales This book fills in some of the gaps about how people lived in towns and the kinds of cultural experience which helped to construct a Welsh urban identity

Authorship, Worldview, and Identity in Medieval Europe Christian Raffensperger, 2022-03-03 What did medieval authors know about their world Were they parochial and focused on just their monastery town or kingdom Or were they aware of the broader medieval Europe that modern historians write about This collection brings the focus back to medieval authors to see how they described their world While we see that each author certainly had their own biases the vast majority of them did not view the world as constrained to their small piece of it Instead they talked about the wider world and often they had informants or textual sources that informed them about the world even if they did not visit it themselves This volume shows that they also used similar ideas to create space and identity whether talking about the desert the holy land or food practices in their texts By examining medieval authors and their own perceptions of their world this collection offers a framework for discussions of medieval Europe in the twenty first century
