Lawrence, Nikolai Leskov, Lucy Maud Montgomery, Leo Tolstoy, Margaret Deland, Elizabeth Gaskell, Margaret Oliphant, Margaret Mitchell, Elizabeth von Arnim, Elizabeth Burgoyne Corbett, 2023-11-16 The Essential Feminist Collection 60 Powerful Classics in One Volume is a formidable anthology that explores the intricate and evolving landscape of feminist literature. It spans an impressive array of literary styles and genres from the dramatic depth of Victorian novels to the poignant realism of early 20th century narratives. This collection encapsulates the feminist consciousness through its selection of diverse and groundbreaking works. Standout pieces in the anthology take the reader through transformations in gender roles, societal expectations, and personal emancipation, reflecting an array of experiences and challenges faced by women across varying socio-cultural landscapes. The anthology brings together an esteemed assembly of authors and thinkers whose works have significantly shaped feminist discourse. With contributors such as Charlotte Brontë, Virginia Woolf, and Sojourner Truth among others, this volume reflects a tapestry of voices that helped to define and challenge the sociopolitical boundaries of their times. It aligns with pivotal literary movements such as romanticism and realism, providing a rich historical and cultural context that enhances the narrative of women's struggle and empowerment. The pioneering contributions collected here transcend geographic and temporal boundaries, weaving a narrative that is both extensive and enlightening. This anthology is highly recommended for those seeking to immerse themselves in feminist literature's vast and dynamic landscape. It offers an unparalleled opportunity to engage with the myriad perspectives and styles of its esteemed contributors, presenting a comprehensive dialogue on the timeless themes of gender, power, and identity. The breadth of insight contained within these pages represents not just a historical account but an ongoing conversation, making it an invaluable resource for both academic study and personal reflection on the multifaceted journey towards equality.

Precursor Math Concepts Mary Hynes-Berry, Jie-Qi Chen, Barbara Abel, 2021 This groundbreaking book looks at the development of mathematical thinking in infants and toddlers with an emphasis on the earliest stage from zero to three when mathematical thinking and problem solving first emerge as natural instincts. The text explores the four precursor math concepts: Attribute, Comparison, Change, and Pattern, with an emphasis on how development occurs when it is nurtured by loving, knowledgeable others. The authors call this the CAIR principle: Closely Attend, Intentionally Respond, Sharing their stories of working with a wide range of zero to three caregivers and educators. The authors stress the difference between arithmetic skills and their definition of mathematics as a logical way of thinking that allows for increasing precision. Each user-friendly chapter includes suggestions for highly effective practices that are embedded into everyday interactions and routines. Early care providers can use this resource to develop young children's interest in mathematics, ensuring that they are ready for the big ideas they will encounter in preschool. Book Features: Combines the most current research on infant and toddler cognitive development in relation to mathematical thinking Offers concrete ways to help caregivers and professionals draw out the math that is all around us Blends three domains of human development social emotional physical and cognitive Examines the What Who and How of each precursor concept with authentic anecdotes and What the Research Says sections
