phenomenon of labour takes the character of a prism Labour is thereby always context dependent and constituted through the actions of all protagonists involved in any labour relationship On the basis of three case studies in colonial German East Africa the construction of the Central Railway 1905-1916 the Otto Plantation in Kilossa 1907-1916 and the palaeontological Tendaguru Expedition 1909-1911 labour and labour relations are analysed The focus lies on hitherto neglected actors and groups of actors of labour in the colonial context of East Africa These were especially German companies and their staff white subaltern railway sub-contractors and labour recruiters Indian skilled workers and qualified East African workers Furthermore all three sites of labour proved to have their individual logics and characteristics But all of them were in tension between the global and the local coercion and voluntariness machine and manual labour skilled and unskilled labour reproductive and wage labour as well as between black and white Michael Rösser's dissertation has been awarded with honorary distinction by the European Network in Universal and Global History ENIUGH Comet Lore Edwin
