Poetry and Revelation Kevin Hart,2017-04-20 Religious poetry has often been regarded as minor poetry and dismissed in large part because poetry is taken to require direct experience whereas religious poetry is taken to be based on faith that is on second or third hand experience The best methods of thinking about experience are given to us by phenomenology Poetry and Revelation is the first study of religious poetry through a phenomenological lens one that works with the distinction between manifestation in which everything is made manifest and revelation in which the mystery is re veiled as well as revealed Providing a phenomenological investigation of a wide range of religious poems some medieval some modern some written in English others written in European languages some from America some from Britain and some from Australia Kevin Hart provides a unique new way of thinking about religious poetry and the nature of revelation itself Christian and Lyric Tradition in Victorian Women's Poetry F. Elizabeth Gray,2009-09-10 In this study Gray examines the broadly neglected body of Victorian women s religious verse showing how women of the period used an array of inventive literary strategies to construct and wield provocative forms of authority Their deployment of biblical source trope and genre transfigured

Christian and lyric traditions Post-Soviet Migration and Diasporas Milana V. Nikolko,David Carment,2017-02-20 This book examines the relationship between post Soviet societies in transition and the increasingly important role of their diaspora It analyses processes of identity transformation in post Soviet space and beyond using macro and micro level perspectives and interdisciplinary approaches combining field based and ethnographic research The authors demonstrate that post Soviet diaspora are just at the beginning of the process of identity formation and formalization They do this by examining the challenges encounters and practices of Ukrainians and Russians living abroad in Western and Southern Europe Canada and Turkey as well as those of migrants expellees and returnees living in the conflict zones of Azerbaijan Georgia and Moldova Key questions on how diaspora can be better engaged to support development foreign policy and economic policies in post Soviet societies are both raised and answered Russia s transformative and important role in shaping post Soviet diaspora interests and engagement is also considered This edited collection will appeal to students and scholars of diaspora post Soviet politics and migration and economic and political development Inter-Christian

Beyond Sounds and Words / Poza dźwięki i słowa Anna Niżegorodcew, Maria Jodłowiec, The present volume is a token of gratitude for our colleague Janina Aniela Ozga, a senior lecturer at the Institute of English Philology of the Jagiellonian University. The book is a collection of papers on a wide spectrum of topics ranging from Hamlet to Zoolander, which reflect diverse academic interests of the authors: literary theory, linguistics, translation studies, philosophy of language, history, and language teaching. The common thread running through all the papers is the desire of the authors, all of them humanists involved in academic pursuits, to place in a theoretical perspective of their discipline and shed new light on an interesting research problem in literature, art, language use, or language teaching that they have identified.

Words and The Word Stephen Prickett, 1986. First published in 1986, Stephen Prickett's Words and The Word has had a major impact among scholars of literature and literary theory, as well as among theologians and biblical critics. In this highly acclaimed book, Prickett pursues the question of the relationship between religion and poetics, and in particular, the nature of religious
