Gyn Ecology The Metaethics Of Radical Feminism:

Gyn/Ecology Mary Daly,1990-11-12 This revised edition includes a New Intergalactic Introduction by the Author Mary Daly's New Intergalactic Introduction explores her process as a Crafty Pirate on the Journey of Writing Gyn Ecology and reveals the autobiographical context of this Thunderbolt of Rage that she first hurled against the patriarchs in 1979 and no hurls again in the Re Surging Movement of Radical Feminism in the Be Dazzling Nineties Gvn/Ecology Mary Daly, 1990-11-12 This revised edition includes a New Intergalactic Introduction by the Author Mary Daly's New Intergalactic Introduction explores her process as a Crafty Pirate on the Journey of Writing Gyn Ecology and reveals the autobiographical context of this Thunderbolt of Rage that she first hurled against the patriarchs in 1979 and no hurls again in the Re Surging Movement of Radical Feminism in the Be Dazzling Nineties Sati Arvind Sharma, 1988-01-01 The Age of Sex Crime Jane Caputi, 1987 The sexualized serial murder of women by men is the subject of this provocative book Jane Caputi argues that the sensationalized murders by men such as Jack the Ripper Son of Sam Hillside Strangler and the Yorkshire Ripper represent a contemporary genre of sexually political crimes. The awful deeds function as a form of patriarchal terrorism disappearing women at a rate of some four thousand annually in the United States alone Caputi asks us not only to name the phenomenon of sexually political murder but to recognize sex crime in all of its various interconnecting manifestations

Feminisms Lucy Delap, 2020-11-24 A global useable history of feminism that incorporates alternative starting points and new thinkers challenging the presumed priority of European feminism and offering a reinterpretation of the historical record Feminism's origins have often been framed around a limited cast of mostly white and educated foremothers but the truth is that feminism has been and continues to be a global movement For centuries women from all walks of life have been mobilizing for gender justice As the last decade has reminded even the most powerful women there is nothing post feminist about our world And there is much to be learned from the passion and protests of the past Historian Lucy Delap looks to the global past to give us a usable history of the movement against gender injustice one that can help clarify questions of feminist strategy priority and focus in the contemporary moment Rooted in recent innovative histories the book incorporates alternative starting points and new thinkers challenging the presumed priority of European feminists and ranging across a global terrain of revolutions religions empires and anti colonial struggles In Feminisms we find familiar stories of suffrage of solidarity of protest yet there is no assumption that feminism looks the same in each place or time Instead Delap explores a central paradox feminists have demanded inclusion but have persistently practiced their own exclusions Some voices are heard and others are routinely muted In amplifying the voices of figures at the grassroots level Delap shows us how a rich relationship to the feminist past can help inform its future Education in a Catholic Perspective John Sullivan, 2016-04-29 A distance is opening up between Catholic education and the rich intellectual heritage of the Catholic Church Education in a Catholic Perspective explores Catholic philosophical and theological foundations for both education per se and for Catholic education in particular With contributions spanning the theological foundations of Catholic education the interplay of theology and education and discussions of the social and missional dimensions of education this book will be of considerable interest to educators and students of Catholic education to academics in the fields of applied theology and philosophy and to those with an interest in the foundations of education Traductio Dirk Delabastita, 2016-04-08 Nothing like wordplay can make difference between languages look so uncompromising can give such a sharp edge to the dilemma between forms and effects can so blur the line between translation and adaptation or can cast such harsh light on our illusion of complete semantic stability. In the pun the whole language system may resonate and so may literary traditions and ideological discourses It follows that the pun does not only put translators to the test it also poses a challenge to the views and concepts of those who study translation This book brings together experts on translation and the pun as well as researchers representing a variety of other relevant disciplines and schools of thought ranging from theology to deconstruction and from contrastive linguistics to feminism It can be read as a companion volume to Wordplay and Translation a special issue of The Translator Volume 2 Number 2 1996 also edited by Dirk Delabastita Ecocritical Menopause Nicole Anae, 2024-07-08 Ecocritical Menopause Women Literature Environment The Change is the first volume of its kind to bring together cross sectional ecofeminist voices privileging women s menopausal positionality within literary works This collection reexamines menopause across the disciplinary fields of ecofeminism and ecocriticism as clearly the most neglected phase of the menstrual cycle and aims to develop a critical discourse in counterpoint to the persistent cultural and critical legacies that sustain underrating women in midlife In highlighting selected literary representations of female being in transition this volume includes Exploration of the core motifs mediating the fashioning of menopausal women including biology the body body shaming climacterium hysteria the crone hag figure femininity gender identity reproduction sexlessness and asexuality Reexamination of histo cultural biases that continue to perpetuate a devaluation of women after menopause such as ageism degeneration loss of fertility and myths of essentialism patriarchy and hegemony social taboos the medicalization of menopause and cultural menophobia Analysis of literature genres in which we find portraitures of peri post menopause subjectivity such as autofiction crime fiction detective fiction folktales frame tale fiction mystery poetry short story and the whodonit Feminist Thought, Student Economy Edition Rosemarie Tong, 2018-10-03 This book provides a clear comprehensive and incisive introduction to the major traditions of feminist theory from liberal feminism radical feminism and Marxist and socialist feminism to care focused feminism psychoanalytic feminism women of color feminisms and ecofeminism

The Transgender Studies Reader Susan Stryker, Stephen Whittle, 2013-10-18 Transgender studies is the latest area of academic inquiry to grow out of the exciting nexus of queer theory feminist studies and the history of sexuality Because transpeople challenge our most fundamental assumptions about the relationship between bodies desire and identity the field is both fascinating and contentious The Transgender Studies Reader puts between two covers fifty influential texts with new introductions by the editors that taken together document the evolution of transgender studies in the English speaking world By bringing together the voices and experience of transgender individuals doctors psychologists and academically based theorists this volume will be a foundational text for the transgender community transgender studies and related queer theory

Feminist Thought Rosemarie Tong, Tina Fernandes Botts, 2024-07-19 A classic resource on feminist theory this updated sixth edition of Feminist Thought A More Comprehensive Introduction offers a clear comprehensive and incisive introduction to the major traditions of feminist theory This new edition explores in detail the wide spectrum of feminist thought from liberal feminism radical feminism Marxist and socialist feminisms women of color feminisms global postcolonial and transnational feminisms to psychoanalytic feminism care focused and maternal focused feminisms to ecofeminism existentialist poststructural and postmodern feminisms. The book also includes an expanded discussion of third wave fourth wave and fifth wave feminisms plus much new material on intersectionality LGBTQ issues gender identities sexual orientations and queer theory Learning tools like end of chapter discussion questions and an enhanced up to date bibliography make Feminist Thought an essential resource for students and thinkers who want to understand the theoretical origins and complexities of contemporary feminist debates Gender Violence Sally Engle Merry, 2011-09-23 Taking an anthropological perspective this comprehensive book offers a highly readable and concise overview of what constitutes gender violence its social context and important directions in intervention and reform Uses stories personal accounts case studies and a global perspective to provide a vivid and engaging portrait of forms of violence in gendered relationships Extensively covers many forms of gender violence including domestic violence rape murder wartime sexual assault prison and police violence female genital cutting dowry murders female infanticide honor killings and sex trafficking Examines major approaches to diminishing gender violence such as criminalization batterer retraining programs and human rights interventions Highlights the role of social movements in defining the problem and mobilizing reforms in the US and Waste Jessica Rizzo, 2020 If at its most elemental the theater is an art form of human bodies in space internationally what becomes of the theater as suicide capitalism pushes our world into a posthuman age Waste Capitalism and the Dissolution of the Human in Twentieth Century Theater traces the twentieth century theater's movement from dramaturgies of efficiency to dramaturgies of waste beginning with the observation that the most salient feature of the human is her ability to be ashamed of herself to experience herself as excess the waster and the waste of the world By examining theatrical representations of capitalism war climate change and the permanent refugee crisis Waste traces the ways in which these human driven events signal a tendency toward prodigality that terminates with self destruction Defying its promise of abundance for all capitalism poisons all relationships with competition and fear The desire to dominate in war is revealed to be the desire to obliterate the self in collective conflagration The refugee crisis raises the urgent question of our responsibility to the other but the climate crisis renders the question of anthropocentric obligations moot Waste proposes that the theater is the form best suited to confronting the human's perverse relationship to its finitude Everything about the theater is suffused with existential shame with an acute awareness of its provisionality Unlike the dominant narrative of the human which is bound up with a fantasy of infinite growth the theater is not deluded about its nature origins and destiny At its best the theater gathers artist and audience in one space to die together for a little while to consciously waste and not spend their time JESSICA RIZZO is an American writer director and dramaturge She holds a DFA in Dramaturgy and Dramatic Criticism from the Yale School of Drama where she served as Associate Editor of Theater magazine and was awarded the John W Gassner Prize for Criticism She has taught at the Yale School of Drama Yale College and Bryn Mawr College In 2017 she directed the North American premiere of Elfriede Jelinek's Shadow Eurydice Says in New York City She has also worked at the Yale Repertory Theatre and the Hungarian Theatre of Cluj and has had her work presented as part of the Hong Kong Arts Festival Her writing has appeared in PAJ A Journal of Performance and Art TheaterForum Theatre Journal Theater TDR Austrian Studies the Theatre Times Vice Momus LA s Cultural Weekly Philadelphia s Broad Street Review and ArtBlog and Romania s Scena ro The Psychology Of Gender And Sexuality Wendy Stainton Rogers, Rex Stainton Rogers, 2001-01-16 a particularly well wrought and intelligent book It provides an extensive introduction to traditional psychological approaches while acknowledging their weaknesses and in a judicious and detailed review the authors take us through a fascinating survey of the constructionist and discursive modes of enquiry and what they reveal about sex and gender This will make not only an excellent textbook but is good reading as well Rom Harre Linacre College Oxford and Georgetown University To what extent are gender and sexuality programmed in the genes and to what extent are they acquired through learning and from culture What is wrong with traditional ways in which psychology has addressed these topics and what better alternatives are there What do these new approaches have to offer us in understanding our own gender and sexuality our life experiences and our relationships Gender and sexuality permeate our lives and have a profound influence on who we are and what we feel think and do This book provides a fundamental and wide ranging introduction to different psychological approaches to this field It reviews both traditional and current theorization reflecting the contradictory approaches that try to explain how gender and sexuality are acquired their impact on identity and their influence on life styles life opportunities and life choices The Psychology of Gender and Sexuality is unique in providing a comprehensive introduction to both gender and sexuality Using examples that are highly relevant to today s generation of students it encourages the reader to explore the implications of the various theoretical approaches for men and women and their relationships with each other This is a lively and readable textbook for general introductory courses and an ideal starting point for more advanced specialist courses on these topics Welcoming the Other N. Susan Laehn, Thomas R. Laehn, 2021-02-15 The modern turn in political philosophy established the ontological primacy of the ego reducing the community to a mere assemblage of individuals and led to the repudiation of natural duties in favor of inherent individual rights The modern project culminated in the work of Friedrich Nietzsche whose emphasis on radical individuation left human beings both liberated and exiled Individuals were free to create and to recreate themselves anew but they were simultaneously uprooted from any larger community Indeed the very possibility of shared meaning let alone shared political life was called into question This volume consists of essays addressing the efforts of philosophers artists caretakers and perhaps most importantly teachers to reestablish a foundation for political life in postmodernity. The origins of these efforts are diverse and their modes are varied Individuals seek communion with the divine either with or through others they pursue friendship among strangers and they search for meaningful relationships in both the classroom and the public square Reflecting the various means by which individuals seek communion with others and with the transcendent divine Other the essays contained in this volume explore the modes through which individuals forge relationships with others in an age of Stitched-up Stephanie Vermeulen, 2004 This feisty and inspiring treatise blames the destructive cultural myth isolation of female self sacrifice for the desire for breast implants the conservative insistence on family values and the general cultural attitude that prevents women from supporting one another's accomplishments Using everything from psychological analysis to clever fairy tale parodies called fairer tales the author promotes an ideology for women that is neither bra burning feminism nor passive conservatism but rather a belief in self development Human Behavior in the Social Environment Rudolph Alexander, 2010 Human Behavior and the Social Environment A Macro National and International Perspective is a textbook for one of the primary courses in the social work curriculum titled Human Behavior in the Social Environment The course is offered usually over two semesters with one focusing on micro issues how the individual develops in relation to their social environment on an individual family and group level The second section of the course typically focuses on macro issues pertaining to how an individual is shaped by their social environment by macro issues including social institutions community and the government This book is intended for the second sequence of the course It takes a unique approach by incorporating international issues of globalization which has been an emerging issue in social work Although it takes this unique perspective it still covers the basics of macro social work on a national level Other important areas that are not well represented in competing texts includes coverage of rural issues the impact of hurricane Katrina on social and community resources human rights and social justice the increasing impact of increasing rates of incarceration and a special section focusing on crisis theory This book has a number of key selling points They include A broad national and international perspective A timely approach that examines issues such as rural communities the impact of disaster on communities and increasing incarceration rates Provides special emphasis on human needs and social justice End of chapter discussion questions A student glossary Chapter opening photos An appendix that includes three additional higher level macro theories which would make the book applicable to Master's level program This book will also contain a number of features that are essential for any book to be adopted in a HBSE course They include End of chapter discussion questions
