Post-Keynesian Essays from Down Under Volume III: Essays on Ethics, Social Justice and Economics G. Harcourt, Peter Kriesler, Joseph Halevi, John Nevile, 2016-11-16 Joseph Halevi G C Harcourt Peter Kriesler and J W Nevile bring together a collection of their most influential papers on post Keynesian thought Their work stresses the importance of the underlying institutional framework of the economy as a historical process and therefore of path determinacy In addition their essays suggest the ultimate goal of economics is as a tool to inform policy and make the world a better place with better being defined by an overriding concern with social justice Volume III explores the ethics of economics Community Psychology and the Socio-economics of Mental Distress Carl Walker, Katherine Johnson, Liz Cunningham, 2017-09-16 Providing unique global perspectives on community psychology this is exciting and important reading for students and researchers alike written by leading experts in the field Drawing on a wealth of experience and examples it offers an essential guide to the political global context of this fast developing area of psychology

The Professoriate Anthony Welch, 2005-08-31 What does it mean to be an academic in the twenty first century Clearly there is no one answer to this question as the diversity evident in the following chapters reveals Elite research universities often tend to join with others of their kind so that a professor from an elite US institution may well undertake a Japanese sabbatical if at all at the University of Tokyo a UK semester at Oxford or Cambridge or an Australian semester at the University of Sydney or perhaps Melbourne At each they can expect to have at their disposal well stocked libraries replete with requisite books journals and databases many now available electronically as well as highly regarded specialist peers in their research areas with whom they can discuss their work in detail How can this academic lifeworld be compared with that of a member of the South East Asian professoriate for example or many in Latin America and Africa where inadequate wages often necessitate taking on a second job often at a lower quality private institution which however likely offers better remuneration and or perhaps conducting a small business on the side Welch 2003 Tipton Jarvis and Welch 2003 and where the lack of basic infrastructure as well as research training means that teaching and perhaps some administration is perhaps the limit of one's activities The story of differentiation however is not limited to differences between elite institutions in OECD countries and more modest institutions elsewhere

The Cambridge Economic History of Australia Simon Ville, Glenn Withers, 2014-10-08 Australia's economic history is the story of the transformation of an indigenous economy and a small convict settlement into a nation of nearly 23 million people with advanced economic social and political structures It is a history of vast lands with rich exploitable resources of adversity in war and of prosperity and nation building It is also a history of human behaviour and the institutions created to harness and govern human endeavour This account provides a systematic and comprehensive treatment of the nation s economic foundations growth resilience and future in an engaging contemporary narrative It examines key themes such as the centrality of land and its usage the role of migrant human capital the tension between development and the environment and Australia s interaction with the international economy Written by a team of eminent economic historians The Cambridge Economic History of Australia is the definitive study of Australia s economic past and present

Public Procurement and the EU Competition Rules Albert Sánchez Graells, 2015-06-25 Public procurement and competition law are both important fields of EU law and policy intimately intertwined in the creation of the internal market Hitherto their close connection has been noted but not closely examined This work is the most comprehensive attempt to date to explain the many ways in which these fields often considered independent of one another interact and overlap in the creation of the internal market This process of convergence between competition and public procurement law is particularly apparent in the 2014 Directives on public procurement which consolidate the principle of competition in terms very close to those advanced by the author in the first edition This second edition builds upon this approach and continues to ask how competition law principles inform and condition public procurement rules and whether the latter in their revised form are adequate to ensure that competition is not distorted The second edition also deepens the analysis of the market behaviour of the public buyer from a competition perspective Proceeding through a careful assessment of the general rules of competition and public procurement the book constantly tests the efficacy of these rules against a standard of the proper functioning of undistorted competition in the market for public procurement It also traces the increasing relevance of competition considerations in the case law of the Court of Justice of the European Union and sets out criteria and recommendations to continue influencing the development of EU Economic Law

The Cambridge Handbook of Social Sciences in Australia Ian McAllister, Steve Dowrick, Riaz Hassan, 2003-08-07 First published in 2003 The Cambridge Handbook of Social Sciences in Australia is a high quality reference on significant research in Australian social sciences The book is divided into three main sections covering the central areas of the social sciences economics political science and sociology Each section examines the significant research in the field placing it within the context of broader debates about the nature of the social sciences and the ways in which institutional changes have shaped how they are defined taught and researched APAIS 1994: Australian public affairs information service , Economics and Ethics? Peter Groenewegen,2002-11-01 In December 1994 social scientists from the fields of economics philosophy political science and anthropology attended a workshop to discuss the current state of the economics ethics nexus by way of examining both past and contemporary practice The proceedings of this conference presented a wide variety of attitudes and included an examination of economics and ethics from an economist s and a philosopher s perspective in order to assess the contemporary implications of the relationship in the late 19th century against the background of a long utilitarian tradition This is a set of stimulating reflections by practitioners including Chen Liew Ten Bob Coats and Geoffrey Brennan on the tricky associations between economics and ethics Policy Analysis in Australia Brian Head,Kate Crowley,2018-03-01 Policy Analysis in Australia offers a distinctly Australian interpretation of policy scholarship with eighteen chapters strongly reflecting the outstanding contributions of Australian scholars to the field of public policy It provides a coherent overview of the strengths and opportunities for policy analysis in Australia It recognises that government agencies are no longer regarded as the sole source of sound policy analysis and takes a broad view of policy analysis capacity both within institutions at all levels of government and beyond government in the media political parties business and non government associations It provides a valuable contribution to Australian scholarship about policy analysis in academic professional teaching and learning contexts and is a key addition to research and teaching in comparative policy analysis and policy studies more generally Health Policy in the Market State Linda Hancock,2020-07-16 At a time of increasing demands on budgets governments around the world are seeking to reduce health expenditure and introduce market oriented reforms to the health sector This is leading to profound shifts in the relationship between the state and the individual as policy makers dismantle the welfare state and move towards a user pays sytem Health Policy in the Market State offers an overview of health policy in Australia locating it within the broader context of power and interests analysis and shifts in government policy and public sector restructuring It outlines the key issues in current health policy and assesses the strengths and weaknesses of specific policies and programs Contributors include Ian Anderson and Maggie Brady Mary Draper Stephen Duckett Liz Eckerman Sophie Hill Sharon Moore Michael Muetzelfeldt Janine Smith and Beth Wilson Health Policy in the Market State is a valuable overview for students as well as a comprehensive reference for health professionals and policy makers The Shape of Social Inequality David Bills,2005-08-24 This volume brings together former students colleagues and others influenced by the sociological scholarship of Archibald O Haller to celebrate Haller s many contributions to theory and research on social stratification and mobility All of the chapters respond to Haller s programmatic agenda for stratification research A full program aimed at understanding stratification requires first that we know what stratification structures consist of and how they may vary second that we identify the individual and collective consequences of the different states and rates of change of such structures and third seeing that some degree of stratification seems to be present everywhere that we identify the factors that make stratification structures change The contributors to this Festschrift address such topics as the changing nature of stratification regimes the enduring significance of class analysis the stratifying dimensions of race ethnicity and gender and the interplay between educational systems and labor market outcomes Many of the chapters adopt an explicitly cross societal comparative perspective on processes and consequences of social stratification The volume offers both conceptually and empirically important new analyses of the shape of social stratification

Battlers and Billionaires Andrew Leigh, 2024-10-08 Is Australia fair enough And why does inequality matter anyway In Battlers and Billionaires Andrew Leigh weaves together vivid anecdotes interesting history and powerful statistics to tell the story of inequality in this country This is economics writing at its best From egalitarian beginnings Australian inequality rose through the nineteenth century Then we became more equal again with inequality falling markedly from the 1920s to the 1970s Now inequality is returning to the heights of the 1920s Leigh shows that while inequality can fuel growth it also poses dangers to society Too much inequality risks cleaving us into two Australias occupying fundamentally separate worlds with little contact between the haves and the have nots And the further apart the rungs on the ladder of opportunity the harder it is for a kid born into poverty to enter the middle class Battlers and Billionaires sheds fresh light on what makes Australia distinctive and what it means to have and keep a fair go

The Experience of Middle Australia Michael Pusey, 2003-03-27 Examines middle Australia and how it is coping with the changes of economic reform

Economic Rationalism Stephen King, Peter John Lloyd, 1993 With contributions from economists in mainstream academic public and private sectors this book provides a debate on the title subject The author advocates a defence of policies which favour market deregulation and increase resource movements in the economy but still provide a role for the government in managing the economy protecting the environment and ensuring fair competition
