The Glory Days Collection - Book 1 Goulash, 2012-07-01 Hi I m Goulash Don t be alarmed but I know what you re thinkin No I m not clairvoyant A little off butt I m going to reveal your first question before you even ask it Yeah I know what it is Why would this Moron be writing a book Spooky huh Everyone has hopefully grownup with fond memories and comical moments they ll never forget They can be memories that just warm your heart or make you feel so good you smile to yourself It s the reason we enjoy certain songs of the past It reminds us how we felt at the time When we always had those Good Vibrations Then there s some stories you ve told over and over again because they still crack you up so much they make milk shoot out your nose providing you re drinking milk of course You could never duplicate them or purposely direct the insanity not that you should try Most of our parents tried to teach us not to act like morons but instead to think of the consequences before we act That s a great theory but if you re old enough to be reading this you should already know that s not the way things go all the time If you don t know that it s quite possible you re in this book or should be Thinking logically is especially difficult if you re in high school in the sixties exposed to hot cars boats motorcycles rock roll sports girls or boys girl and boy sports not to mention hormones Now consider that you re a member of your own teen age version of The Little Rascals The Happy Days of Richie and Fonzie on generic steroids might not be far off It s about the time in life when even your parents began to accept that you need to try to make some decisions for yourself and begin your adult education Obviously the problem with that is you don t even have a semi adult education This is a collection of short stories told in a semi chronological order starting in 1966 A lot of the knuckleheads you ll read about several times so logically you should start at the front to acquaint yourself with the characters the mood and the feel of the times The Sixties The Baby Boomer s Glory Days Try the normal approach for a change Later you ll be able to pick it up and continue when you only have ten or fifteen minutes to kill and prefer a little comic diversion instead of thinking about what you think you should be thinking about if that s the way you think Depending on where you locate your library the length of the adventures are well suited for that non productive time you spend on the throne during the day or night I guess Think of it as a source of relief from top to bottom Why not let reading about some of our crap help you with yours After you re acquainted with the Goulash Experience you ll be able to let it lie around and go back to it as you would your favorite sitcom In fact that s what we should call it The printed accounts of some easily distracted Baby Boomers as they experienced the Glory Days in wholesome but knee slapping adventures that may cause projectile expulsions of recently ingested liquids from the proboscis Sitcom I like it Might be a bit wordy butt you get the point If nothing else you can use it for the therapeutic value of which we ve already discussed What s that Oh now you want the answer to the question Well that s in the Book s Introduction and actually I only promised the question So If you could use a grin now and then but feel the need to think of yourself as responsible think about this book as a mental health investment You ll be paying less than hundredths of a penny per grin Think you could use one of them I know I could and some of these are almost worth a nickel so that would make this a deal especially during these grin scarce times What have ya got to lose Splurge a little I promise you It s gonna make ya feel good Goulash Out Boomer Humor Glen

Cursive Like a Baby Boomer J. Michael Krivyanski,2017-09-17 The older we Baby Boomers get the more we appreciate being a Baby Boomer The world of today may never know the real value of a mood ring or pet rock The modern generation may never appreciate the profound fashion statement made by wearing a leisure suit bell bottom pants or having the disco look Some schools no longer teach children how to write cursive It will soon be our secret code unable to be deciphered by the younger generations Baby Boomers should never be afraid to tell the younger generation exactly what we think of them We just have to make sure we write it down in cursive for them to read Morse Code for Baby Boomers Bonnie
