Dick, 2021-08-24 On October 30 1947 the House Committee on Un American Activities concluded the first round of hearings on the alleged Communist infiltration of the motion picture industry Hollywood was ordered to clean its own house and ten witnesses who had refused to answer questions about their membership in the Screen Writers Guild and the Communist party eventually received contempt citations By 1950 the Hollywood Ten as they quickly became known which included writers directors and a producer were serving prison sentences ranging from six months to one year Since that time the members of the Hollywood Ten have been either dismissed as industry hacks or eulogized as Cold War martyrs but never have they been discussed in terms of their professions Radical Innocence A Critical Study of the Hollywood Ten is the first study to focus on the work of the Ten their short stories plays novels criticisms poems memoirs and of course their films Drawing on myriad sources including archival materials unpublished manuscripts black market scripts screenplay drafts letters and personal interviews Bernard F Dick describes the Ten's survival tactics during the blacklisting and analyzes the contributions of these ten individuals not only to film but also to the arts Radical Innocence captures the personality of each of the Ten including the arrogant Herbert J Biberman the witty Ring Lardner Jr the patriarchal Samuel Ornitz the compassionate Adrian Scott and the feisty Dalton Trumbo Strategy and Tactics of World Communism United States. and Other Internal Security Laws,1955 The Hollywood Motion Picture Blacklist Larry Ceplair,2022-09-06 Seventy five years ago the Hollywood blacklist ruined lives stifled creativity and sent waves of proscription and censorship throughout United States culture When the Hollywood Ten refused to answer the questions of the House Committee on Un American Activities about their membership in the Communist Party they were sentenced to prison the five who were under contract were fired by their studios and all were blacklisted from reemployment until they purged themselves of their communist taint By the 1950s this blacklist publicly stigmatized nearly three hundred other Americans in the entertainment industry who invoked the First and Fifth Amendments in their refusal to apologize for their Communist ties or provide the names of other members Dozens of others were graylisted as the result of rumors The Hollywood Motion Picture Blacklist Seventy Five Years Later offers new insights on the origins of the blacklist the characteristics of those blacklisted and the probability of future proscriptions of the blacklist type Author Larry Ceplair draws on previously published work while introducing new material to vigorously recount the events that took place between the US government Hollywood unions and motion picture studios Ceplair thoroughly examines the role of Jewish identity in many anti communist efforts a concept that has never been fully examined by scholars and analyzes the actions of subpoenaed witnesses who were forced to choose between cooperating with the House Committee or joining the blacklist This fascinating book is an illuminating examination of a dark period in American history and the fragility of our rights to free speech and due process Existential Liberalism and the Republic of Canada Master R. Nelson Haas,2011-11-15 When he left graduate school R Nelson Haas dreamed of changing political theory and Canadian politics for the better However this dream was cut short by his mysterious and untimely death At the time Haas was putting the finishing touches on his now infamous manifesto of moderation Existential Liberalism and the Republic of Canada His death robbed the world of a true political hero and prevented the official release of his book leaving only a few bootleg editions of Existential Liberalism to circulate through the literary black market Now for the first time in recorded history the complete unaltered unabridged definitive edition of Haass magnum opus is available to fans and foes alike Translated by Edward Coke and featuring a fully researched introduction and afterword by the esteemed British editor Robert Von Stricker Beresford PhD FRS OBI this new edition of Existential Liberalism and the Republic of Canada offers an in depth critique and reappraisal of liberal theory along with a new model for the Canadian constitution This edition also sheds new light on what really happened to Haas on that fateful night in Hamilton in 2010 including addressing the rumors of the involvement of the Existential Serial Killer Hearings United States. Congress Senate,1955 The Memory of All That Katharine Weber,2011-07-19 The Memory of All That is Katharine Weber s memoir of her extraordinary family Her maternal grandmother Kay Swift was known both for her own music she was the first woman to compose the score to a hit Broadway show Fine and Dandy and for her ten year romance with George Gershwin Their love affair began during Swift s marriage to James Paul Warburg the multitalented banker and economist who advised and feuded with FDR Weber creates an intriguing and intimate group portrait of the renowned Warburg family from her great great uncle the eccentric art historian Aby Warburg whose madness inspired modern theories of iconography to her great grandfather Paul M Warburg the architect of the Federal Reserve System whose unheeded warnings about the stock market crash of 1929 made him the Cassandra of Wall Street Her mother Andrea Swift Warburg married Sidney Kaufman but their unlikely union Weber believes was a direct consequence of George Gershwin's looming presence in the Warburg family A notorious womanizer Weber's father was a peripatetic filmmaker who made propaganda and training films for the OSS during World War II before producing the first movie with smells the regrettable flop that was AromaRama He was as much an enigma to his daughter as he was to the FBI which had him under surveillance for more than forty years and even noted Katharine's birth in a memo to J Edgar Hoover Colorful evocative insightful and very funny The Memory of All That is an enthralling look at a tremendously influential and highly eccentric family as well as a consideration of how their stories with their myriad layers of truth and fiction have both provoked and influenced one of our most prodigiously gifted writers

Speaking Truths with Film Bill Nichols, 2016-04-05 What issues of both form and content shape the documentary film What role does visual evidence play in relation to a documentary's arguments about the world in which we live Can a documentary be believed and why or why not How do documentaries abide by or subvert ethical expectations Are mockumentaries a form of subversion In what ways can the documentary be an aesthetic experience and at the same time have political or social impact And how can such impacts be empirically measured Pioneering film scholar Bill Nichols investigates the ways in which documentaries strive for accuracy and truthfulness but simultaneously fabricate a form that shapes reality Such films may rely on re-enactment to re-create the past storytelling to provide satisfying narratives and rhetorical figures such as metaphor and expressive forms such as irony to make a point In many ways documentaries are a fiction unlike any other With clarity and passion Nichols offers close readings of several provocative documentaries including Land without Bread Restrepo The Thin Blue Line The Act of Killing and Steve Jobs The Man in the Machine as part of an authoritative examination of the layered approaches and delicate ethical balance demanded of documentary filmmakers Provided by publisher
