Gynecological Cancer Management Daniel Clarke-Pearson, John Soper, 2011-08-24 This concise and practical guide enables the gynecologist to differentiate between benign and malignant gynecologic conditions to determine the best management options for the patient Over the past three decades as the specialty of obstetrics and gynecology has matured into a broad and diverse group of skills and disciplines it has become apparent that there are diagnoses and conditions in gynecologic oncology where the obstetrician gynecologist has a level of uncertainty or lack of confidence in his ability or knowledge base to adequately manage the patient and therefore refers the patient to a gynecologic oncologist This text portrays the advances in the field and reviews the current management of a number of gynaecologic conditions to give the reader the confidence needed to deal with these issues The distinguished Editors have crafted the book to include Case vignettes to provide clinical context Pathology notes to aid diagnostic outcomes Management guidance for obgyn practitioners to enable the best outcome for their patients Each topic is introduced with a concise overview followed by case based scenarios which discuss the specific management of common problems Providing the general gynecologist with the current clinical information necessary to manage conditions and identify the situations where consultation or referral to a gynecologic oncologist would be in the patient s best interest

Controversies in the Management of Gynecological Cancers Jonathan A. Ledermann, Carien L. Creutzberg, Michael A. Quinn, 2013-12-13 This is a novel text that highlights the controversial areas in the management of gynecological cancers None of the topics in this book have definitive answers they represent the everyday decision making facing gynecologists oncologists radiologists pathologists and other health professionals treating women with these conditions This book is not to be used as a traditional textbook it is a text that specialists and trainees will use to help them weigh up the arguments that exist in a variety of areas in the treatment of gynecological cancers Each chapter will have two or more authors selected either for their opposing views or for their ability to provide an opposite view or opinion to the other The content will be evidence based illustrating contrasting evidence and scientific opinion in the literature Each chapter will close on a summary indicating the direction of research needed to address the issues being discussed
