Habermas And The Dialectic Of Reason:

Habermas and the Dialectic of Reason David Ingram, 1987-01-01 In his magnum opus Theorie des kommunikativen Handelns the distinguished philosopher Jürgen Habermas presented his ideas as a whole providing the first major defense of his philosophy David Ingram here summarizes the themes of Habermas's masterwork placing them in the context of the philosopher's other work relating them to poststructuralism hermeneutics and Neo Aristotelianism and surveying what other critics have said about Habermas Ingram's exposition of Habermas is impressive for its erudition and its faithful adherence to the major contours of Habermas's work James Farganis Contemporary Sociology A valuable contribution to the understanding of an important but difficult thinker Ethics The book is indispensable to an understanding of both Habermas and the contemporary human condition Scott Warren Social Science Quarterly Ingram has done sociologists philosophers and political scientists a great service by demystifying Habermas's more recent theory of communicative action R George Kirkpatrick American Journal of Sociology Likely to be and to remain the leading study on Habermas's Theory of Communicative Action What McCarthy did for Habermas's earlier writings Ingram accomplishes for his more recent work Fred R Dallmayr University of Notre Dame

Dialectic of Enlightenment in the Anglosphere Howard Prosser, 2020-02-29 This book explores the reception of Max Horkheimer and Theodor W Adorno's Dialectic of Enlightenment It examines a variety of perspectives on the text supplied by e.g. American critical theorists British New Leftists Transatlantic Cultural Studies scholars Postmodernists and those working in the current after theory moment from 1970 to 2010 It considers the works of the Frankfurt School especially Horkheimer and Adorno alongside the secondary literature on the subject The main focus is on how various intellectual circles and trends have responded to the Dialectic making scholarly discussions the primary sources While the work is a history of the Dialectic of Enlightenment's Anglophone reception it also reflects the post 1968 left's retreat to academia which echoes the Frankfurt School's own stance of political resignation

Dialectic of Enlightenment as Sport Tom Donovan, 2015-10-01 In their Dialectic of Enlightenment Horkheimer and Adorno set out to explain why humanity instead of entering a truly human state is sinking into a new kind of barbarism Philosophy teacher Tom Donovan PhD UCRiverside offers a fresh reading of that classic text showing that it is first and foremost a critique of the metaphysical urge Describing our world of stupid consumption mindless entertainment and perverted games and relationships he notes these sorts of games have no end game as fantasy spectators never really win and yet they don't see it because they are too busy watching the other lose This is the secret of class society As long as there is someone below you then lack of reconciliation doesn't hurt so badly Citing the Super Bowl Clippers owner Donald Sterling basketball players like LeBron James plus the Kardashians mega churches and comedians like Jon Stewart Donovan gives us a new understanding of our age and how the broken threads that are today's Capitalism religion and sports contribute to unraveling the fabric of Modernity Against readings that claim that Dialectic of Enlightenment is a simple critique of instrumental reason that ultimately undermines rationality itself Dr Donovan argues that the real critique is aimed at the metaphysical urge itself As such rationality itself is not the target of attack nor is the notion of enlightenment Taking Adorno's and Horkheimer's example of the Marquis de Sade the author observes Sade can only find pleasure in domination The fear of the outside has morphed into fear of a reconciled world fear of a world where everyone treats each other as ends in themselves A society like this can tolerate porn but not socialism a society like this won't miss the ice caps but wouldn't miss the Super Bowl a society like this lets civilization sink into barbarism so long as they can watch The Bachelor Stylistically this book attempts to rationally mimic the fragmentary nature of Dialectic of Enlightenment so that through form and content the argument of the book will emerge dialectically Readers will see that Dialectic of Enlightenment actually offers a positive conception of enlightenment and a philosophical instance of the use of dialectics The book is for readers interested in critiques of capitalism and religion and sports in America as well as Marxism and Critical Theory It will intrigue academics interested in the Frankfurt School and the idea of the Metaphysical Urge

Dialectic of Enlightenment Jacob Klapwijk, 2010-08-09 Dialectic of Enlightenment is a thought provoking introduction to the Frankfurt School of Critical Theory Max Horkheimer and Theodor Adorno first identified the dialectic of enlightenment when fascism was on the rampage in Europe They warned that enlightened reason and societal freedom threaten to revert into blindness and oppression Herbert Marcuse and the young Jürgen Habermas elaborated their Critical Theory declaring that post war society has not escaped this dilemma blinded as it is by ideology pseudo democracy and mass manipulation Critical Theory aims to unmask modern reason and liberate society But a fundamental question keeps coming back how can this critique of modernity remain viable within a repressive societal system Is reason in the modern world indeed doomed to self destruct Does rationality inevitably lead to domination and oppression Jacob Klapwijk argues that the dialectic of enlightenment proves to be a faith a mythical faith encouraging resignation and despair Instead we need a wholesome reason one inspired by a messianic faith Dialectic of Enlightenment is an important book for students of philosophy theology and the social sciences It invites them to a renewed criticism of the mythological traits and self destructive tendencies of modern reason It also offers a perspective of hope to all who share the author's concern about the direction of today's globalizing world

(Papst), Jürgen Habermas, 2006 Two of the world's great contemporary thinkers theologian and churchman Joseph Ratzinger now Pope Benedict XVI and Jürgen Habermas philosopher and Neo Marxist social critic discuss and debate aspects of secularization and the role of reason and religion in a free society These insightful essays are the result of a remarkable dialogue between the two men sponsored by the Catholic Academy of Bavaria a little over a year before Joseph Ratzinger was elected pope

Impure Reason W. Daniel Wilson, Robert C. Holub, 1993 Based on the premise that the modern discourse of enlightenment and its self critique began in the eighteenth century Impure Reason provides a fresh look at the controversy through cultural social and political history confronting the often abstract theories of a dialectics of enlightenment with concrete historical studies of the Age of Enlightenment This volume brings together current research on the German Enlightenment in order to familiarize an American audience with the period that gave rise to Lessing Kant and Goethe as well as to other important figures who are practically unknown outside of German studies Leading scholars on eighteenth century German society politics literature and culture bring a uniquely American perspective to the project with critiques that generally have not been voiced in Germany Their essays which represent a wide range of attitudes toward enlightenment cover topics as varied as the debate on colonialism the difficulties of diversity the use and abuse of reading male sexuality in enlightenment self critique medicine patriarchy and heterosexuality art and social discipline disturbed mourning and the Enlightenment's flight from the body and women possessed by the devil Modern critics and defenders of enlightenment who are discussed in the essays include Horkheimer and Adorno who are themselves subjected to a genderbased critique Jürgen Habermas Jean-François Lyotard Manfred Frank Richard Rorty and Christa Wolf Impure Reason will interest scholars in German studies gender studies history philosophy psychology pedagogy and other fields The volume will also help introduce scholars and other interested readers outside the area of German studies to the particularly German tradition of Enlightenment critique and its status today

Disembodiment Banu Bargu, 2024-11-20 Disembodiment examines self destruction self injury and radical self endangerment as unconventional performances of resistance and refusal Banu Bargu troubles the dominant approach that treats these acts as individual pathologies cries for help and signs of despair taking the reader on an unsettling journey that passes through the suicides of enslaved Africans the hunger strikes of woman suffragists Gandhian fasting practices Bouazizi's self incineration and the lip sewing practices of migrants and asylum seekers to chart a bleak repertoire of contention performed by the oppressed As a work in global critical theory whose normative compass is the suffering body Disembodiment offers a bold materialist theory of corporeal agency that upholds the fundamental rebelliousness of the body      Adorno's Nietzschean Narratives Karin Bauer, 1999-09-09 Investigates the intellectual affinities of Adorno and Nietzsche culminating in a discussion of their readings of Wagner who serves as a medium and supplement for their critiques of modern culture      Habermas's Public Sphere Michael Hofmann, 2017-05-24

Habermas's Public Sphere A Critique analyzes the evolution of Juergen Habermas's social and political theory from the 1950s to the present by focusing on the explicit and on the tacit changes in his thinking about The Structural Transformation of the Public Sphere his global academic bestseller which has been translated into 30 languages Integrating public sphere discourse and reason the three categories at the center of his lifelong work as a scholar and as a public intellectual Habermas's classic public sphere concept has deeply influenced an unusually high number of disciplines in the social sciences and in the humanities In the process its complex methodology whose sources are not always identified can be perplexing and therefore lead to misunderstandings While Habermas's Further Reflections on the Public Sphere 1992 contain several far reaching clarifications they still do not identify a number of the most important sources for his methodology above all Herbert Marcuse and Ernst Bloch Hence a key purpose of this study is to thoroughly analyze the Marxist critique of ideology that Habermas uses in dialectical fashion for his theory reconstruction of Immanuel Kant's liberal ideal of a rational critical public as the organizational principle of the constitutional state and as the method of Enlightenment Such dialectical thinking allows him to appropriate the structure of Reinhart Koselleck's Critique and Crisis and of Carl Schmitt's writings on the modern state while simultaneously upending their conservative critique of Liberalism and of the Enlightenment However this strategy restricts the application of his concept to his stylizations of the French Revolution and of his British model case This critique reinvigorates Habermas's seminal distinction between the purely political polis of antiquity which excludes the private economy from the res publica and the modern public sphere with its rational critical discourse about commodity exchange and social labor in the political economy At the same time it identifies the crises of seventeenth century England and the Dutch Republic as the origins of the new channels of public communication used to constantly evaluate the role of state power as political facilitator and regulator of an increasingly complex dynamic and crisis prone market economy      A Companion to Adorno Peter E. Gordon, Espen Hammer, Max Pensky, 2020-04-21 A definitive contribution to scholarship on Adorno bringing together the foremost experts in the field As one of the leading continental philosophers of the last century and one of the pioneering members of the Frankfurt School Theodor W Adorno is the author of numerous influential and at times quite radical works on diverse topics in aesthetics social theory moral philosophy and the history of modern philosophy all of which concern the contradictions of modern society and its relation to human suffering and the human condition Having authored substantial contributions to critical theory which contain searching critiques of the culture industry and the identity thinking of modern Western society Adorno helped establish an interdisciplinary but philosophically rigorous study of culture and provided some of the most startling and revolutionary critiques of Western society to date The Blackwell Companion to Adorno is the largest collection of essays by Adorno specialists ever gathered in a single volume Part of the acclaimed Blackwell Companions to Philosophy series this important contribution to the field explores Adorno's lasting impact on many sub fields of philosophy Seven sections encompassing a diverse range of topics and perspectives explore Adorno's intellectual foundations his critiques of culture his views on ethics and politics and his analyses of history and domination Provides new research and fresh perspectives on Adorno's views and writings Offers an authoritative single volume resource for Adorno scholarship Addresses renewed interest in Adorno's significance to contemporary questions in philosophy Presents over 40 essays written by international recognized experts in the field A singular advancement in Adorno scholarship the Companion to Adorno is an indispensable resource for Adorno specialists and anyone working in modern European philosophy contemporary cultural criticism social theory German history and aesthetics

Dialectics of the Will John H. Smith, 2000 A study of the concepts of agency self determination and power in modern French and German philosophy

Gramsci's Politics of Language Peter Ives, 2004-01-01 Antonio Gramsci and his concept of hegemony have permeated social and political theory cultural studies education studies literary criticism international relations and post colonial theory The centrality of language and linguistics to Gramsci's thought however has been wholly neglected In Gramsci's Politics of Language Peter Ives argues that a university education in linguistics and a preoccupation with Italian language politics were integral to the theorist's thought Ives explores how the combination of Marxism and linguistics produced a unique and intellectually powerful approach to social and political analysis To explicate Gramsci's writings on language Ives compares them with other Marxist approaches to language including those of the Bakhtin Circle Walter Benjamin and the Frankfurt School including Jürgen Habermas From these comparisons Ives elucidates the implications of Gramsci's writings which he argues retained the explanatory power of the semiotic and dialogic insights of Bakhtin and the critical perspective of the Frankfurt School while at the same time foreshadowing the key problems with both approaches that post structuralist critiques would later reveal Gramsci's Politics of Language fills a crucial gap in scholarship linking Gramsci's writings to current debates in social theory and providing a framework for a thoroughly historical materialist approach to language

Adorno's Gamble Mikko Immanen, 2025-02-15 Adorno's Gamble offers a startling reinterpretation of the evolution of Theodor W Adorno's thought usually seen as a mix of critical Marxism Freudian psychoanalysis aesthetic modernism and Jewish tradition Mikko Immanen argues for another previously unacknowledged source of Adorno's thinking on instrumental reason dialectic of enlightenment and frailty of democracy the intellectual underpinnings of Germany's conservative revolutionary movement of the 1920s In a dramatic reappraisal of the leading light of the Frankfurt School Immanen follows Adorno's path of philosophical development from the late Weimar era through years in exile to the postwar period establishing his debt to thinkers of radical conservative bent In particular he focuses on Adorno's enduring and daring effort to harness two of the most infamous works from this tradition

Oswald Spengler's Decline of the West and Ludwig Klages's The Spirit as Adversary of the Soul and to repurpose their reactionary teachings for emancipatory ends      History and Causality M. Hewitson, 2014-01-22 This volume investigates the different attitudes of historians and other social scientists to questions of causality It argues that historical theorists after the linguistic turn have paid surprisingly little attention to causes in spite of the centrality of causation in many contemporary works of history      Sartre and Adorno David Sherman, 2008-06-05 Systematic comparison of Sartre and Adorno that focuses on their theories of the subject      Critical Theory, Politics and Society Peter Stirk, 2005-10-26 From the launch of the Journal of Social Research in 1932 to the recent work of Jurgen Habermas on law and democracy the Frankfurt School has produced some of the most ambitious and influential theories of the past century This new introduction to the critical theory of the School provides a thorough concise and up to date assessment of thinkers including Pollock Marcuse Horkheimer Adorno Neumann Lowenthal Fromm Kirchheimer and Habermas Peter Stirk's lively account places the formative work of the School within the context of the Weimar Republic and of Nazi Germany He contrasts this environment with the very different background of 1950s Germany in which Habermas embarked on his academic career Stirk goes on to discuss the enduring relevance of political theory to the contemporary political agenda In particular he illustrates the continuing validity of the Frankfurt School's criticism of positivist metaphysical and more recently postmodernist views and its members attempts to incorporate psychological perspectives into broader theories of social dynamics He assesses their contribution to key areas of contemporary debate including morality interest individual and collective identity and the analysis of authoritarian and democratic states Specifically focused on the interests and needs of social scientists philosophers and historians of ideas Critical Theory Politics and Society is an essential book both for students and for all those who wish to grasp the contours of critical theory and to understand its enduring relevance      Nietzsche and Adorno on Philosophical Praxis, Language, and Reconciliation Paolo A. Bolaños, 2021-01-12 Nietzsche and Adorno on Philosophical Praxis Language and Reconciliation Towards an Ethics of Thinking offers a philosophical notion of an ethics of thinking a kind of thinking that is receptive to the non identical character of the world of human and non human objects Paolo A Bola os experiments with the ideas of Friedrich Nietzsche and Theodor W Adorno who are presented as contemporary proponents of the Fr hromantik tradition Bola os offers a reconstruction of the respective philosophies of language of Nietzsche and Adorno as well as a rehearsal of their critique of metaphysics and identity thinking in order to develop a notion of philosophical praxis that is grounded in the ethical dimension of thinking Via Nietzsche and Adorno Bola os argues that thinking's performative participation in uncertainty broadens the domain of reason thereby also broadening our conceptual capacities and our receptivity to new possibilities of thinking As an ethical praxis thinking guards itself from the error of solidification thereby opening philosophy to a reconciliatory as opposed to domineering reception of the world      Postmodernism and the Enlightenment Daniel Gordon, 2014-01-14 Why is postmodernist discourse so biased against the Enlightenment Indeed postmodern theory challenges the validity of the rational basis of modern historical scholarship and the Enlightenment itself Rather than avoiding this conflict the contributors to this vibrant collection return to the philosophical roots of the Enlightenment and do not hesitate to look at them through a postmodernist lens engaging issues like anti-Semitism Utopianism colonial legal codes and ideas of authorship Dismissing the notion that the two camps are ideologically opposed and thus incompatible these essays demonstrate an exciting new scholarship that confidently mixes the empiricism of Enlightenment thought with a strong postmodernist skepticism painting a subtler and richer historical canvas

Adorno's Poetics of Critique Steven Helmling, 2009-03-09 Adorno's Poetics of Critique is a critical study of the Marxist culture critic Theodor W Adorno a founding member of the Frankfurt school and widely regarded today as its most brilliant exponent Steven Helmling is centrally concerned with Adorno's notoriously difficult writing a feature most commentators acknowledge only to set it aside on the way to an expository account of what Adorno is saying By contrast Adorno's complex writing is the central focus of this study which includes detailed analysis of Adorno's most complex texts in particular his most famous and complicated work co-authored with Max Horkheimer Dialectic of Enlightenment Helmling argues that Adorno's key motifs dialectic concept negation immanent critique constellation are prescriptions not merely for critical thinking but also for critical writing For Adorno the efficacy of critique is conditioned on how the writing of critique is written Both in theory and in practice Adorno urges a poetics of critique that is every bit as critical as anything else in his critical theory
