career spanning and eclectic selection of nonfiction by the Arkansawyer novelist Donald Harington that reveals how a life of devastating losses and disappointments inspired what the Boston Globe called the quirkiest most original body of work in contemporary US letters This extensive collection of interviews and other works of prose many of which are previously unpublished offers glimpses into Harington's life loves and favorite obsessions replays his minor and not so minor dramas with literary critics and reveals the complicated and sometimes contentious relationship between his work of the writers he most admired The Guestroom Novelist which takes its title from an essay that serves as a love letter to his fellow underappreciated writers paints a rich portrait of the artist as a young middle aged and fiercely funny old man as well as comic sentimentalist philosopher and critic paying testimony to the writer's magnificent ability to transform the seemingly crude stuff of our material existence into enduring art

Acts of Mind Richard Jackson, 1984-05-30 There have been any number of books of interviews with contemporary writers but none precisely like this one The author editor has somehow managed to get these very different poets to follow his lead and in many cases for the first time anywhere to reveal much about their intellectual habits assumptions and preconceptions In almost every case he has been able to get these poets to talk more openly and freely than anyone else has ever done George Garrett
