Spirit in the Dark Josef Sorett, 2016-08-01 Most of the major black literary and cultural movements of the twentieth century have been understood and interpreted as secular secularizing and at times profane In this book Josef Sorett demonstrates that religion was actually a formidable force within these movements animating and organizing African American literary visions throughout the years between the New Negro Renaissance of the 1920s and the Black Arts movement of the 1960s Sorett unveils the contours of a literary history that remained preoccupied with religion even as it was typically understood by authors readers and critics alike to be modern and therefore secular Spirit in the Dark offers an account of the ways in which religion especially Afro Protestantism remained pivotal to the ideas and aspirations of African American literature across much of the twentieth century From the dawn of the New Negro Renaissance until the ascendance of the Black Arts movement black writers developed a spiritual grammar for discussing race and art by drawing on terms such as church and spirit that were part of the landscape and lexicon of American religious history Sorett demonstrates that religion and spirituality have been key categories for identifying and interpreting what was or was not perceived to constitute or contribute to black literature and culture By examining figures and movements that have typically been cast as secular he offers theoretical insights that trouble the boundaries of what counts as sacred in scholarship on African American religion and culture Ultimately Spirit in the Dark reveals religion to be an essential ingredient albeit one that was always questioned and contested in the forging of an African American literary tradition

Re-Membering and Surviving Shirley A. James Hanshaw, 2020-10-01 The first book length critical study of the black experience in the Vietnam War and its aftermath this text interrogates the meaning of heroism based on models from African and African American expressive culture It focuses on four novels Captain Blackman 1972 by John A Williams Tragic Magic 1978 by Wesley Brown Coming Home 1971 by George Davis and De Mojo Blues 1985 by A R Flowers Discussions of the novels are framed within the historical context of all wars prior to Vietnam in which Black Americans fought The success or failure of the hero on his identity quest is predicated upon the extent to which he can reconnect with African or African American cultural memory He is engaged therefore in re membering a term laden with the specificity of race that implies a cultural history comprised of African retentions and an interdependent relationship with the community for survival The reader will find that a common history of racism and exploitation that African Americans and Vietnamese share sometimes results in the hero s empathy with and compassion for the so called enemy a unique contribution of the black novelist to American war literature

To Stand on the Rock Joseph A. Brown SJ,2011-08-01 If I could I surely would stand on the rock where Moses stood from the Spiritual Elijah Rock Taking its theme from the pastoral letter of the Black Catholic bishops of the United States which spoke of the challenge of being authentically Black and truly Catholic To Stand on the Rock invites us to linger awhile in the garden of our imagination and try to see with the eyes of faith and art how the old ones took a twisted version of Christianity and re twisted it into a culture of liberation transcendence creativity and wholeness Father Brown begins by recalling the religion and identity of those Africans who were brought to these shores in bondage the original source in the quest for what it means to be authentically Black He then explores the style of Christianity they forged through the sufferings of slavery which found expression in the Spirituals Brown then reflects on the struggle of Black Catholics to claim their own style of faith and spirituality and to assert their distinctive gifts to the church universal General Music Today Yearbook ,2005
