Haifa In The Late Ottoman Period 1864-1914:

Haifa in the Late Ottoman Period, 1864-1914 Mahmoud Yazbak, 2023-12-28 This volume offers a history of Haifa during that crucial part of the nineteenth century when Europe's penetration of Palestine combined with Istanbul's centralization efforts to alter irrevocably the social fabric of the country and change its political destiny After tracing the town's beginnings in the early eighteenth century the author painstakingly reconstructs from the few sijill volumes that have survived vital aspects of Ottoman Haifa's society and administration A fresh look at the town's demography is followed by an in depth discussion of the way inter communal relations developed after the 1864 Vil'yets Law had brought a restructuring of the sources of elite power The author's findings on the social status of Haifa's Muslim women significantly add to the vibrant picture of economic activities we now know urban Muslim women in the Ottoman Empire were involved in

Preparing the Mothers of Tomorrow Ela Greenberg, 2012-11-30 From the late nineteenth century onward men and women throughout the Middle East discussed debated and negotiated the roles of young girls and women in producing modern nations In Palestine girls education was pivotal to discussions about motherhood Their education was seen as having the potential to transform the family so that it could meet both modern and nationalist expectations Ela Greenberg offers the first study to examine the education of Muslim girls in Palestine from the end of the Ottoman administration through the British colonial rule Relying upon extensive archival sources official reports the Palestinian Arabic press and interviews she describes the changes that took place in girls education during this time Greenberg describes how local Muslims often portrayed as indifferent to girls education actually responded to the inadequacies of existing government education by sending their daughters to missionary schools despite religious tensions or by creating their own private nationalist institutions Greenberg shows that members of all socioeconomic classes understood the triad of girls education modernity and the nationalist struggle as educated girls would become the mothers of tomorrow who would raise nationalist and modern children While this was the aim of the various schools in Palestine not all educated Muslim girls followed this path as some used their education even if it was elementary at best to become teachers nurses and activists in women's organizations
