Gwe Young Man Of New Guinea:

Hua, a Papuan Language of the Eastern Highlands of New Guinea John Haiman, 1980-01-01 There is no country in the world where as many different languages are spoken as in New Guinea approximately a fifth of the languages in the world Most of these so called Papuan languages seem to be unrelated to languages spoken elsewhere The present work is the first truly comprehensive study of such a language Hua The chief typological peculiarity of Hua is the existence of a medial verb construction used to conjoin clauses in compound and complex sentences Hua also shows a fundamental morphological distinction between coordinate and subordinate medial clauses the latter are not tense iconic the events they describe are not necessarily prior to the event described in later clauses Moreover their truth is always presupposed The distribution and behaviour of a post nominal suffix mo provides insights into the nature of topics conditional clauses and functional definitions of the parts of speech In phonology the central rules of assimilation are constrained by the universal hierarchy of sonority which may however be derived from binary features These are some of the areas in which the grammar of Hua is unusually perspicuous The present work aims at a standard of completeness such that it would be a useful reference work for research in almost any theoretical topic

Sweet Pea at War William Thomas Generous, 2005-06-01 This WWII naval history chronicles the prolific combat career of one of the most important US ships to fight in the Pacific War Few ships in American history have had as illustrious a history as the heavy cruiser USS Portland CA 33 affectionately known by her crew as Sweet Pea With the destruction of most of the US battleship fleet at Pearl Harbor cruisers such as Sweet Pea carried the biggest guns the Navy possessed for nearly a year after the start of World War II Sweet Pea at War describes in harrowing detail how Portland and her sisters protected the precious carriers and held the line against overwhelming Japanese naval strength Portland was instrumental in the American victories at the Battle of the Coral Sea the Battle of Midway and the naval battle of Guadalcanal conflicts that historians regard as turning points in the Pacific war She rescued nearly three thousand sailors from sunken ships some of them while she herself was badly damaged Only a colossal hurricane ended her career but she sailed home from that too Based on extensive research and interviews with members of the ship's crew Sweet Pea at War recounts from launching to scrapping the history of USS Portland demonstrating that she deserves to be remembered as one of the most important ships in US naval history      Gwe Arnold Perey, 2005 High in the mountains of New Guinea are a people untouched by contact with whites the Mengti people A baby is born and given the name Gwe meaning seed One night as he nestles in his mother's arms five days walk away across a freezing mountain range two white Australian patrol officers and a black policeman are killed in a surprise attack The Australian press calls it murder The native warriors call it justice We see Gwe grow up save his father's life during an armed conflict and learn of the goddess inhabiting a towering pine tree Meanwhile Alan Hull studying anthropology in America travels to New Guinea for research The young anthropologist who impatiently questions people demanding data and arousing anger comes to see intensely that Gwe's people deserve his respect and kindness that they have emotions like he does and are not numbers to put in notebooks in order to advance his career Racist preconceptions are opposed with true perception about inner lives on an island      CIM04, Conference on Interdisciplinary Musicology, 2003 Accompanying CD ROM proceedings of the conference in PDF format      [The Correspondence of G. Caduto, 2016-11-29 Stories come from around the world but they grow from the very earth upon which they are first told Michael J Caduto invites readers to listen while the Earth tells these stories through his lyrical retellings of tales such as Hare Rescues the Sun and The Coming of Fire      Growing Up in Central Australia Ute Eickelkamp, 2011-06-01 Surprisingly little research has been carried out about how Australian Aboriginal children and teenagers experience life shape their social world and imagine the future This volume presents recent and original studies of life experiences outside the institutional settings of childcare and education of those growing up in contemporary Central Australia or with strong links to the region Focusing on the remote communities roughly 1 200 across the continent the volume includes case studies of language and family life in small country towns and urban contexts These studies expertly show that forms of consciousness have changed enormously over the last hundred years for Indigenous societies more so than for the rest of Australia yet equally notable are the continuities across generations      The Reformers' Year Book ,1905      The Reformers' Year Book Joseph Edwards, Frederick William Pethick-Lawrence Baron Pethick-Lawrence, 1905      Meet Me at Lennon's Melanie Myers, 2019-09-03 As university student Olivia Wells sets out on her quest to find an unpublished manuscript by Gloria Graham a now obscure mid twentieth century feminist and writer she unwittingly uncovers details about a young woman found murdered Strangled with a nylon stocking in the mangroves on the banks of the river in wartime Brisbane the case soon became known as the river girl murder Olivia s detective work exposes the sinister side of that city in 1943 flush with greenbacks and nylons jealousy and violence brewing between the Australian and US soldiers which eventually boiled over into the infamous Battle of Brisbane Olivia soon discovers that the diggers didn t just reserve their anger for the US forces they also took it out on the women they perceived as traitors the ones who dared to consort with US soldiers Can Olivia rewrite history to bring justice to the river girl whose life was so brutally taken Even if the past can t be changed is it possible to undo history s erasure      The Publishers Weekly ,1887      The Congregationalist and Christian World ,1906      The Outlook Lyman Abbott, Hamilton Wright Mabie, Ernest Hamlin Abbott, Francis Rufus Bellamy, 1922      Outlook and Independent ,1922      Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith, Francis Walton, 1922      The Literary World ,1881
