Women Doing Intimacy Stevi Jackson,Petula Sik Ying Ho,2020-06-11 This book offers a comparative study of the lives of young adult women and their mothers in Hong Kong and Britain Set against the backdrop of debates regarding the consequences of late modern social change for family and intimate life the authors consider the challenges of exploring these issues across differing cultures The book focuses on a range of topics including mother daughter relationships romantic sexual and marital relationship trajectories and the imagined futures of daughters Throughout it is argued that differences between Hong Kong and Britain are not attributable merely to local culture and tradition but are the consequence of wider social economic and political conditions through which cultural continuity and change are mediated Women Doing Intimacy will be of interest to students and scholars of family life and gender studies

Heirs of the Bamboo Marisa C. Gaspar,2020-09-11 In 1999 Macao previously a territory under Portuguese rule was handed over to the People s Republic of China and transformed into one of the gambling capitals of the world These political and economic phenomena were accompanied by unprecedented social changes that ultimately have redefined the Macanese identity This book is about the Macanese living in Portugal and their intimate social networks in loco and interactions with their counterparts in Macao and elsewhere in the diaspora by the use of Internet Memory and ambivalence deeply associated with kinship language food and heritage are the cornerstones of this research which overturns colonial stereotypes and concepts of Macanese cultural purity

Music, Encounter, Togetherness Nicholas Cook,2024-04-23 Modern Western musical thought tends to represent music as a thing a pattern a structure even an organism than as a human practice Music Encounter Togetherness focusses on music as something people do as a mode of encounter between individuals and cultures and as an agent of interpersonal and social togetherness It presents music as a utopian dimension of everyday life
