The volume features the true stories of musicians, authors, portrait painters, and football players, as well as political activists, educators, politicians, and judges. Also featured are tributes to noteworthy newspaper editors and columnists for their many contributions over the years. Robertson covers pivotal moments in Mississippi history, including the Mississippi Married Women's Property Act of 1839, the development of Chinese culture in the Mississippi Delta, and 1964 Freedom Summer. He does not shy away from the tragedies of the past, discussing lynchings and murders that still haunt the state today. From ghost towns in Jefferson County to the Slugburger Festival in Corinth, stopping en route for a mint julep in Columbus, Robertson puts a human face on Mississippi history and tells a good yarn along the way.

Some are well known, others are relatively obscure, some are famous, others are known only by their skill, but they all have in common their love for the Filipino Martial Arts and their connection through training, friendship, heritage, or lineage with GM Bram Frank. Some are the heroes of the Philippines and the spirit of Arnis, like the late Professor Remy Presas, part of American martial art history with the FMA and JKD, like Guro Dan Inosanto, or like GM Bram Frank, a faithful practitioner and instructor of the arts. Their stories are told in pictures and with a bio of who they are and what they've done. Regardless of gender, these people give their lives, souls, and energy to the Filipino Martial Arts. This is the first in a series of volumes of these wonderful people. This is the first book written by a non-Filipino, with a forward by a Filipino President, President Benigno Aquino III. Mabuhay.
