Foundations for Christian Education in an Era of Change Marvin J. Taylor, 1976-01-01 Foundational Issues in Christian Education Robert W. Pazmiño, 2008-09-01 For almost twenty years Foundational Issues in Christian Education has been a key text for many Christian education courses Its perceptive analysis coupled with clear writing make it a resource without peer In the book Christian education expert Robert Pazmiño guides readers through a comprehensive discussion of the interdisciplinary foundations of Christian education calling all Christian educators to reevaluate the fundamentals of their discipline A careful exploration of foundations writes Pazmiño is essential before specifying principles and guidelines for practice This updated edition includes interaction with professional developments over the past ten years and appendixes that assess the impact of postmodernism as an educational philosophy In addition each chapter includes points to ponder for personal reflection or classroom use

Foundations of Ministry Michael J. Anthony, 1998-02-01 Develop an excellent Christian education ministry with this introductory guide from the faculty of Biola University's Talbot School of Theology

Christian Education: Its History and Philosophy Kenneth O. Gangel, Warren S. Benson, 2002-03-05 A history of Christian education must not be confused with a record of the achievements of the Sunday School The discipline has advanced well beyond that stage and today's sophisticated students fully understand that no proper concept of the history and philosophy of Christian education can be gained without seeing all the ramifications implications and influences that have affected it from pre Christian times to the present So Drs Gangel and Benson have written this book a historical flow of philosophical thought from a Christian point of view Its focus is cultural biographical discussing each philosophy in its particular socio historical setting and giving special attention to significant individuals The format is chronological beginning with education in biblical times working upward through history to arrive at the present and beyond raising questions and issues for the future need attention when planning for and building a Christian education program Questions and exercises at the end of each chapter help pastors Christian educators seminary students and laity apply the information to their own unique setting building on the basics to renew and transform Christian education Christian Education Teaching Methods - From Modern to Postmodern Carlos C. Roberts,2009-11 This book provides pastors professional teachers students of religious education or Christian education theological students and Sunday school teachers with methods of teaching the faith today and opportunities to reflect critically on the methods and approaches they use in the classroom in the changed cultural context of our postmodern world The book is the result of years of practical experience in the field of Christian education as a Director of Religious Education and head of a team involved in providing religious education training and producing teaching materials and textbooks for Sunday school and professional teachers of Christian education This book proposes the Herald model of church and model of Christian education as a very helpful model for postmodern culture Educational Ministry in the Logic of the Spirit James E. Loder,2018-07-20 In November 2001 James E Loder Jr Professor of the Philosophy of Christian Education for forty years at Princeton Theological Seminary suddenly died He was a creative and profound thinker who had just completed a promising book In it he developed a compelling interdisciplinary model to disclose how the divine Spirit affirms reconstitutes and transforms the human spirit to bring new energy and creativity into human experience He called it redemptive transformation You now hold that book in your hands Those who know Loder s work are confident that Educational Ministry in the Logic of the Spirit though delayed for over fifteen years will still become the best introduction to his complex thought More important it offers the imaginative means by which we may learn to attune ourselves and our faith communities to what God is doing in our fractured distracted and self destructive world to bring about a revolution of love the fruit of Christ s Spirit and the center of our human vocation Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1978 "Education Has Nothing to Do with Theology" Edward J. Newell,2006-08-01 Does education have any relation to theology How do the educator s worldview commitments speak to his or her practice of education James Michael Lee brought a definite answer to these questions a firm no to the relations question and an advocacy for empirical findings over and against any speculative or theoretical positions in reply to the commitments question Lee claimed to have a universal neutral metatheory for all religious education a theory that would apply to all religious educators in any and every religion But in proposing his theory he overlooked the way that empirical facts express worldviews This book is a detective story tracing commitments that lay underneath empirical neutrality In the process the reader will see avenues that unmistakably link education to theology Education turns out to be a thoroughly worldview conditioned process This new work is essential reading for professors and students in both religious and general education Pentecostal Formation Cheryl Bridges Johns,2010-11-01 The Pentecostal movement has been subject to some negative external assumptions In this enlightening and challenging book Cheryl Bridges Johns argues that in fact Pentecostals employ a powerful process of formation of catechesis which has enabled millions of believers to own and articulate the Christian story She engages dialectically with the work of Paulo Freire a specialist in education among the marginalized As well as looking more broadly at the nature of all catechesis there is also an attempt to move beyond the rationalism found in a praxis epistemology The Logic of the Spirit in Human Thought and Experience Keith J White,Dana R Wright,2015-02-26 In March 2012 a small consultation convened on the campus of Princeton Theological Seminary where James E Loder Jr had served for forty years as the Mary D Synnott Professor of the Philosophy of Christian Education Members from the Child Theology Movement had begun to read Loder s work and they wanted to go further So they invited former students of Loder s to meet with them for conversations about things that really mattered to them and to Loder human beings and especially children the church s witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ and discerning the work of Spiritus Creator in the postmodern world The conversations proved rich and rewarding and some would even say they took on a life of their own serious scholarship set to the music of the Spirit s communion creating artistry forming new relationships inspiring new ideas and sustaining all of it amid much laughter joy and hope These essays taken from the papers delivered at the consultation are offered as a means of extending that conversation inspired by Loder s interdisciplinary practical theological science and his discernment of the Transformation Eolene M. Boyd-MacMillan,2006 Latin American Journey Robert W.

Pazmiño,2002-09-02 Latin American Journey demonstrates in a unique way how personal and social narrative can illuminate the biblical story Robert Pazmino s experiences in a South American base community and the barrios of Costa Rica are here translated into fresh and vital proposals for Christian education in North America Showing the way between fundamentalism of both the right and left the author brings into creative partnership an often polarized orthodoxy and orthopraxy A valuable resource for religious educators pastors and seminary students Gabriel Fackre Abbot Professor of Christian Theology Andover Newton Theological School Pazmino has shown significant creativity in bringing the insights of liberation theology to bear on the discipline of religious education He has done this in a manner that is directly relevant to a North American audience and not merely to those curious about Latin American liberation theology He writes clearly and succinctly and his book could be valuable in courses on religious education in seminars and colleges It is a must for curriculum planners and writers as well as for directors of Christian education in local churches Justo L Gonzalez Director Hispanic Summer Program The Fund for Theological Education Inc Introduction to Biblical Christian Education Werner C.
