Foundations Of Faith Historic Religious Buildings Of Ontario:

Foundations of Faith Violet M. Holroyd, 1991-06-30 The Ontario landscape is dotted with places of worship from the simple log cabin to lofty cathedrals Behind each lie personal stories of exceptional individuals and historical events all of which have helped shape our lives The lovers of Anne of Green Gables may be pleasantly surprised by Lucy Maud Montgomery's long association with the Leaksdale Manse just north of Toronto From the James Bay lowlands comes an unusual example of ingenuity involving a historic Moose Factory landmark while the poignant love story involving Florence Nightingale and a local minister is depicted in the attractive stained glass window of a church in Elora A more recent page of history is captured through the side by side relationship of a synagogue and mosque Throughout Foundations of Faith will delight the armchair traveller and invite the mobile history buff to explore Ontario Canadian Book Review Annual ,1991

The Church, the People, and the Age Robert Scott, George William Gilmore, 1914 There can ne no doubt that the churches of to day do not fully satisfy the religious needs of mankind Often the most religious natures are those that hold themselves aloof from the Church I find the main reason for this is that the churches cling too tenaciously to some old formula that is becoming more and more antiquated so that the Church loses touch with the spiritual life of the present If the churches cannot find the courage and strength for such a course they will find themselves becoming more and more estranged from mankind Rudolf Christoph Eucken p xx xxi Historical Studies ,1995 The American Annual
