Stars in My Eyes* Elena Burnham Willets, 2022-10-31 It has taken me many years to realize there was anything at all unusual about the way I grew up After having spoken to recent acquaintances about my brushes with famous people the response was often I didn t know that Why didn t you tell me before One it s not that easy or important to work these anecdotes into a conversation and two there are so many Like many kids growing up in Sherman Oaks during the golden age of Hollywood it wasn t unusual for Elena Burnham Willets to catch glimpses of TV and movie stars But Elena's celebrity sightings were far more frequent than average because her father Weldon S Burnham made his living as a portrait photographer of the stars Among his long list of clients were Douglas MacArthur Vidal Sassoon Esther Williams George Burns and Gracie Allen Red Skelton and Art Linkletter Weldon also took the iconic portrait of Roy Rogers sitting on his rearing horse Trigger which was used on posters and other promotional materials worldwide In Stars in My Eyes Elena recounts her many serendipitous meetings with famous personalities As a child she chases Gordon MacRae's son through the hallways at her school only to wind up crashing into Gordon MacRae himself As a teenager she dates Rob Reiner In her early twenties she goes to a private party with Elvis and his friends Later her connections as a hairstylist provide many more opportunities to make friends with those working in Hollywood both the well known and the unknown When she gets married the band that will become Toto plays at her wedding The colorful encounters Elena has on the road to pursuing her own dreams teach her not to take life too seriously A good experience is a good story a bad experience becomes a funny story over time Her anecdotes bring back memories of an era when the whole world was infatuated with the dazzle of Hollywood
