The Life Of Buddha And Its Lessons (Hardcover) Henry Olcott, 2018-06-12 Olcott's biographic account of The Buddha combines experience and wisdom when introducing his life to a Western audience While brief Olcott's examination of the holy prophet's life is as vivid and fresh today as it was when it was published Widely circulated this account was responsible for introducing many otherwise knowledgeable scholars to the origins of Buddhism and the principles of the faith The truth behind Gautama Buddha's early life the time in which he lived and the effect he had upon the religious life of India and the Eastern regions is detailed Olcott first presents a series of facts about the founding sage and then examines further the principles of the Buddhist religion The key differences such as the lack of a God figure and the notion of enlightenment and self sacrifice as being a path to Nirvana are noted as contrasting Buddhists to the other major world religions

Siddhartha Gautama, 2014

The Story of the Buddha John Tarrant, 2024-12-03 For readers of mythology an original and introspective journey through the life of the Buddha accompanied by 26 beautiful color illustrations and 8 meditations From longtime Zen teacher and poet John Tarrant this is an original retelling of the foundational myth of Buddhism the life of the Buddha Told and retold for centuries this story holds a special place in the human legacy because it is ultimately an investigation of the nature of mind and consciousness Literary minded readers and fans of myths and folklore will be especially drawn to the Buddha's encounters with kings gods heroes monsters and wise teachers in his spiritual quest In this captivating narrative the author leans into his memories of the Egyptian and Greek myths he encountered as a child If we pour ourselves into the story of the Buddha he writes we enter the journey from an unusual place as far as myths go we begin where the Odyssey ends The Buddha already had everything a palace family food wealth yet he was suffocating with discontent He needed to embark on a journey involving pain searching magic and personal discovery This led to his awakening and the teachings that form the basis of Buddhism John Tarrant frames the story with an intimate inquisitive introduction and postscript that reflect his decades of studying koans and will resonate with a broad readership The story of the Buddha is personal it becomes your own story opening an unexpected path to awakening If you listen to the images that arise in its telling you can find where you are in life and where you are headed The Buddha s story becomes more personal with the concluding section of reflections and eight meditations about his life drawn from the Zen tradition The book s gorgeous full color historical illustrations of characters and events in the Buddha s life enrich the narrative journey This lovely little book is a meaningful gift or addition to your own bedside or coffee table
