H. C. Bankole-Bright and Politics in Colonial Sierra Leone, 1919-1958 Akintola Wyse, 2003-12-11 This substantial and thoroughly documented book is a political biography of an important figure in Sierra Leone. It is also a comment on two of the major themes of the country's history: the relations between the Colony Krio Society and the protectorate; the earlier inhabitants of the territory; and more importantly, the position of the imperial regime vis-à-vis its colonial subjects. The author, a Sierra Leonean and a Krio himself, skillfully examines the country's recent history through the life of Dr H C Bankole Bright, an important leader of the Krio people. The Krio descendants of the freed slaves were the elite of Sierra Leone for more than a century, but ultimately they failed to master mass electoral politics during the period of decolonization, leading to independence. Dr Bankole Bright's failure is seen as emblematic of the disappointed hopes of the Krio as a political group in Sierra Leone. An underlying theme of the book is the misrepresentation of the Krio people in Sierra Leone historiography.

The Paradoxes of History and Memory in Post-Colonial Sierra Leone Sylvia Ojukutu-Macauley, Ismail Rashid, 2013-10-10 This anthology reflects the complex processes in the production of historical knowledge and memory about Sierra Leone and its diaspora since the 1960s. The processes are emblematic of experiences in other parts of Africa, which contain their own distinctive features. The fragments of these memories are etched in the psyche, bodies, and practices of Africans in Africa and other global landscapes and, on the other hand, are embedded in the various discourses and historical narratives about the continent and its peoples. Even though Africans have reframed these discourses and narratives to reclaim and re-center their own worldviews, agency, and experiences since independence, they remained until recently heavily sedimented with Western colonialist and racist ideas and frameworks. This anthology engages and interrogates the differing frameworks that have informed the different practices, professional as well as popular, of retelling the Sierra Leonean past. In a sense, therefore, it is concerned with the familiar outline of the story of the making and unmaking of an African nation and its constituent race, ethnic class, and cultural fragments from colonialism to the present. Yet Sierra Leone, the oldest and quintessential British colony and most Pan African country in the continent provides interesting twists to this familiar outline The contributors to this volume who consist of different generations of very accomplished and prominent scholars of Sierra Leone in Africa the United States and Europe provide their own distinctive reflections on these twists based on their research interests which cover ethnicity class gender identity formation nation building resistance and social conflict Their contributions engage various paradoxes and transformative moments in Sierra Leone and West African history They also reflect the changing modes of historical practice and perspectives over the last fifty years of independence New Perspectives on the Sierra Leone Krio Mac Dixon-Fyle, Gibril Raschid Cole, 2006 The ex slave Krio population of Freetown Sierra Leone an amalgam of ethnicities drawn from several parts of the African continent is a fascinating study in hybridity creolization European cultural penetration the retention of African cultural values and the interface between New World returnees and autochthonous populations of West Africa Although its Nigerian connections are often acknowledged insufficient attention has been paid to the indigenous Sierra Leonean roots of this community This anthology addresses this problem while celebrating the complexities of Krio identity and Krio interaction with other ethnic groups and nationalities in the British colonial experience

THE DECLINE AND FALL OF THE ATHENS OF WEST AFRICA Akibo Robinson, 2023-07-17 The country owed its name to the Portuguese explorer Pedro da Cintra who was the first European to sight and map the Freetown Harbour The original Portuguese name Sierra Lyoa Lion Mountains describes the range of hills that surrounds the harbour The capital Freetown commands one of the world's largest natural harbours The country is located on the coast of West Africa bounded on the North and East by Guinea on the East by Liberia and on the West by the Atlantic Ocean It has many miles of beautiful sandy beaches The backbone of the economy is agriculture but it is rich in minerals diamonds gold bauxite and rutile The book traces the rich pre colonial history of a people whose main occupations then were agriculture and trade Communal life was highly regulated by chiefs who presided over their subjects These societies were governed by what is now called customary laws The book also debunks the thinking that Pedro da Cintra discovered Sierra Leone he was not even the first European to set foot in Sierra Leone It traces exhaustively the exploitative rule of the British Colonial Administration until its independence on 27th April 1961 Sierra Leone is credited as being the Athens of West Africa How this came about is explained at length How can a small country so far removed from Athens be credited as such The primary reason was for its learning The first University in sub Saharan Africa was established in Sierra Leone and it attracted students from all over the continent Woven into this academic fabric is the politico socio economic development from the founding of the state up to the present It traces the turbulent times the country has been through coups and countercoups declaration of a one party state a brutal 11 year civil war and the bastardisation of the constitution by various regimes since independence up to the present

The African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights [2 Volume Set] Nat Rubner, 2023 A landmark study of the African Charter on human and peoples rights one of the most important documents in modern African history that positions it within the African Lives Matter struggle to assert an African identity rather than as simply a human rights document This set describes its underlying African origins and how the principles of the OAU influenced its path and content

Democratization and Human Security in Postwar Sierra Leone Joseph J. Bangura, Marda Mustapha, 2016-04-29 This edited collection is the first book length project to undertake a multidisciplinary study of democratization and human security in the post war nation of Sierra Leone The overarching theme is there is synergy of democratization and human security which makes it imperative for the state to foster and enhance the realization of these concepts in postwar Sierra Leone The book is divided into two broad thematic sections The first section deals with democratization with a critical examination of the creation and instrumentality of institutions largely considered a necessity for democracy to take hold in a country The second section delineates human security or the lack thereof in key areas of political social and economic life Though the book is specific to Sierra Leone African countries and indeed countries transitioning to democracy around the world scholars and practitioners of postwar or democratic transition studies would benefit from the concepts expounded in this collection

Africans John Iliffe, 2017-07-13 In a vast and all embracing study of Africa from the origins of mankind to the present day John Iliffe refocuses its history on the peopling of an environmentally hostile continent Africans have been pioneers struggling against disease and nature but during the last century their inherited culture has interacted with medical progress to produce the most rapid population growth the world has ever seen This new edition incorporates genetic and linguistic findings throwing light on early African history and summarises research that has transformed the study of the Atlantic slave trade It also examines the consequences of a rapidly growing youthful population the hopeful but uncertain democratisation and economic recovery of the early twenty first century the containment of the AIDS epidemic and the turmoil within Islam that has produced the Arab Spring Africans The History of a Continent is thus a single story binding modern men and women to their earliest human ancestors

Witchcraft and Colonial Rule in Kenya, 1900-1955 Katherine Luongo, 2011-09-26 Focusing on colonial Kenya this book shows how conflicts between state authorities and Africans over witchcraft related crimes provided an important space in which the meanings of justice law and order in the empire were debated Katherine Luongo discusses the emergence of imperial networks of knowledge about witchcraft She then demonstrates how colonial concerns about witchcraft produced an elaborate body of jurisprudence about capital crimes The book analyzes the legal wrangling that produced the Witchcraft Ordinances in the 1910s the birth of an anthro administrative complex surrounding witchcraft in the 1920s the hotly contested Wakamba Witch Trials of the 1930s the explosive growth of legal opinion on witch murder in the 1940s and the unprecedented state sponsored cleansings of witches and Mau Mau adherents during the 1950s A work of anthropological history this book develops an ethnography of Kamba witchcraft or uoi

Child Slavery and Guardianship in Colonial Senegal Bernard Moitt, 2023-11-02 Uncovers the stories of children liberated from slavery in Senegal after 1848 and relegated to tutelle or guardianship

State and Society in Pre-colonial Asante T. C.

McCaskie,2003-10-30 Scholarship on the West African kingdom of Asante is at the leading edge of Africanist research In this book T C McCaskie gives a detailed and richly nuanced historical portrait of precolonial Asante His delineation of state and society in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries is centred on an extended analysis of the crucial ritual of the annual Kumase odwira festival It is at once a profound historical reconstruction of an African polity and a deeply informed meditation on key Asante concepts and ideas Throughout the book the Asante experience is consistently discussed in a relation to a broad range of historiography and critical theory     The Temne of Sierra Leone Joseph J. Bangura,2017-11-09 Much of the research and study of the formation of Sierra Leone focuses almost exclusively on the role of the so called Creoles or descendants of ex slaves from Europe North America Jamaica and Africa living in the colony In this book Joseph J Bangura cuts through this typical narrative surrounding the making of the British colony and instead offers a fresh look at the role of the often overlooked indigenous Temne speakers Bangura explores however the socio economic formation establishment and evolution of Freetown from the perspective of different Temne speaking groups including market women religious figures and community leaders and the complex relationships developed in the process Examining key issues such as the politics of belonging African agency and the creation of national identities Bangura offers an account of Sierra Leone that sheds new perspectives on the social history of the colony     The Borders of Race in Colonial South Africa Robert Ross,2014 This is the detailed narrative of the Kat River Settlement which was located on the border between the Cape Colony and the amaXhosa in the Eastern Cape of South Africa during the nineteenth century The settlement created a fertile landscape in the valley and developed a political theology of great political and racial importance to the evolution of the Cape and of South Africa as a whole     Navigating Local Transitional Justice Laura S. Martin,2023-05-11 Examines local transitional justice processes in post conflict Sierra Leone to explain how these programs work in practice     A Saro Community in the Niger Delta, 1912-1984 Mac Dixon-Fyle,1999 By examining the history of the Potts Johnsons an immigrant Saro emigrant Krio people family from Sierra Leone living in the Port Harcourt region of Nigeria from roughly 1912 1984 this study reviews the migration history of the Saro in the Niger River delta The work also touches on many important issues to consider when researching African history intra African migration status of and dominance by elites both indigenous and immigrant women s roles in social relationships and the preservation of family and cultural values under extreme socio economic stress Mac Dixon Fyle is an Associate Professor of History at DePauw University in Greencastle Indiana     Africa in Scotland, Scotland in Africa ,2014-09-25 Africa in Scotland Scotland in Africa provides scholarly interdisciplinary analysis of the historical and contemporary relationships links and networks between Scotland Africa and the African diaspora The book interrogates these links from a variety of perspectives historical political economic religious diplomatic and cultural and assesses the mutual implications for past present and future relationships The socio historical connection between Scotland and Africa is illuminated by the many who have shaped the history of African nationalism education health and art in respective contexts of Africa Britain the Caribbean and the USA The book contributes to the empirical theoretical and methodological development of European African Studies and thus fills a significant gap in information interpretation and analysis of the specific historical and contemporary relationships between Scotland Africa and the African diaspora Contributors are Afe Adogame Andrew Lawrence Esther Breitenbach John McCracken Markku Hokkanen Olutayo Charles Adesina Marika Sherwood Caroline Bressey Janice McLean Evelyn Nicodemus Kristian Romare Oluwakemi Adesina Elijah Obinna Damaris Seleina Parsitau Kweku Michael Okyerefo Musa Gaiya and Jordan Rengshwat Vicky Khasandi Telewa Kenneth Ross Magnus Echtler and Geoff Palmer Africa, Empire and Fleet Street Jonathan Derrick, 2018-03-15 For decades before and after African independence the London weekly West Africa was a well known source of news analysis and comment on the region especially the former British territories Jonathan Derrick who worked on the magazine's staff in the 1960s and again in its final years before closure in 2003 here studies the earlier history of West Africa through the story of its largely forgotten editor Albert Cartwright from the magazine's founding in 1917 to Cartwright's retirement in 1947 Before editing West Africa Cartwright spent twenty years in South Africa making the headlines in 1901 when as editor of Cape Town's South African News during the Boer War he was jailed for a year for a war crimes allegation against Lord Kitchener Exploring Cartwright family papers and memories Derrick reveals the complex nature of a man who for three decades ran a colonial magazine but was appreciated by Africans as someone who genuinely understood them Derrick places the story of colonial era West Africa which would reach its greatest heights during the independence period within the wider landscape of British periodicals dealing with Africa in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Transforming Sudan Alden Young, 2018 This book traces the formation of the Sudanese state following the Second World War through a developmentalist ideology The Athens of West Africa Daniel J. Paracka, Jr., 2004-03-01 This book is about Fourah Bay College FBC and its role as an institution of higher learning in both its African and international context The study traces the College's development through periods of missionary education 1816 1876 colonial education 1876 1938 and development education 1938 2001 The Struggle over State Power in Zimbabwe George Hamandishe Karekwaivanane, 2017-11-09 The establishment of legal institutions was a key part of the process of state construction in Africa and these institutions have played a crucial role in the projection of state authority across space This is especially the case in colonial and postcolonial Zimbabwe George Karekwaivanane offers a unique long term study of law and politics in Zimbabwe which examines how the law was used in the constitution and contestation of state power across the late colonial and postcolonial periods Through this he offers insight on recent debates about judicial independence adherence to human rights and the observation of the rule of law in contemporary Zimbabwean politics The book sheds light on the prominent place that law has assumed in Zimbabwe's recent political struggles for those researching the history of the state and power in Southern Africa It also carries forward important debates on the role of law in state making and will also appeal to those interested in African legal
