Hallelujah Anyhow Suffering And The Christian Community Of Faith:

Hallelujah Anyhow! Diedra Kriewald,1986 The Transforming God Tyron Inbody,1997-01-01 This book offers a bold new approach to the theological interpretation of human suffering Beginning with a description of suffering and evil as religious problems Inbody moves to a critique of the all loving and omnipotent deity in classical theism concluding with a radical interpretation of the Christian God as a vulnerable transforming God Redeeming Marketplace Medicine Abigail Rian Evans,2008-04-01 Asserting what most Americans already suspect that corporate based managed care places profits over patient care theologian Abigail Rian Evans points out that medical experts have reduced health care to medical treatment under arrangements with health insurance plans and HMOs Her reasoned practical alternative engages Christian theology proposing a much broader concept of health care An important contribution to a critical discussion Is God Still at the Bedside? Abigail Rian Evans,2011 Is God Still at the Bedside by Abigail Rian Evans offers an expert interdisciplinary Christian perspective on the complex web of issues surrounding death and dying Evans here combines first person stories and interviews with research gathered from the medical theological legal ethical and pastoral disciplines Her comprehensive insightful work will not only benefit families struggling with difficult end of life decisions but also inform the doctors nurses and pastors who serve them Publisher Healing Liturgies for the Seasons of Life Abigail Rian Evans,2004-01-01 Are you looking for a new way to renew your worship respond to the needs of the church and community and connect with people in their passage of life both chronological and crisis This book offers a rich resource to you both as a tool for worship and also devotionally as you face the deepest questions of life Here you will find one way that the church can renew and rediscover its healing ministry Abigail Evans a leading specialist in bioethics and health ministries explores how God s gift of healing is available during all seasons of a person s life and how the power of hope and healing are affirmed and redirected through liturgical services sacraments and rites This distinctive resource features specific healing liturgies for injury illness death separation retirement and a host of other major life events from a wide variety of religious traditions The Unexpected Trina Montreuil Brown,2012-05-22 There is no available information at this time He Made the Stars Also Cole Huffman,2019-06-05 You probably know that Jesus did miracles but do you know why Reading about Jesus miracles is like pointing at constellations in the sky We look at the stars themselves not the finger pointing at them This constellation of seven miracles in John s Gospel shows us who Jesus was and why it matters It is the miracle worker we re to see not just the miracles Why was his turning water into wine not a party trick Why did he walk on water instead of staying on shore Why did he cry when raising Lazarus back to life Each miracle in John s narration is a story that had to be told The Jesus you meet in these pages is full of power and compassion glory and approachability grace and truth Whether you ve known Jesus a long time are new to faith or just curious about him He Made the Stars Also draws upon John s seven sign events to show you why Jesus remains so compelling "From Glory to Glory" First Lutheran Church (Eau Claire, Wis.),1965 Media, Religion and Culture Jeffrey H. Mahan, James H. Thrall, 2025-09-10 Religion has always been shaped by the media of its time Religious individuals communities and institutions use media as tools to communicate but also as locations where they construct and express identity practice religion and build community This lively book offers a comprehensive introduction to the contemporary field of religion media and culture It explores the religious content of media texts and the reception of those texts by religious consumers who appropriate and reuse them in their own religious work how new forms of media provide fresh locations for new religious voices and identities to emerge Thoroughly updated this second edition of Media Religion and Culture features case study examples from both established and new religions and each chapter is followed by insightful Reflections from leading scholars in the field Illustrated throughout the book also contains discussion questions and a glossary of key terms The Christian Evangelist ,1902 Ministry to Persons with Chronic Illnesses John Thomas Vanderzee,1993

The Christian Advocate ,1916 Humanism and the Death of God Ronald E. Osborn,2017-01-19 Humanism and the Death of God is a critical exploration of secular humanism and its discontents Through close readings of three exemplary nineteenth century philosophical naturalists or materialists who perhaps more than anyone set the stage for our contemporary quandaries when it comes to questions of human nature and moral obligation Ronald E Osborn argues that the death of God ultimately tends toward the death of liberal understandings of the human as well Any fully persuasive defense of humanistic values including the core humanistic concepts of inviolable dignity rights and equality attaching to each individual requires an essentially religious vision of personhood Osborn shows such a vision is found in an especially dramatic and historically consequential way in the scandalous particularity of the Christian narrative of God becoming a human He does not attempt to provide logical proofs for the central claims of Christian humanism along the lines some philosophers might demand Instead this study demonstrates how philosophical naturalism or materialism and secular humanisms and anti humanisms might be persuasively read from the perspective of a classically orthodox Christian faith
