away from the city because he learned that Abdul Hamid proposed to invite him to dinner and who gave as his reason for getting away that if invited he could hardly refuse and that if he accepted he would lose all nonconformist votes I should have to miss the point of my story unless I mentioned the name which I should not be justified in doing Had space permitted I should have liked much to speak at length of visits of that of Miss Isabel Fry who spent time and money for the benefit of Turkish women of the Members of the Balkan Committee notably Mr Noel E About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www forgottenbooks com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Forty Years in Constantinople; the Recollections of Sir Edwin Pears, 1873-1915, with 16 Illustrations Sir Edwin Pears, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1916 edition Excerpt CHAPTER XIX ABDUL HAMID DEPOSED Enver's Significant Words A New Era A Precipitated Coup The Sultan's Attitude The National Assembly Decide Upon Deposition Abdul Hamid Informed He Pleads for His Life His Cowardice Mahomet V Abdul Hamid is Packed Off Refreshing the Harem The New Sultan Proclaimed A Kindly Man Defying Abdul Hamid Turkish Misrule Fostering Religious Hatred The Caliphate The Jehad Bribes for Reactionaries ON the Sunday about fifty of the Army of the Deliverers killed in the previous day's fighting were buried and received a public funeral Each coffin was covered by a Turkish flag and bore a fez on a small stick at one end as is the usual custom They were all interred in a common grave on land which adjoins that possessed by the English High School for Girls and with much religious ceremony Patriotic speeches were delivered by Enver Bey as he then was and others A handsome monument has since been erected over the grave and the spot is called the Hill of Liberty Enver especially emphasised in his speech that Moslems and Christians were lying side by side in token that they living or dying were henceforward fellow patriots who would know no distinction of race or creed It is worth while to mention that the occupation of Constantinople by Shevket's army on the Saturday took place twenty four hours before it was intended This was because trustworthy information had reached Shevket that a massacre of Armenians in Stambul was contemplated The deputies and foreigners at the Military Schools were also marked down for assassination The civil authorities communicated with San Stefano the fact that a number of Kurds of the lowest class with which Stambul then Forty Years in Constantinople Edwin Pears, 2014-02 This is a reproduction of a abounded were to be the instruments book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing
