The Encyclopedia of New York City Kenneth T. Jackson,Lisa Keller,Nancy Flood,2010-12-01 Covering an exhaustive range of information about the five boroughs the first edition of The Encyclopedia of New York City was a success by every measure earning worldwide acclaim and several awards for reference excellence and selling out its first printing before it was officially published But much has changed since the volume first appeared in 1995 the World Trade Center no longer dominates the skyline a billionaire businessman has become an unlikely three term mayor and urban regeneration Chelsea Piers the High Line DUMBO Williamsburg the South Bronx the Lower East Side has become commonplace To reflect such innovation and change this definitive one volume resource on the city has been completely revised and expanded The revised edition includes 800 new entries that help complete the story of New York from Air Train to E ZPass from September 11 to public order The new material includes broader coverage of subject areas previously underserved as well as new maps and illustrations Virtually all existing entries spanning architecture politics business sports the arts and more have been updated to reflect the impact of the past two decades The more than 5 000 alphabetical entries and 700 illustrations of the second edition of The Encyclopedia of New York City convey the richness and diversity of its subject in great breadth and detail and will continue to serve as an indispensable tool for everyone who has even a passing interest in the American metropolis

The Time Of The Gypsies Michael Stewart,2019-09-25 HIS IS A STUDY OF HOW some of the most marginal and exploited people that exist can imagine themselves to be princes of the world During the past two hundred years the Gypsies of Eastern Europe have faced near enslavement by land owners the physical and moral onslaught of the Nazi holocaust the fundamental challenge to their central values from the Communist state and the violent discrimination and dislocation caused by the return to capitalism One would have thought that the challenge would be too great that they would have suffered cultural

Mapping Marriage Law in Spanish Gitano Communities Susan Drummond,2011-11-01 Comparative law and legal anthropology have traditionally restricted themselves to their own fields of inquiry Mapping Marriage Law in Spanish Gitano Communities turns this tendency on its head and investigates what happens when the voices of each discipline are invited to speak to each other Susan Drummond forges this hybrid form of comparative work through small and large scale studies of Gitano marriage law as it emerges in a Western European state in a modern urban centre and in particular communities and families Drummond s mapping of Gitano marriage law is grounded in ethnographic fieldwork in Andalucia The study draws initially from the tradition of comparative law to focus on the emergence of Spanish state family law in a predominantly national and international context Drummond then adopts the role of legal anthropologist to examine a particular legal culture that exists within and also beyond the Spanish state that of the Gitanos and the transnational Roma Ultimately she brings the international national and cultural dimensions of law into play with one another and contemplates how all of these influences bear on the spirit of Andalusian Gitano marriage law The result is an ethos of marriage law in a thoroughly mixed legal jurisdiction Mapping Marriage Law in Spanish Gitano Communities will appeal to scholars and students in comparative law and legal anthropology as well as readers interested in Roma studies in general and the Gitanos in particular

Shakespeare's Cross-Cultural Encounters Geraldo U. De Sousa,2016-01-13 In this highly entertaining study De Sousa argues that Shakespeare reinterprets refashions and reinscribes his alien characters Jews Moors Amazons and gypsies In this way the dramatist questions the narrowness of a European perspective which caricatures other societies and views them with suspicion De Sousa examines how Shakespeare defines other cultures in terms of the interplay of gender text and habitat Written in a provocative style this readable book provides a wealth of fascinating information both on contemporary stage productions and on race and gender relations in early modern Europe

Dynamics of National Identity and Transnational Identities in the Process of European Integration Elena Marushiakova,2021-02-03 This collection was inspired by the international conference Dynamics of National Identity and Transnational Identities in the Process of European Integration organized by the Balkan Ethnology Department of the Ethnographic Institute and Museum at the

Bulgarian Academy of Sciences and realized as project of the European Commission Jean Monnet Action Program for the support of Study and Research Centers The book opens a debate on the changing notions of identity in the region of Central and Eastern Europe on the base of analysis of social developments influenced by EU accession and EU integration process The most important aspect is the analysis of processes of breaking up the borders of national identity and transition towards new forms of transnational identities and emerging of consciousness of All European unity The book has a dual focus on general topics related to the study of national and transnational identities and on the process of European integration It brings together the work of researchers not only from different parts of Europe from France to Russia but from USA and Asia too This book is a starting point for East West discussion and brings new knowledge that will be an invaluable contribution to the common European research area

From Itinerant Trade to Moneylending in the Era of Financial Inclusion

Martin Fotta, 2018-09-27 This book analyses how Calon Gypsies in Brazil have responded to global financial transformations and shifted their economic practices from itinerant trade to moneylending It also explores their role as ethnic credit providers offering rare insight into the financial lives of poor and lower middle class Brazilians More broadly this volume examines how ethnic difference is created in a context where fixed and collective structures supporting ethnic identity are missing It is important reading for economic anthropologists cultural economists and all those interested in processes of financialisation from a local perspective as well as those fascinated by informal economies how exchange and debt relate to social and political marginality and how financial credit becomes domesticated by communities

Mapping Marriage Law in Spanish

Gitano Communities Susan Gay Drummond, 2006 Comparative law and legal anthropology have traditionally restricted themselves to their own fields of inquiry Mapping Marriage Law in Spanish Gitano Communities turns this tendency on its head and investigates what happens when the voices of each discipline are invited to speak to each other Susan Drummond forges this hybrid form of comparative work through small and large scale studies of Gitano marriage law as it emerges in a

Western European state in a modern urban centre and in particular communities and families Drummond's mapping of Gitano marriage law is grounded in ethnographic fieldwork in Andalucia The study draws initially from the tradition of comparative law to focus on the emergence of Spanish state family law in a predominantly national and international context Drummond then adopts the role of legal anthropologist to examine a particular legal culture that exists within and also beyond the Spanish state that of the Gitanos and the transnational Roma Ultimately she brings the international national and cultural dimensions of law into play with one another and contemplates how all of these influences bear on the spirit of Andalusian Gitano marriage law The result is an ethos of marriage law in a thoroughly mixed legal jurisdiction Mapping Marriage Law in Spanish Gitano Communities will appeal to scholars and students in comparative law and legal anthropology as well as readers interested in Roma studies in general and the Gitanos in particular American Folklore Jan Harold Brunvand, 2006-05-24 Contains over 500 articles Ranging over foodways and folksongs quiltmaking and computer lore Pecos Bill Butch Cassidy and Elvis sightings more than 500 articles spotlight folk literature music and crafts sports and holidays tall tales and legendary figures genres and forms scholarly approaches and theories regions and ethnic groups performers and collectors writers and scholars religious beliefs and practices The alphabetically arranged entries vary from concise definitions to detailed surveys each accompanied by a brief up to date bibliography Special features More than 2000 contributors Over 500 articles spotlight folk literature music crafts and more Alphabetically arranged Entries accompanied by up to date bibliographies Edited by America's best known folklore authority Non-Territorial Autonomy and Decentralization Tove H. Malloy, Levente Salat, 2020-10-15 This volume describes and analyzes alternative and emerging models of non territorial autonomy NTA particularly in relation to decentralization The authors push the NTA debate in new directions by offering a re conceptualization based on ethno cultural bottom up decentralized action that redefines autonomy into its true sense of autonomous action Through description critical analysis and evaluation of several case studies this book assesses the potential for new paradigms within decentralized systems The authors explore two approaches to political decentralization which add to the theoretical debate on NTA network governance which focuses on new dynamics in policy processes and normative pluralism which focuses on accommodating the distinctness of the groups through the subsidiarity principle with regard to their own affairs The book explores the potential ramifications of ethno cultural NTA institutions acting within the wider framework of state institutions and assesses the functions of these institutions as another dimension of decentralization and thus another layer of democracy With contemporary examples from Europe the Middle East Asia and South Africa as well as theoretical aspects of the conceptualization of autonomy this book offers a truly global perspective It will be of great interest to policy makers in countries experiencing adverse developments due to the pressure on public management as well as advanced students and scholars questioning the ability of the Westphalian system to address cultural diversity Transnational Resilience and Change Dan Allen, Margaret Greenfields, David Smith, 2019-01-23 This edited collection draws together contributions from various social scientific fields and explores the mechanisms and strategies that Gypsy Roma and Traveller communities employ to preserve identities and cultural practices in different situational and national contexts The book has a global focus with case studies from different European nations as well as from Australia North and South America While several chapters acknowledge the power of cultural maintenance in the preservation of identity others take a critical stance towards those aspects of inwardly focused and self regulated examples of cultural isolation and highlight the implications that cultural marginality can have for members of these groups The book is therefore essential reading for students in professional fields such as social work education and community development It is also relevant to academics with interests in anthropology ethnography migration studies politics public administration sociology and social policy Many of the book s themes have a cross disciplinary and transnational relevance and will be of interest to a range of international audiences

On the Corner Daniel Matlin,2013-11-01 In July 1964 after a decade of intense media focus on civil rights protest in the Jim Crow South a riot in Harlem abruptly shifted attention to the urban crisis embroiling America s northern cities On the Corner revisits the volatile moment when African American intellectuals were thrust into the spotlight as indigenous interpreters of black urban life to white America and when black urban communities became the chief objects of black intellectuals perceived social obligations Daniel Matlin explores how the psychologist Kenneth B Clark the literary author and activist Amiri Baraka and the visual artist Romare Bearden each wrestled with the opportunities and dilemmas of their heightened public stature Amid an often fractious interdisciplinary debate black intellectuals furnished sharply contrasting representations of black urban life and vied to establish their authority as indigenous interpreters In time however Clark Baraka and Bearden each concluded that acting as interpreters for white America placed dangerous constraints on black intellectual practice On the Corner reveals how the condition of entry into the public sphere for African American intellectuals in the post civil rights era has been confinement to what Clark called the topic that is reserved for blacks

Ritual, Rapture and Rebellion Marianne Blom Brodersen,2024-11-01 The Gitanos of el Rastro carry an ontology of simultaneity as self employed traders and Pentecostal practitioners in Madrid This makes the Spanish Romani be considered as both a part of and apart from mainstream society This book is an anthropological account of a group of middle and upper class Gitanos and their ways of creating a society within society based upon distinct cultural moral and ideological values notions and practices The study renders a comprehensive perspective on social processes of classification stratification othering and the role of strangers in society and how these processes unfold in the interface between social ritual and economic life on a local to global scale
