Economic Anxiety Christian Faith:

Economic Anxiety & Christian Faith Larry L. Rasmussen, 1981

Financial Anxiety Brendan J. Barnicle, 2021-10-19

An honest and innovative look at our relationship to money Though theologians of every era have written about money and scripture and theology provide ample material for a rich discussion of wealth and possessions we have tremendous difficulty talking about money in the church Therefore congregational leaders need to know how to talk about money and particularly how to lead a theological discussion about it and the anxiety individuals often feel This series of Little Books on Faith and Money is designed to foster conversations within congregations around certain principles and practices that nurture community and growth in the ongoing life of the church Christian Ethics in the Protestant Tradition Waldo

Beach, 1988-01-01 With Christian Ethics in the Protestant Tradition Waldo Beach provides a basic introductory text on Christian ethics He has designed a challenging work that grapples with the ethical questions surrounding modern day problems from the perspective of Protestant theology and tradition His two part format is especially helpful for study

Bible and Ethics in the Christian Life Bruce C. Birch, 1989-01-01 Among the topics treated are Christian ethics as community ethics Charting the moral life Elements of character formation Character and social structure Decision making The nature and role of biblical authority Uses of Scripture in Christian ethics Christian Faith and Its Cultural Expression George Rudolph Gordh, 1962

Talking Dollars and Sense Brendan J. Barnicle, 2022-02-22 Tools for clergy and congregational leaders to lead theological conversations about money Scripture and theology provide ample material for a rich discussion of money and possessions Theologians of every era have written about money Author Brendan Barnicle offers pastoral programs to bring the conversation into contemporary focus by considering personal budgeting and estate planning personal discipleship parish budgets and parish investments communal ministry and congregational partnering and policy advocacy global mission

Stories Economists Tell John P. Tiemstra, 2012-12-19 A Christian approach to economic analysis requires that humans be thought of not as maximizing their own private economic welfare but rather as making moral choices with their resources Professor Tiemstra lays out the methodology of this approach in the first section of this book He then applies it to real economic problems including poverty and economic justice environmental sustainability and globalization

God the Economist M. Douglas Meeks, God does not appear in the modern market For most economists this is as it should be It is in no way necessary according to modern economic theory to consider God when thinking about economy Indeed the absence of God in economic matters is viewed as necessary to the great advances in modern economy The difficulty with modern market economies however is that human livelihood is also left out of the theory and practice of the market economy I propose to bring the church's teaching about God the doctrine of the Trinity to bear on the masked connections between God and economy I will treat the Trinity as the way of understanding what the Bible calls the economy of God

Christian Ethics and Political Economy in North America Travis Kroecker, 1995-01-17 Kroecker argues that in trying to make their theological ethics relevant to economic policy Christian social ethicists have accepted assumptions that are incompatible with theological beliefs Starting with the Social Gospel movement he discusses the positions of theologian Walter Rauschenbusch and Canadian politician James Shaver Woodsworth He then turns to Christian Realism and compares the views of Reinhold Niebuhr with those of Gregory Vlastos the central figure in the Canadian Fellowship for a Christian Social Order He also examines recent pastoral letters on the economy by the Canadian and US conferences of Roman Catholic bishops In conclusion Kroeker suggests an alternative theological approach based on the classical Christian realism of Augustine that might better address the moral malaise of liberal political economy

The Oxford Handbook of Christianity and Economics Paul Oslington, 2014 The new interdisciplinary field of Christianity and economics deals with the important and difficult questions that cluster at the boundary of these disciplines drawing on contemporary theory and empirical findings in both fields with roots in older discourses This landmark volume surveys the field and advances the discussion It deploys historical economic and theological analysis to search for answers

WealthWatch Michael S. Moore, 2011-05-12 The purpose of this book is to help postmodern Westerners understand what the Bible has to say about wealth and possessions its acquisition and protection deprivation and slavery corruption and hedonism and even relations between management and labor Focusing on Torah the Pentateuch it interprets this great text against other great texts in its literary historical environment including some epic poems from Mesopotamia some Jewish texts from Syro Palestine and some Nazarene parables from the Greek New Testament

House of Disciples Michael H. Crosby, 2004-01-28 The household was the basic unit of the early church it also constituted the basic unit of political economy until the Industrial Revolution This richly detailed work uses the notion of house as a unifying theme establishing the identity and concerns of the early Christian churches What emphases did Matthew's gospel have for that audience which Crosby establishes was urban based and prosperous and what does it mean to First World Christians today Through an in depth exploration of Matthew's gospel and its socioeconomic milieu House of Disciples shows how the world of the early church continues to challenge Christians nineteen hundred years later It makes a unique contribution to both New Testament scholarship and the practice of a contemporary spirituality

Bulls, Bears and Golden Calves John E. Stapleford, 2015-03-27 John Stapleford interacts with seven standard introductory economics texts to show how ethics are inextricably intertwined with economic life and analysis This revised and expanded edition includes discussions of entitlements global poverty government debt healthcare reform and immigration reform

Abortion Policy and Christian Social Ethics in the United States Mako A. Nagasawa, 2021-01-06 Today's Christian pro life movement has misplaced its priorities The issue of abortion is more complex than the movement often appreciates For a start Scripture is less clear about the moral weight of the fetus than we often think In fact early Christians took different positions on abortion because they also relied on different scientific sources about the unborn Furthermore Christian conservatives today do not acknowledge that in American history as today Christian stances on abortion were motivated by other political fears White Protestant Americans developed different state laws on abortion to accomplish anti immigrant goals in the North but anti black racism in the South That messiness impacts U S constitutional law including Roe v Wade Meanwhile Scripture commissions God s people to confront socio economic factors that push abortion rates higher male privilege and the disempowerment of women the high cost of child raising the causes of birth defects the desire to care narrowly for just my children mistaken views about contraception and the culture wars and most of all poverty This book incorporates biblical studies church history science social science history and public policy to argue that we must not approach abortion policy primarily from a criminal justice standpoint as modern conservatives do but from a broad social and economic standpoint meant to benefit and bless all children

Ethics and Liberation Charles L. Kammer, 2002-12-26 The introduction to the nature and purpose of Christian ethics presents an ethical theory consistent with the fundamental insights of the Christian tradition Ethics and Liberation outlines an ethic which provides guidelines for responsible stands on contemporary issues be they personal or socio political Exploring both the strengths and weaknesses of traditional Christian ethics Kammer proposes going beyond them to an ethic of theonomous responsibility one based on the precepts of liberation theology Stressing the socio political dimension of ethics Kammer follows the threads of Christian tradition that led to an emphasis on personal salvation and a neglect of social issues Finally he traces the path from Christian realism through liberation theology Ethics and Liberation concludes with a discussion of two serious test cases in contemporary moral issues the distribution of health care and nuclear disarmament

A Global Ethic for Global Politics and Economics Hans Kung, 1998-04-16 As the twentieth century draws to a close and the rush to globalization gathers momentum political and economic considerations are crowding out vital ethical questions about the shape of our future Now Hans K ng one of the world s preeminent Christian theologians explores these issues in a visionary and cautionary look at the coming global society How can the new world order of the twenty first century avoid the horrors of the twentieth Will nations form a real community or continue to aggressively pursue their own interests Will the Machiavellian approaches of the past prevail over idealism and a more humanitarian politics What role can religion play in a world increasingly dominated by transnational corporations K ng tackles these and many other questions with the insight and moral authority that comes from a lifetime s devotion to the search for justice and human dignity Arguing against both an amoral realpolitik and an immoral resurgence of laissez faire economics K ng defines a comprehensive ethic founded on the bedrock of mutual respect and humane treatment of all beings that would encompass the ecological legal technological and social patterns that are reshaping civilization If we are going to have a global economy a global technology a global media K ng argues we must also have a global ethic to which all nations and peoples of the most varied backgrounds and beliefs can commit themselves The world he says is not going to be held together by the Internet For anyone concerned about the world we are creating A Global Ethic for Global Politics and Economics offers equal measures of informed analysis compassionate
