After the Mourning (Francis Hancock Mystery 2) Barbara Nadel, 2010-05-06 After the Mourning is the second novel in the acclaimed Francis Hancock World War Two crime series by Barbara Nadel Perfect for fans of Martin Walker and Maureen Jennings The denouement is exciting the atmosphere of a city under nightly bombardment is very well portrayed and I m looking forward to the next book Sunday Telegraph Undertaker Francis Hancock has seen the worst that humanity can do to itself Why then does the murder of a young gypsy girl in Epping Forest move him so much Travellers gypsies the homeless deserters and German spies inhabit this stretch of open ground that was once her home Francis knows it s not wise to delve into this human melting pot but he is drawn to the exotic customs of the gypsies their music and magic But as he investigates the girl s murder further the death toll rises and Francis uncovers a much bigger conspiracy at the heart of which lies something even Adolf Hitler is prepared to kill for What readers are saying about After the Mourning Probably one of the best books I have read in a long while I d recommend this book to lovers of atmospheric and well plotted crime novels Nadel s sense of time and place is outstanding

Social Imaginaries of the State and Central Authority in Polish Highland Villages, 1999-2005 Anna Malewska-Szałygin, 2018-04-18 This book argues that common sense convictions of rural Polish citizens are post peasant or post agrarian rather than post socialist or post communist In so doing it offers a departure from the established terms of scholarly literature on the Central European transition that has focused on such concepts as homo sovieticus or the post communist mentality It draws on ethnographic fieldwork carried out in the early 2000s in the highland region in the south of Poland focusing on local knowledge about the state power politics and democracy It describes how rural social imaginaries translate categories derived from the organisation of life and work at the farm into ideas about politics In this regard the state is seen as a huge farm the authorities as the farmer or manager and the nation as the farmer s family Politics is perceived as a dishonest but profitable profession and democracy as a political system that could only work in the Garden of Eden

Vassberg, 2002-11-28 This 1996 book based upon a vast range of documentary and secondary sources shatters the disproven but persistent myth of the closed immobile village in the early modern period It demonstrates that even in traditionalist Castile pre industrial village society was highly dynamic with continuous inter village inter regional and rural urban migration The book is rich in human detail with many vignettes of everyday life Professor Vassberg examines such topics as fairs and markets the transportation infrastructure rural artisans and craftsmen relations with the state and life cycle service The approach is interdisciplinary and pays special attention to how rural families dealt with economic and social problems The rural Castile that emerges is a complex society that defies easy generalizations but one which is unquestionably part of the general European reality
