Biofictions Josie Gill, 2020-02-20 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched Winner of the 2020 British Society for Literature and Science book prize In this important interdisciplinary study Josie Gill explores how the contemporary novel has drawn upon and intervened in debates about race in late 20th and 21st century genetic science Reading works by leading contemporary writers including Zadie Smith Kazuo Ishiguro Octavia Butler and Colson Whitehead Biofictions demonstrates how ideas of race are produced at the intersection of science and fiction which together create the stories about identity racism ancestry and kinship which characterize our understanding of race today By highlighting the role of narrative in the formation of racial ideas in science this book calls into question the apparent anti racism of contemporary genetics which functions narratively rather than factually or objectively within the racialized contexts in which it is embedded In so doing Biofictions compels us to rethink the long asked question of whether race is a biological fact or a fiction calling instead for a new understanding of the relationship between race science and fiction

Celluloid Chains Rudyard Alcocer, Kristen Block, Dawn Duke, 2024-01-12 Featuring a variety of disciplinary perspectives and analytical approaches Celluloid Chains is the most comprehensive volume to date on films about slavery This collection examines works from not only the United States but elsewhere in the Americas and it attests to slavery s continuing importance as a source of immense fascination for filmmakers and their audiences Each of the book s fifteen original essays focuses on a particular film that directly treats the enslavement of Africans and their descendants in the New World Beginning with an essay on the Cuban film El otro Francisco 1975 Sergio Giral s reworking of a nineteenth century abolitionist novel the book proceeds to examine such works as the landmark miniseries Roots 1977 which sparked intense controversy over its authenticity Werner Herzog's Cobra Verde 1987 which raises questions about what constitutes a slavery film Guy Deslauriers's Passage du milieu 1999 a documentary style reconstruction of what Africans experienced during the Middle Passage and Steve McQueen's Oscar winning 12 Years a Slave 2013 which embodies the tensions between faithfully adapting a nineteenth century slave narrative and bending it for modern purposes Films about slavery have shown a special power to portray the worst and best of humanity and Celluloid Chains is an essential guide to this important genre History Comes Alive M. J.

Rymsza-Pawlowska, 2017-10-03 During the 1976 Bicentennial celebration millions of Americans engaged with the past in brand new ways They became absorbed by historical miniseries like Roots visited museums with new exhibits that immersed them in the past propelled works of historical fiction onto the bestseller list and participated in living history events across the nation While many of these activities were sparked by the Bicentennial M J Rymsza Pawlowska shows that in fact they were symptomatic of a fundamental shift in Americans relationship to history during the 1960s and 1970s For the majority of the twentieth century Americans thought of the past as foundational to but separate from the present and they learned and thought about history in informational terms But Rymsza Pawlowska argues that the popular culture of the 1970s reflected an emerging desire to engage and enact the past on a more emotional level to consider the feelings and motivations of historic individuals and most importantly to use this in reevaluating both the past and the present This thought provoking book charts the era's shifting feeling for history and explores how it serves as a foundation for the experience and practice of history making today Negro in the Making of America Benjamin Quarles, 1996-02-05 Quarles's groundbreaking work not only surveys the role of black Americans as they engaged in the dual simultaneous processes of assimilating into and transforming the culture of their country but also in a portrait of the white response to blacks holds a mirror up to the deeper moral complexion of our nation's history J. Frank Dobie Steven L. Davis, 2009-10-15 The first Texas based writer to gain national attention J Frank Dobie proved that authentic writing springs easily from the native soil of Texas and the Southwest In best selling books such as Tales of Old Time Texas Coronado's Children and The Longhorns Dobie captured the Southwest's folk history which was quickly disappearing as the United States became ever more urbanized and industrial Renowned as Mr Texas Dobie paradoxically has almost disappeared from view a casualty of changing tastes in literature and shifts in social and political attitudes since the 1960s In this lively biography Steven L Davis takes a fresh look at a J Frank Dobie whose liberated mind set him on an intellectual journey that culminated in Dobie becoming a political liberal who fought for labor free speech and civil rights well before these causes became acceptable to most Anglo Texans Tracing the full arc of Dobie's life 1888 1964 Davis shows how Dobie's insistence on free range thinking led him to such radical actions as calling for the complete integration of the University of Texas during the 1940s as well as taking on governors senators and the FBI which secretly investigated him as Texas's leading dissenter during the McCarthy era American Literature in Transition,

1970-1980 Kirk Curnutt, 2018-03-22 American Literature in Transition 1970 1980 examines the literary developments of the twentieth century's gaudiest decade For a quarter century filmmakers musicians and historians have returned to the era to explore the legacy of Watergate stagflation and Saturday Night Fever uncovering the unique confluence of political and economic phenomena that make the period such a baffling time Literary historians have never shown much interest in the era however a remarkable omission considering writers as diverse as Toni Morrison Thomas Pynchon Marilyn French Adrienne Rich Gay Talese Norman Mailer Alice Walker and Octavia E Butler were active Over the course of twenty one essays contributors explore a range of controversial themes these writers tackled from 1960s nostalgia to feminism and the redefinition of masculinity to sexual liberation and rock n roll Other essays address New Journalism the rise of blockbuster culture memoir and self help and crime fiction all demonstrating that the Me Decade was nothing short of mesmerizing
