THE GUTTER IN THE SKY

translated from the French of

Jean Genet

Notre Dame des Fleurs

From the PUBLISHER'S ADVERTISEMENT:

This is not the first time that thieves, murderers, smugglers, pimps and whores have invested the pages of a novel. What makes this book unusual is that in it the underworld moves into literature as a legitimate segment of our society. Characters such as Divine, Mimosa, Darling and Gabriel have, hitherto, always appeared in the wrong, under a shadow which completely cut off their humanity from ours. With the publication of THE GUTTER IN THE SKY—the fastest selling book in Europe today—they appear justified in their own light. Chiefly because their author—who stepped out of a lifetime of imprisonment into international literary fame—is one of them and loves them as they are. Genet loves his extravert and introvert, sex-normal and sex-perverted criminals as much as Victor Hugo loved his saints. In the works of Genet the gutter suddenly appears before us in the full bloom of its natural colors.
