Haggai Zechariah 1 8:

Haggai, Zechariah 1-8 Carol L. Meyers, Eric M. Meyers, 1987 From the time it was promulgated in the 6th Century this has been one of the most influential documents of the West The words of Benedict are a guide for work prayer and study

Haggai, Zechariah 1-8 ,2021 Haggai and Zechariah 1 8 Volume 25B in the acclaimed Anchor Yale Bible part of the Scripture known as the Minor Prophets were written during a critical period in Israel s history the momentous return of the Jews from Babylonian exile Following the conquest of Babylon by the Persian Empire the Israelites sought to reestablish their ethnic and religious legacy in Judah This was a time of profound turmoil and uncertainty and Haggai and Zechariah provided a crucial measure of support and inspiration They rallied Israel s energies and exhorted their fellow countrymen to heed the word of God under their guidance the Jews restored the Temple at Jerusalem which had been destroyed by the armies of Nebuchadnezzar Together the two prophets guided Israel through an important transitional epoch and reconciled the influences of Persia s dominion with the sacred traditions of the Hebrew people In this illuminating new translation and commentary Carol and Eric Meyers consider the Book of Haggai and the first eight chapters of the Book of Zechariah in a linguistic social and historical context They underscore the literary artistry the political acumen and the prophetic authority of these fascination volumes that proved so vital to the survival of Israel and the preservation of the Jewish faith Haggai and Zechariah ,1902 The Anchor Bible ,1987 Haggai, Zechariah 1 - 8 Carol L. Meyers, Eric M. Meyers, 1987

The Anchor Bible : Haggai-Zechariah 1-8 Carol Meyers, 1964 Old Testament Theology Paul R. House, 1998-11-04 Paul R House provides a comprehensive theology of the Old Testament carefully exploring each Old Testament book thematically summarizing its content and showing its theological significance within the whole of the Old Testament canon

Tradition and Innovation in Haggai and Zechariah 1-8 Janet E. Tollington, 1993-03-01 The prophets Haggai and Zechariah near contemporaries were active at a critical period in Israel s history The recently restored Jerusalem community had come through national downfall and exile Its religious and sociopolitical identity in the Persian Empire had to be established This volume offers a thematic study of the prophetic response to that situation The prophets their status and their styles of prophecy are compared with those of their predecessors as are their attitudes towards Israel s religious traditions Their theological understanding of proper leadership divine judgment and Israel s relationship to other nations is compared with the developing theology of the classical prophets The purpose is to discover whether Haggai Zechariah and their tradents demonstrate continuity with or divergence from the prophetic traditions in which they stood This study concludes that Haggai is a traditionalist while Zechariah emerges as an innovative and radical theologian ahead of his time God's Relational Presence J. Scott Duvall, J. Daniel Hays, 2019-11-19 Two leading biblical scholars and bestselling authors offer a fresh approach to the question of the unity of the whole Bible This book shows that God s desire to be with his people is a thread running from Genesis through Revelation Duvall and Hays make the case that God s relational presence is central to the Bible's grand narrative. It is the cohesive center that drives the whole biblical story and ties together other important biblical themes such as covenant, kingdom, glory, and salvation history. The Blessing of Abraham, the Spirit, and Justification in Galatians Chee-Chiew Lee, 2013-08-12. What has the Spirit to do with the blessing of Abraham and justification? This book challenges the common assumption that the Abrahamic blessing and the Spirit are equated in Gal 3:14 and points out how an accurate understanding of the relationship between these two motifs contributes significantly to appreciating Paul's overall argument in Galatians and his theology of justification. Even though Paul does not cite Old Testament passages on the promise of the Spirit in Gal 3:14, his arguments are nonetheless deeply influenced by the whole prophetic tradition about the Spirit. Most current discussions on the present and future aspects of justification have yet to consider the Spirit's role in the latter. Given the renewed interest in Pauline justification, this book contributes to this important aspect of the Spirit's role in future justification, which needs to be developed further in Pauline and New Testament theology. Joshua Traditions and the Argument of Hebrews 3 and 4 Bryan J. Whitfield, 2013-06-26. This monograph examines the place of chapters 3 and 4 in the larger argument of Hebrews, particularly the relationship of the people of God in Heb 3:7-4:13 to the surrounding discussion of the high priest. The connection between the great high priest and the people of God proved a central question for twentieth-century scholars, including Ernst Käsemann. The first chapter of this work examines previous attempts to explain the flow of the argument and revisits the proposal of J. Rendel Harris, who thought attention to the two Joshuas of the Hebrew Bible was the key to connecting Heb 3:7-4:13 to its frame. The second chapter examines reading practices within Second Temple Judaism that shaped those of the author of Hebrews. Two subsequent chapters explore the history of Second Temple interpretation of the texts central to Harris's proposal: Numbers 13:14 and Zechariah 3. The Levitical tradition receives particular attention. The following chapter provides a careful study of the early chapters of Hebrews that explores allusions and echoes to Numbers and to Zechariah. The monograph concludes with a positive assessment of much of Harris's proposal. Community Identity in Judean Historiography Gary N. Knoppers, Kenneth A. Ristau, 2009-06-30. Most of the essays in this volume stem from the special sessions of the Historiography Seminar of the Canadian Society for Biblical Studies held in the late spring of 2007, University of Saskatchewan. The papers in these focused sessions dealt with issues of self-identification, community identity, and ethnicity in Judahite and Yehudite historiography. The scholars present addressed a range of issues such as the understanding, presentation, and delimitation of Israel in various biblical texts; the relationship of Israelites to Judahites in Judean historical writings; the definition of Israel over against other peoples; and the possible reasons why the ethno-religious community Israel was the focus of Judahite/Yehudite historiography. Papers approached these matters from a variety of theoretical and disciplinary vantage points. For example, some pursued an inner-biblical perspective, pentateuchal sources, writings of Former Prophets, Latter Prophets, Chronicles, Ezra, Nehemiah, while others pursued a cross-cultural comparative perspective, ancient Near Eastern, ancient Greek, and Hellenistic historiographies.

Western and non Western historiographic traditions Still others attempted to relate the material remains to the question of community identity in northern Israel monarchic Judah and postmonarchic Yehud Hermeneutics as Apprenticeship David I. Starling, 2016-09-20 A Fresh Approach to the Art of Biblical Interpretation This book offers a fresh approach to the art of biblical interpretation focusing on the ways Scripture itself forms its readers as wise and faithful interpreters David Starling shows that apprenticing ourselves to the interpretive practices of the biblical writers and engaging closely with texts from all parts of the Bible help us to develop the habits and practices required to be good readers of Scripture After introducing the principles Starling works through the canon providing inductive case studies in interpretive method and drawing out implications for contemporary readers Offering a fresh contribution to hermeneutical discussions this book will be an ideal supplement to traditional hermeneutics textbooks for seminarians It includes a foreword by Peter O'Brien Enduring Exile Martien Halvorson-Taylor, 2010-12-17 Focusing on the composition and redaction of Jeremiah 30 31 Isaiah 40 66 and Zechariah 1 8 this book examines how the Babylonian exile became a Second Temple metaphor for political disenfranchisement social inequality and alienation from YHWH Consider Leviathan Brian R. Doak, 2014-11-01

Theologians and philosophers are turning again to questions of the meaning or non meaning of the natural world for human self understanding Brian R Doak observes that the book of Job more than any other book in the Bible uses metaphors drawn from the natural world especially of plants and animals as raw material for thinking about human suffering Doak argues that Job should be viewed as an anthropological ground zero for the traumatic definition of the post exilic human self in ancient Israel Furthermore the battered shape of the Joban experience should provide a starting point for reconfiguring our thinking about natural theology as a category of intellectual history in the ancient world Doak examines how the development of the human subject is portrayed in the biblical text in either radical continuity or discontinuity with plants and animals Consider Leviathan explores the text at the intersection of anthropology theology and ecology opening up new possibilities for charting the view of nature in the Hebrew Bible Exclusive Inclusivity Dalit Rom-Shiloni, 2013-07-18 The sixth and fifth centuries BCE were a time of constant re identifications within Judean communities both in exile and in the land it was a time when Babylonian exilic ideologies captured a central position in Judean Jewish history and literature at the expense of silencing the voices of any other Judean communities Proceeding from the later biblical evidence to the earlier from the Persian period sources Ezra Nehemiah Haggai Zechariah and Deutero Isaiah to the Neo Babylonian prophecy of Ezekiel and Jeremiah Exclusive Inclusivity explores the ideological transformations within these writings using the sociological rubric of exclusivity Social psychology categories of ethnicity and group identity provide the analytical framework to clarify that Ezekiel the prophet of the Jehoiachin Exiles was the earliest constructor of these exclusive ideologies Thus already from the Neo Babylonian period definitions of otherness were being set to shape the self understanding of each of the post 586 communities in Judah Yehud and in the Babylonian Diaspora as the exclusive People of God As each community reidentified

itself as the in group arguments of otherness were adduced to disregard and delegitimize the sister community The polemics against foreigners in the Persian period literature are the ideological successors to the earlier ideological conflict Paul and the Restoration of Humanity in Light of Ancient Jewish Traditions Aaron Sherwood, 2012-10-12 In Paul and The Restoration of Humanity in Light of Ancient Jewish Traditions Aaron Sherwood questions the assumption of universalism in Pauline thought and finds instead that relevant Pauline traditions depict a partly restricted and particularly Israelite restoration of humanity This important Jewish component of Paul's thought remains largely unrecognized but Pauline and other ancient Jewish traditions consistently present Israel and non Israelites uniting in their worship of Yhwh as the restoration of both Israel and humanity Aaron Sherwood demonstrates in Pauline traditions the same deployment of Israel nations unification as in biblical and post biblical traditions This suggests that rather than secondarily finding space for Gentile justification the restoration of humanity plays a generative role in Paul's theology mission and apostolic self identity

From Joshua to Caiaphas VanderKam, 2021-11-22 Customers in North America who wish to purchase this publication please contact Augsburg Fortress Press From Joshua To Caiaphas High Priests After The Exile by James C VanderKam John A O'Brien Professor of Hebrew Scriptures University of Notre Dame is a comprehensive 548 page history of the high priests who served in the Second Temple period of Israel and their influence and importance in understanding early Judaism A masterpiece of scholarship and research Professor VanderKam writes with a distinctive clarity that allows even the non specialist general reader to come away with a comprehensive and coherent understanding of Temple Judaism as represented by the fifty one men who served as high priest from about 515 BCE down to 70CE when the Jerusalem temple was destroyed by the Romans No Old Testament Studies Israelite History or Judaic Studies collection can be considered either comprehensive or complete without the inclusion of this impressive and seminal work Also very highly recommended are Professor VanderKam's previous contributions The Dead Sea Scrolls Today 1994 An Introduction To Early Judaism 2001 The Book Of Jubilees 2001 and The Meaning Of The Dead Sea Scrolls which was co authored with Peter Flint 2002 Ezekiel's Message of Hope and Restoration Hei Yin Yip, 2021-04-19 The first twenty four chapters of the book of Ezekiel are characterised by vehement declarations of judgement This observation leaves the impression that Ezekiel 1-7 is devoid of references to hope and restoration However there is a redactional stratum in this section that supplemented the texts with material that conveys restoration and hope for the future In Ezekiel 1-7 many of these additions focus on priestly topics The motif of restoration in the redactional material of Ezekiel 3-5 is expressed by the reinstatement of Ezekiel in his priestly role This editorial emphasis on Ezekiel as priest in the redactional material suggests that the redaction was influenced by Zechariah 3 a text that depicts the reinstitution of the exiled Zadokite priesthood Moreover the redactional material of Ezekiel 6 7 drew inspiration from the Law of the Temple in Ezekiel 43 46 as the redactors sought to enhance Ezekiel's priestly role. The study provides new insights into how redactors who may have been associated with the Zadokite priesthood inserted the message of hope and restoration into the literary unit Ezekiel 1 7 during the post-exilic period.
