Forties Screen Style A Celebration Of High Pastiche In Hollywood:

Forties Screen Style Howard Mandelbaum, Eric Myers, Art Direction and Production Design Lucy Fischer, 2015-03-06 How is the look of a film achieved In Art Direction and Production Design six outstanding scholars survey the careers of notable art directors the influence of specific design styles the key roles played by particular studios and films in shaping the field the effect of technological changes on production design and the shifts in industrial modes of organization The craft s purpose is to produce an overall pictorial vision for films and in 1924 a group of designers formed the Cinemagundi Club their skills encompassed set design painting decoration construction and budgeting A few years later in recognition of their contributions to filmmaking the first Academy Awards for art direction were given a clear indication of just how essential the oversight of production design had become to the so called majors The original essays presented in Art Direction and Production Design trace the trajectory from Thomas Edison s primitive studio the Black Maria to the growth of the Hollywood studio system to the influence of sound to a discussion of the auteur theory and to contemporary Hollywood in which computer generated imagery has become common By 2000 the Society of Motion Picture Art Directors became the Art Directors Guild emphasizing the significance of the contributions of art direction and production design to filmmaking Art Direction and Production Design is a volume in the Behind the Silver Screen series other titles in the series include Acting Animation Cinematography Directing Editing and Special Visual Effects Producers Screenwriting and Sound The Filmmaker's Guide to Production Design Vincent LoBrutto, 2002-05-01 Learn to turn a simple screenplay into a visual masterpiece Top production designers share their real life experiences to explain the aesthetic narrative and technical aspects of the craft Step by step aspiring filmmakers will discover sound instruction on the tools of the trade and established filmmakers will enjoy a new outlook on production design They will learn for example the craft behind movie magic such as how to create a design metaphor choose a color scheme use space and work within all genres of film from well funded studio projects to guerilla filmmaking This indispensable resource also contains a history of movie making and guidelines for digital production design For the experienced filmmaker seeking new design ideas to the struggling newcomer stretching low budget dollars this book makes the processes and concepts of production design accessible Allworth Press an imprint of Skyhorse Publishing publishes a broad range of books on the visual and performing arts with emphasis on the business of art Our titles cover subjects such as graphic design theater branding fine art photography interior design writing acting film how to start careers business and legal forms business practices and more While we don t aspire to publish a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are deeply committed to quality books that help creative professionals succeed and thrive We often publish in areas overlooked by other publishers and welcome the author whose expertise can help our audience of readers Celluloid Saviours Emily Caston, 2020-05-22 In Celluloid Saviours the author analyses a corpus of US films dating from the silent era that she calls film blanc In these fantasy films a guardian spirit with extraordinary powers suspends the ordinary known laws of time and space and a main character reforms himself or herself in life changing ways The author argues that the historical pattern of film blanc relates to the rise and fall of liberal and reform thought in US politics specifically to conceptions of human nature as a tabula rasa This conception is evident both in the early feature films featuring angels such as Chaplin s The Kid and much later examples such as the 1980s box office hit Trading Places She argues that this narrative tradition runs from Hollywood s beginnings to the present day and is foreshadowed in the English ghost stories of Charles Dickens The classic era of film blanc is epitomised in the enduringly popular film It s a Wonderful Life More recent examples of narrative form analysed by Caston include The Truman Show and Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind

Dark Victory Ed Sikov, 2007-10-30 The legendary Hollywood star blazes a fiery trail in this enthralling portrait of a brilliant actress and the movies her talent elevated to greatness She was magnificent and exasperating in equal measure Jack Warner called her an explosive little broad with a sharp left Humphrey Bogart once remarked Unless you re very big she can knock you down Bette Davis was a force of nature an idiosyncratic talent who nevertheless defined the words movie star for more than half a century and who created an extraordinary body of work filled with unforgettable performances In Dark Victory the noted film critic and biographer Ed Sikov paints the most detailed picture ever delivered of this intelligent opinionated and unusual woman who was in the words of a close friend one of the major events of the twentieth century Drawing on new interviews with friends directors and admirers as well as archival research and a fresh look at the films this stylish intimate biography reveals Davis's personal as well as professional life in a way that is both revealing and sympathetic With his wise and well informed take on the production and accomplishments of such movie milestones as Jezebel All About Eve and Now Voyager as well as the turbulent life and complicated personality of the actress who made them Sikov's Dark Victory brings to life the two time Academy Award winning actress's unmistakable screen style and shows the reader how Davis's art was her own dark victory

Patricia Neal Stephen Michael Shearer, 2021-03-16 Major Motion Picture Adaptation Coming Soon The internationally acclaimed actress Patricia Neal 1926-2010 was a star on stage film and television for more than sixty years On Broadway she appeared in such lauded productions as Lillian Hellman's Another Part of the Forest winning the first Tony award In Hollywood she starred opposite the likes of John Wayne Paul Newman John Garfield and Gary Cooper in some thirty films She is perhaps best known for her portrayal of Alma Brown in Hud which earned her the 1963 Academy Award for Best Actress But there was much more to Neal's life She was born in Packard Kentucky though she spent most of her childhood in Knoxville Tennessee For a time Neal became romantically involved with Gary Cooper her married costar in The Fountainhead In 1953 Neal wed famed children's author Roald Dahl a match that would bring her five children and thirty years of dramatic ups and downs At the pinnacle of her screen career Neal suffered a series of strokes which left her in a coma for twenty one days and Variety even ran a headline erroneously stating that she had died After a difficult recovery Neal returned to film acting earning a second Academy Award nomination for The Subject Was Roses 1968 She appeared in several television movie roles in the 1970s and 1980s and won a Golden Globe for Best Actress in a Dramatic TV Movie in 1971 for The Homecoming Adapted as a major motion picture filmed as An Unquiet Life starring Hugh Bonneville Keeley Hawes and Sam Heughan Patricia Neal An Unquiet Life is the first critical biography detailing the actress's impressive film career and remarkable personal life Author Stephen Michael Shearer conducted numerous interviews with Neal her professional colleagues and her intimate friends and was given access to the actress's personal papers The result is an honest and comprehensive portrait of an accomplished woman who lived her life with determination and bravado

Uncle Mame Eric Myers, 2009-04-20 Under his pseudonyms of Patrick Dennis and Virginia Rowans Edward Everett Pat Tanner III was the author of sixteen novels most of them best sellers including the now classic Little Me and Auntie Mame Tanner made millions became the toast of Manhattan society and had his works adapted into wildly successful plays musicals TV shows and films But he also spent every cent he made worked incognito as a butler to the wealthy and constructed a persona so elaborate that not even his wife and children ever quite knew the real Pat Based on extensive interviews with coworkers friends and relatives Uncle Mame is a revealing intimate portrait of the man who brought camp to the American mainstream and even in his lowest moments personified even in his lowest moments the glamour and wit he captured on the page

What Ought to Scare You H. Marshall Leicester, 2024-06-27 Using the Hollywood studio system 1931-1960 as a historical center this book performs close readings of classic horror films such as Frankenstein and Cat People while asking the following three questions: What about this movie is weird? What does this movie think ought to scare you? If there weren't monsters in this movie, what would be wrong with these people's lives? These questions guide readers toward the uniqueness of horror films in relation to the way they are classified and the feeling of horror that they offer. The horror genre is a collection of culturally shared elements: words, images, or themes used to signify or evoke horror because they have been used that way before. Instead of treating movies as examples of the horror genre through how they evoke feelings from viewers, this book locates the meaning of horror within individual films and shows how movies make their own genealogies and complicate their own scares in an evolution of the genre. It argues that classic horror movies are forms of reception of and resistance to the ideas of horror that were current in their historical period. Working historically, the author traces movies' interactions with their precursors and co-conspirators to show how they are the agents of historical changes in the genre and in what we take to be horror.

Clothes Make the Character Lora Ann Sigler, 2021-02-26 Clothes make the man or woman. This is especially true in early Hollywood silent films where a character's appearance could show an immense number of different things about them. For example, Theda Bara's role in A Fool There Was (1915) was known for her revealing clothing, seductive appearance, and being the first Vamp. Wardrobe and costume design played a larger role in silent films than in modern movies. The character's clothes told the audience who they were and what their role was in the movie. In this in-depth analysis, the author provides examples and explanations about noteworthy characters who used their appearance to further their fame.

What Dreams Were Made of Sean Griffin, 2011 Humphrey Bogart, Abbott and Costello, Judy Garland, and Mickey Rooney, John Wayne, Rita Hayworth, and Betty Grable. Images of these film icons conjure up a unique moment in cinema and history: one of optimism and concern, patriotism and cynicism. What Dreams Were Made of examines the performers who helped define American cinema in the 1940s, a decade of rapid and repeated upheaval for Hollywood and the United States. Through insightful discussions of key films as well as studio publicity and fan magazines, the essays in this collection analyze how these actors and actresses helped lift spirits during World War II, whether in service comedies, combat films, or escapist musicals. The contributors are all major writers on the stars and movies of this period; they also explore how cultural shifts after the war forced many stars to adjust to new outlooks and attitudes, particularly in film noir. Together, they represented the hopes and fears of a nation during turbulent times, enacting on the silver screen the dreams of millions of moviegoers.

World War II and the Postwar Years in America William H. Young, Nancy K. Young, 2010-09-17 More than 150 articles provide a revealing look at one of the most tempestuous decades in recent American history, describing the everyday activities of Americans as they dealt first with war and then a difficult transition to peace and prosperity. The two-volume World War II and the Postwar Years in America: A Historical and Cultural Encyclopedia contains over 175 articles describing everyday life on the American home front during World War II and the immediate postwar years. Unlike publications about this period that focus mainly on the big picture of the war and subsequent economic conditions this encyclopedia drills down to the popular culture of the 1940s bringing the details of the lives of ordinary men women and children alive The work covers a broad range of everyday activities throughout the 1940s including movies radio programming music the birth of commercial television advertising art bestsellers and other equally intriguing topics The decade was divided almost evenly between war 1940 1945 and peace 1946 1950 and the articles point up the continuities and differences between these two periods Filled with evocative photographs this unique encyclopedia will serve as an excellent resource for those seeking an overview of life in the United States during a decade that helped shape the modern world Old House Interiors ,2000-06 National architectural magazine now in its fifteenth year covering period inspired design 1700 1950 Commissioned photographs show real homes inspired by the past but livable Historical and interpretive rooms are included new construction additions and new kitchens and baths take their place along with restoration work A feature on furniture appears in every issue Product coverage is extensive Experts offer advice for homeowners and designers on finishing decorating and furnishing period homes of every era A garden feature essays archival material events and exhibitions and book reviews round out the editorial Many readers claim the beautiful advertising all of it design related no lifestyle ads is as important to them as the articles

Clothing and Fashion José Blanco F.,Patricia Kay Hunt-Hurst,Heather Vaughan Lee,Mary Doering,2015-11-23 This unique four volume encyclopedia examines the historical significance of fashion trends revealing the social and cultural connections of clothing from the precolonial times to the present day This sweeping overview of fashion and apparel covers several centuries of American history as seen through the lens of the clothes we wear from the Native American moccasin to Manolo Blahnik s contribution to stiletto heels Through four detailed volumes this work delves into what people wore in various periods in our country s past and why from hand crafted family garments in the 1600s to the rough clothing of slaves to the sophisticated textile designs of the 21st century More than 100 fashion experts and clothing historians pay tribute to the most notable garments accessories and people comprising design and fashion The four volumes contain more than 800 alphabetical entries with each volume representing a different era Content includes fascinating information such as that beginning in 1619 through 1654 every man in Virginia was required to plant a number of mulberry trees to support the silk industry in England what is known about the clothing of enslaved African Americans and that there were regulations placed on clothing design during World War II The set also includes color inserts that better communicate the visual impact of clothing and fashion across eras Out ,2000-10 Out is a fashion style celebrity and opinion magazine for the modern gay man Botticelli in Hollywood Susan Felleman,1997 A long overdue look at the career of Albert Lewin a Hollywood original who wrote and directed six exotic and elegant feature films in the 1940s and 1950s The Moon and Sixpence The Picture of Dorian Gray The Private Affairs of Bel Ami Pandora and the Flying Dutchman Saadia and The Living Idol As one of the first screenwriter directors Lewin incorporated not only visual art but also literature music and dance into his complex scenarios These elements contribute to the exceptional atmosphere of his small but strikingly original body of work Old House Interiors, 2003-06 National architectural magazine now in its fifteenth year covering period inspired design 1700 1950 Commissioned photographs show real homes inspired by the past but livable Historical and interpretive rooms are included new construction additions and new kitchens and baths take their place along with restoration work A feature on furniture appears in every issue Product coverage is extensive Experts offer advice for homeowners and designers on finishing decorating and furnishing period homes of every era A garden feature essays archival material events and exhibitions and book reviews round out the editorial Many readers claim the beautiful advertising all of it design related no lifestyle ads is as important to them as the articles Historical Collections Council Newsletters Nancy Dustin Wall Moure, Historical Collections Council (Laguna Beach, Calif.), 2006 Continues those Newsletters printed in Publications in Southern California Art No 5 New York 1960 Robert A. M.
