Halls Of Jade Walls Of Stone Women In China Today:

Halls of Jade, Walls of Stone Stacey Peck, 1985      China And The Challenge Of The Future Carol Lee Hamrin, 2019-03-04
This book highlights information obtained from formal interviews and informal conversations with knowledgeable Chinese in 1985-1987. It reveals the growing participation in politics of social groups and related changes underway in the patterns of contemporary Chinese political thought and culture.      Anna Chennault Catherine Forslund, 2002. She held few government posts yet she was a strong influence on the course of U.S. Asian relations in the last half of the twentieth century. The Chinese-born wife of General Claire Chennault of World War II Flying Tigers fame, Anna Chennault was a leader in America's informal relations with East Asia from 1950 to 1990. Professor Catherine Forslund's new book Anna Chennault: Informal Diplomacy and Asian Relations examines Chennault's unique multifaceted career as an exemplar of American informal diplomacy during the post-World War II era. A fascinating look at a woman before her time, this new book is an informative and engaging account of the complex nature of U.S. Asian relations, diplomatic processes, and the role of women in foreign affairs.      State, 1989.      Remaking China's Public Philosophy and Chinese Women's Liberation Jinghao Zhou, 2006. Views women's liberation as a comprehensive project and part of the process of China's democratization by using the prism of public philosophy to examine Chinese women's liberation in a global context.      Women in the World Lyn Reese, Jean Wilkinson, 1987. A truly useful reference or curriculum development tool. THE BOOK REPORT Selection of books and authors was wonderful. I would give this book a 4 star rating and highly recommend it to teachers at the Junior and Senior high level. Catherine Ahmad, Center for Middle Eastern Studies, University of Texas at Austin. Strongly recommended for collection development in both school and public libraries. EMERGENCY LIBRARIAN.      Chinese Women Speak Denyse Verschuur-Basse, 1996-01-30. When Verschuur-Basse, a French sociologist specializing in the family, was invited by the Academy of Social Sciences to Beijing in 1985, she interviewed women from three generations and a variety of professions about their lives as women, wives, mothers, and daughters-in-law. Over a five-year period, she conducted in-depth, non-directed interviews with educated women who were able to analyze and interpret their lives in the context of important formative factors such as the Cultural Revolution, the one-child policy, and other social reforms. The difference between urban and rural expectations from women is particularly apparent in the life stories of the 13 women included in this book. The women voice common concerns as wives and mothers who work outside the home and comment on the prevalence of abortion and preference for male children, the increase in divorce rates, and the place of women as decision makers in the family. Originally published in French as Paroles de Femmes Chinoises La Famille Autrement Harmattan, 1993, the study received critical acclaim from academia and media as a revealing portrayal of social reality in China.      Gender in the Third World Sarah A. Radcliffe, Janet G. Townsend, 1988. Bibliography contains over 1300 items: books, articles, pamphlets, and working papers. Merely publications from 1983 to 1987. The bibliography is divided by geographical area and within these areas by topic: e.g., agricultural production, rural change.
