The Foundations of Culture in Australia. An Essay Towards National Self Respect Percy Reginald STEPHENSEN,1936      The foundations of Culture in Australia P. R. Stephensen,1986      Middlebrow Modernism Melinda J. Cooper,2022-10-01 Eleanor Dark 1901-85 is one of Australia's most innovative 20th century writers. Her extensive oeuvre includes ten novels published from the early 1930s to the late 1950s and represents a significant engagement with global modernity from a unique position within settler culture. Yet Dark's contribution to 20th century literature has been undervalued in the fields of both Australian literary studies and world literature. Although two biographies have been written about her life, there has been no book-length critical study of her writing published since 1976. Middlebrow Modernism counters this neglect by providing the first full-length critical survey of Eleanor Dark's writing to be published in over four decades. Focusing on the fiction that Dark produced during the interwar years and reading this in the context of her larger body of work, this book positions Dark's writing as important to the study of Australian literature and global modernism. Melinda Cooper argues that Dark's fiction exhibits a distinctive aesthetic of middlebrow modernism which blends attributes of literary modernism with popular fiction. It seeks to mediate and reconcile apparent binaries: modernism and mass culture, liberal humanism and experimental aesthetics, settler society and international modernity. The term middlebrow modernism also captures the way Dark negotiated cosmopolitan commitments with more place-based attachments to nation and local community within the mid-20th century. Middlebrow Modernism posits that Dark's fiction and the broader phenomenon of Australian modernism offer essential case studies for larger debates operating within global modernist and world literature studies, providing perspectives these fields might otherwise miss.

The Foundations of Culture in Australia Percy Reginald Stephensen, Craig Munro, 1986. Polemical essays on the development of a national culture and identity in Australia, colonisation and the importation of culture, development of literature, art, written history and political forms.

The Cambridge History of Australian Literature Peter Pierce, 2009-09-17. Draws on scholarship from leading figures in the field and spans Australian literary history from colonial origins, indigenous and migrant literatures, as well as representations of Asia and the Pacific and the role of literary culture in modern Australian society.

Henry Handel Richardson Vol 3 Edited By Clive Probyn and Bruce Steele, 2013-07-15. The publication of Henry Handel Richardson's correspondence is a major event in Australian scholarly publishing. There are approximately fifteen hundred unpublished manuscript letters to and from HHR, of which almost a thousand are in her own hand. They form a correspondence between Australia, England, Germany, Italy, and the USA over a seventy-year period, 1874 to 1946. The letters shed new light on Henry Handel Richardson's biography, her artistic methods, her personal life, her friendships and antagonisms, her response to Australian readers and to expatriation, and her rigorous efforts to maintain a literary life apart from her personal life. The collection begins with HHR's earliest letter, then traces her student days in Leipzig, the publication of Maurice Guest, The Getting of Wisdom, The Fortunes of Richard

Mahony The Young Cosima and The End of a Childhood and her struggle late in life with the stringencies of wartime England In this volume the widowed HHR moves to the Sussex village where she lived until her death The letters cover the publication of The End of a Childhood and Other Stories the ill fated The Young Cosima and her incomplete memoir Myself When Young War dominated the closing years of her life and she reported her experiences graphically to Mary Kernot She refused to leave her house even while the Battle of Britain was being fought in the skies above her The strain and deprivations of war weakened her When unable to write her companion and secretary Olga Roncoroni wrote for her and these letters are included Her last letter is a little pencilled note to Mary Kernot     A Companion to Australian Literature Since 1900 Nicholas Birns, Rebecca McNeer, 2007 A fresh twenty first century look at Australian literature in a broad inclusive and multicultural sense     Myths of Oz John Fiske, Bob Hodge, Graeme Turner, 2016-10-04 This book first published in 1987 sets out to examine and extend our understanding of Australian popular culture and to counter the long established traditional criticism bewailing its lack The authors argue that the knocker's view started from an elitist viewpoint yearning for Australia to aspire to a European culture in art music literature and other traditional cultural fields They argue however that there are other definitions of culture that are more populist more comprehensive and which represent a vitality and dynamism which is a true reflection of the lives and aspirations of Australians Myths of Oz offers no comprehensive definition of Australian culture but rather a way of interpreting its various aspects The barbeque or the pub an expedition to the shops or a day at the beach the home the workplace or the job queue all these intrinsic parts of Australian life are examined and conclusions drawn as to how they shape or are shaped by what we call popular culture The authors look too at monuments and symbols from Ayers Rock to the Sydney Opera House which both shape and reflect Australian culture while a chapter on the Australian accent shows how language and terminology play a powerful role in establishing cultural standpoints A particular strength of this book is that while delivering a provocative and stimulating series of viewpoints on popular culture it also makes use of current academic tools and methodology to ensure that we gain new insights into the meanings and pleasures we derive from our everyday experiences     Locating Australian Literary Memory Brigid Magner, 2019-11-22 Locating Australian Literary Memory explores the cultural meanings suffusing local literary commemorations It is orientated around eleven authors Adam Lindsay Gordon Joseph Furphy Henry Handel Richardson Henry Lawson A B Banjo Paterson Nan Chauncy Katharine Susannah Prichard Eleanor Dark P L Travers Kylie Tennant and David Unaipon who have all been celebrated through a range of forms including statues huts trees writers houses and assorted objects Brigid Magner illuminates the social memory residing in these monuments and artefacts which were largely created as bulwarks against forgetting Acknowledging the value of literary memorials and the voluntary labour that enables them she traverses the many contradictions ironies and eccentricities of authorial commemoration in Australia arguing for an expanded repertoire of practices to recognise those who have been hitherto excluded     Possessions Nicholas

Thomas,2022-09-01 The arts of Africa Oceania and native America famously inspired twentieth century modernist artists such as Picasso Matisse and Ernst The politics of such stimulus however have long been highly contentious was this a cross cultural discovery to be celebrated or just one more example of Western colonial appropriation This revelatory book explores cross cultural art through the lens of settler societies such as Australia and New Zealand where Europeans made new nations displacing and outnumbering but never eclipsing native peoples In this dynamic of dispossession and resistance visual art has loomed large Settler artists and designers drew upon Indigenous motifs and styles in their search for distinctive identities Yet powerful Indigenous art traditions have asserted the presence of First Nations peoples and their claims to place history and sovereignty Cultural exchange has been a two way process and an unpredictable one contemporary Indigenous art draws on global contemporary practice but moves beyond a bland affirmation of hybrid identities to insist on the enduring values and attachment to place of Indigenous peoples The Cambridge Companion to Australian Poetry Ann

Gilbert,2025-10-01 Sightlines Race Gender and Nation in Contemporary Australian Theatre asserts the centrality of theater to the ongoing negotiations of the Australian context By exploring ways in which ideas about race gender and nation are expressed in concrete theatrical contexts the performative qualities of theatrical representation are revealed as compelling important sites of critique Helen Gilbert discusses an exciting variety of plays drawing examples from marginalized groups as well as from the theatrical mainstream While fully engaged with the discourses of contemporary critical thought Sightlines remains focused on the material stuff of the theater grounding its discussion in the visual elements of costume movement and scenography And although focused specifically on performance the author s insistent interest in historical and political contexts also speaks to the broader concerns of cultural studies The book s recurrent concern with representations of Aboriginality particularly in the works of nonindigenous playwrights draws attention to racial politics as a perennial motif in postcolonial nations Its illumination of the relationships between patriarchy and imperialism is supported by an extensive discussion of plays by and about women This nomadic approach marks Sightlines as a groundbreaking study of recent Australian theater a provocative application of postcolonial theory to the embodied qualities of theatrical representation An impressive and ground breaking study that provides a coherent postcolonial approach to Australian drama Bill Ashcroft University of New South Wales Elegantly written and always beautifully lucid in its argument this is a very original work particularly in its marriage of performance theory and postcolonial analysis Deidre Coleman University of Sydney Helen Gilbert is Lecturer in Drama and Theatre Studies University of Queensland and co author with Joanne Tompkins of Post Colonial Drama Theory Practice Politics Imperialism and Theatre J. Ellen Gainor,2003-09-02 Imperialism is a transnational and transhistorical phenomenon it occurs neither in limited areas nor at one specific moment In cultures from across the world theatrical performance has long been a site for both the representation and support of imperialism and resistance and rebellion against it Imperialism and Theatre is a groundbreaking collection which explores the questions of why and how the theatre was selected within imperial cultures for the representation of the concerns of both the colonizers and the colonized Gathering together fifteen noted scholars and theatre practitioners this collection spans global and historical boundaries and presents a uniquely comprehensive study of post colonial drama The essays engage in current theoretical issues while shifting the focus from the printed text to theatre as a cultural formation and locus of political force A compelling and extremely timely work Imperialism and Theatre reveals fascinating new dimensions to the post colonial debate Contributors Nora Alter Sudipto Chatterjee Mary Karen Dahl Alan Filewood Donald H Frischmann Rhonda Garelick Helen Gilbert Michael Hays Loren Kruger Josephine Lee Robert Eric Livingston Julie S Peters Michael Quinn Edward Said Elaine Savory The Enchantment of English Leigh Dale,2012-11-28 Written from the belief that every discipline is enhanced by understanding the arguments made for its existence and the conditions in which it was established the author aims to help students and colleagues to think critically about the impact of institutional location in forming our habits of mind to Australia so that the colonies never were a solution to restless men's anxieties John Shaw Neilson Hewson, Helen, 1997-02-11 The selection begins in 1906 when A G Stephens started up The Bookfellow From this crucial point and throughout the ensuing thirty five years we follow Neilson the man farming and working in the bush maintaining caring relationships with his scattered family and finally moving in 1928 to Melbourne and a job as an interdepartmental messenger with the Country Roads Board in Carlton Helen Hewson has chosen and edited her material from more than a thousand existing letters most of which have not been published previously They cover family social and publishing correspondence in addition to the detailed letters about writing poetry which passed between Neilson and his three very different editorial advisers A G Stephens Robert H Croll and James Devaney his first biographer Other writers of the period who corresponded with Neilson included Robert Bridges Mary Gilmore Christopher Brennan Vance and Nettie Palmer Hubert Church Percival Serle and Frank Wilmot The letters are full of revealing details about his association with many institutions and personalities the Australian Literature Association the Bread and Cheese Club Coles Book Arcade the Hill of Content the Hawthorn Press Blamire Young Vance and Nettie Palmer Mary Gilmore Bernard O Dowd Frank Wilmot Victor Kennedy and others John Shaw Neilson A Life in Letters establishes a social background and a literary context which ends any suggestion that Neilson is merely a bush poet or a simple singer This complex poet participated in an intricate network of literary relationships and literary production and it is only through reading the letters that one realises the degree to which he reflected on his own and other people's poetry and writing Sport, Literature, Society Alexis Tadié, J.A.
