Symbolism
2020 Rüdiger Ahrens, Florian Klaeger, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2020-12-07 This special anniversary volume of Symbolism explores the nexus between symbolic signification and the future from an interdisciplinary perspective How contributors ask has the future been variously rendered in symbolic terms How do symbols and symbolic reference shape our ideas of the future To what extent are symbols constitutive of futures and to what extent do they restrain communication about what is possible and the imagination of fundamental change Moreover how have symbolic practices shaped not only artistic representations of the future but also scientific attempts at forecasting and modelling it What then is the relevance of symbolism for negotiations of the future in cultural and academic production In essays ranging from literary and film studies to the philosophy of art and ecological modelling the volume seeks to lay groundwork in theorizing and historicising symbols of the future as much as the future of symbolism

The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2009-07-23 Postmodernist literature embraces a wide range of forms and perspectives including texts that are primarily self reflexive texts that use pastiche burlesque parody intertextuality and hybrid forms to create textual realities that either run in opposition to or in parallel with an external reality fabrications that develop both of these strategies texts that ironize their relationship to reality works that use the aspects already noted to more fully engage with political or cultural realities texts that deal with history as a fiction and texts that elude categorization even within the variety already explored For example in fiction a postmodernist novel might tell a story about a writer struggling with writing only perhaps to find that he is a character in a book by another writer struggling to write a book The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and the variety of forms that have been produced This is accomplished through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first century operates

Historical Romance Fiction Lisa Fletcher, 2016-04-22 The first book length study of romance novels to focus on issues of sexuality rather than gender Historical Romance Fiction moves the ongoing debate about the value and appeal of heterosexual romance onto new ground testing the claims of cutting edge critical theorists on everything from popular classics by Georgette Heyer to recent bodice rippers to historical fiction by John Fowles and A S Byatt Beginning with her nomination of I love you as the romance novel's defining speech act Lisa Fletcher engages closely with speech act theory and recent studies of performativity The range of texts serves to illustrate Fletcher's definition of historical romance as a fictional mode dependent on the force and familiarity of the speech act I love you and permits Fletcher to provide a detailed account of the genre's history and development in both its popular and literary manifestations Written from a feminist and anti homophobic perspective Fletcher's subtle arguments about the romantic speech act serve to demonstrate the genre's dependence on repetition Romance can only quote and the shaky ground on which the romance's heterosexual premise rests Her exploration of the subgenre of cross dressing novels is especially revealing in this regard With its deft mix of theoretical arguments and suggestive close readings Fletcher's book will appeal to specialists in genre speech act and performativity theory and gender studies

Trauma in Contemporary Literature Marita Nadal, Mónica Calvo, 2014-03-26 Trauma in Contemporary Literature analyzes contemporary narrative texts in English in the light of trauma theory including essays by scholars of different countries who approach trauma from a variety of perspectives The book analyzes and applies the most relevant concepts and themes discussed in trauma theory such as the relationship between individual and collective trauma historical trauma absence vs loss the roles of perpetrator and victim dissociation nachträglichkeit transgenerational trauma

the process of acting out and working through introjection and incorporation mourning and melancholia the phantom and the crypt postmemory and multidirectional memory shame and the affects and the power of resilience to overcome trauma Significantly the essays not only focus on the phenomenon of trauma and its diverse manifestations but above all consider the elements that challenge the aporias of trauma the traps of stasis and repetition in order to reach beyond the confines of the traumatic condition and explore the possibilities of survival healing and recovery John Fowles's Fiction and the Poetics of Postmodernism Mahmoud Salami,1992 Salami presents for instance a critique of the self conscious narrative of the diary form in The Collector the intertextual relations of the multiplicity of voices the problems of subjectivity the reader's position the politics of seduction ideology and history in The Magus and The French Lieutenant's Woman The book also analyzes the ways in which Fowles uses and abuses the short story genre in which enigmas remain enigmatic and the author disappears to leave the characters free to construct their own texts Salami centers for example on A Maggot which embodies the postmodernist technique of dialogical narrative the problem of narrativization of history and the explicitly political critique of both past and present in terms of social and religious dissent These political questions are also echoed in Fowles's nonfictional book The Aristos in which he strongly rejects the totalization of narratives and the materialization of society

Handbook of the English Novel of the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Christoph Reinfandt,2017-06-12 The Handbook systematically charts the trajectory of the English novel from its emergence as the foremost literary genre in the early twentieth century to its early twenty first century status of eccentric eminence in new media environments Systematic chapters address The English Novel as a Distinctly Modern Genre The Novel in the Economy Genres Gender performativity masculinities feminism queer and The Burden of Representation class and ethnicity Extended contextualized close readings of more than twenty key texts from Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness 1899 to Tom McCarthy's Satin Island 2015 supplement the systematic approach and encourage future research by providing overviews of reception and theoretical perspectives Transhumanism and Posthumanism in Twenty-First Century Narrative Sonia Baelo-Allué,Mónica Calvo-Pascual,2021-05-05 Transhumanism and Posthumanism in Twenty First Century Narrative brings together fifteen scholars from five different countries to explore the different ways in which the posthuman has been addressed in contemporary culture and more specifically in key narratives written in the second decade of the 21st century by Dave Eggers William Gibson John Shirley Tom McCarthy Jeff Vandermeer Don DeLillo Margaret Atwood Cixin Liu and Helen Marshall Some of these works engage in the premises and perils of transhumanism while others explore the qualities of the post human in a variety of dystopian futures marked by the planetary influence of human action From a critical posthumanist perspective that questions anthropocentrism human exceptionalism and the centrality of the human subject in the era of the Anthropocene the scholars in this collection analyse the aesthetic choices these authors make to depict the posthuman and its aftereffects Discourse Deixis in Metafiction Andrea Macrae,2019-04-16 This volume advances scholarly understanding of the ways in which discourse deixis underpins the workings of metafictional novels Building on existing scholarship in the field the book begins by mapping out key themes and techniques in metafiction and puts forward a focused and theoretically coherent account of discourse deixis language which points to a section or aspect of the discourse context in which that language is used in written literary discourse highlighting its inherent significance in metafiction specifically Macrae takes readers through an exploration of discourse deixis as used within the techniques of metanarration metalepsis and disnarration drawing on a mix of both well established and lesser known metafictional novels from the late 1960s and early 1970s by such authors as John Barth Brigid Brophy Robert Coover John Fowles Steve Katz and B S Johnson This comprehensive account integrates and develops a new approach to understanding discourse deixis and innovative insights into metafictionality more broadly and will be of particular interest to scholars in literary studies postmodern literature narratology and stylistics

The Routledge Companion to Literature and Trauma Colin Davis, Hanna

Meretoja, 2020-05-11 Literary trauma studies is a rapidly developing field which examines how literature deals with the personal and cultural aspects of trauma and engages with such historical and current phenomena as the Holocaust and other genocides 9 11 climate catastrophe or the still unsettled legacy of colonialism The Routledge Companion to Literature and Trauma is a comprehensive guide to the history and theory of trauma studies including key concepts consideration of critical perspectives and discussion of future developments It also explores different genres and media such as poetry life writing graphic narratives photography and post apocalyptic fiction and analyses how literature engages with particular traumatic situations and events such as the Holocaust the Occupation of France the Rwandan genocide Hurricane Katrina and transgenerational nuclear trauma Forty essays from top thinkers in the field demonstrate the range and vitality of trauma studies as it has been used to further the understanding of literature and other cultural forms across the world Chapter 2 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

The Ethics of (In-)Attention in Contemporary Anglophone Narrative Jean-Michel Ganteau, Susana Onega, 2024-09-12 This volume argues that contemporary narratives evince a great deal of resilience by promoting an ecology of attention based on poetic options that develop an ethics of the particularist type The contributors draw on critical and theoretical literature hailing from various fields including psychology and sociology but more prominently phenomenology political philosophy analytical philosophy essentially Ordinary Language Philosophy alongside the Ethics of Care and Vulnerability This volume is designed as an innovative contribution to the nascent field of the study of attention in literary criticism an area that is full of potential Its scope is wide as it embraces a great deal of the Anglophone world with Britain Ireland the USA but also Australia and even Malta Its chapters focus on well established authors like Kazuo Ishiguro whose work is revisited here in a completely new light or more confidential ones like Melissa Harrison or Sarah Moss Chapter 2 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com>

British Postmodern Fiction, 2024-10-28 Science and Religion in Neo-Victorian Novels John

Glendening, 2013-04-17 Criticism about the neo Victorian novel a genre of historical fiction that re imagines aspects of the Victorian world from present day perspectives has expanded rapidly in the last fifteen years but given little attention to the engagement between science and religion Of great interest to Victorians this subject often appears in neo Victorian novels including those by such well known authors as John Fowles A S Byatt Graham Swift and Mathew Kneale This book discusses novels in which nineteenth century science including geology paleontology and evolutionary theory interacts with religion through accommodations conflicts and crises of faith In general these texts abandon conventional religion but retain the ethical connectedness and celebration of life associated with spirituality at its best Registering the growth of nineteenth century secularism and drawing on aspects of the romantic tradition and ecological thinking they honor the natural world without imagining that it exists for humans or functions in reference to human values In particular they enact a form of wonderment the capacity of the mind to make sense of creatively adapt and enjoy the world out of which it has evolved in short to endow it with meaning Protagonists who come to experience reality in this expansive way release themselves from self anxiety and alienation In this book Glendening shows how by intermixing past and present fact and fiction neo Victorian narratives with a few instructive exceptions manifest this pattern
