Civilization & Violence Imbesat Daudi MD, PhD, FACS, 2014-03-05 Is Islamic civilization violent Many in the West believe that Islam and Muslims are indeed violent In the Muslim world this question itself implies Western prejudice The answer can only be achieved by comparing various parameters of the violence of civilizations In this book violent conflicts of various civilizations of the last two centuries have been quantified compared and analyzed through well established scientific principles and presented in layman's terms After Savagery Hamid Dabashi, 2025-09-30 Written during a genocide After Savagery reveals the ethical bankruptcy of Western philosophy and how it undergirds the erasure of the colonized The death toll in Gaza continues to rise a cold lifeless number representing entire communities crushed under the weight of settler colonialism What remains of the theories we use to understand our world With lyrical and lucid fury Hamid Dabashi exposes the racist roots of Western philosophy demanding that readers overcome its pernicious phantom of relevance Rather than perceiving the West as giving carte blanche to Israel Dabashi insists that Israel must be understood as its quintessence If Israel is the West and the West is Israel then Palestine is the world and the world is Palestine Holding to glimmers from revolutionary works of literature and film Dabashi argues in grief and love that the wretched of the earth need poetry after barbarism and that Palestine is the site of a liberated imagination

Seyla Benhabib,2010-10-25 This outstanding collection of essays explores Hannah Arendt s thought against the background of recent world political events unfolding since September 11 2001 and engages in a contentious dialogue with one of the greatest political thinkers of the past century with the conviction that she remains one of our contemporaries Themes such as moral and political equality action judgment and freedom are re evaluated with fresh insights by a group of thinkers who are themselves well known for their original contributions to political thought Other essays focus on novel and little discussed themes in the literature by highlighting Arendt s views of sovereignty international law and genocide nuclear weapons and revolutions imperialism and Eurocentrism and her contrasting images of Europe and America Each essay displays not only superb Arendt scholarship but also stylistic flair and analytical tenacity Speaking through the Mask Norma Claire

Moruzzi,2018-09-05 Hannah Arendt was famously resistant to both psychoanalysis and feminism Nonetheless psychoanalytic feminist theory can offer a new interpretive strategy for deconstructing her equally famous opposition between the social and the political Supplementing critical readings of Arendt s most significant texts including The Human Condition On Revolution Rahel Varnhagen The Origins of Totalitarianism Eichmann in Jerusalem and The Life of the Mind with the insights of contemporary psychoanalytic feminist and social theorists Norma Claire Moruzzi reconstitutes the relationship in Arendt s texts between constructed social identity and political agency Moruzzi uses Julia Kristeva's writings on abjection to clarify the textual dynamic in Arendt's work that constructs the social as a natural threat Joan Riviere's and Mary Ann Doane's work on feminine masquerade amplify the theoretical possibilities implicit in Arendt's own discussion of the public political mask In a bold interdisciplinary synthesis Moruzzi develops the social applications of a concept the mask Arendt had described as limited to the strictly political realm a new conception of political agency as social masquerade traced through the marginal but emblematic textual figures who themselves enact the politics of social identity War And Peace In The 20th Century And Beyond, The Nobel Centennial Symposium Geir Lundestad, Olav Njolstad, 2003-03-21 At the turn of the 21st Century the world was immediately gripped by the War on Terrorism followed by the Iraq War In reflection the 20th Century was a period marked by tremendous technological and economic progress but it was also the most violent century in human history It witnessed two horrendous world wars as well as the conflicts during the Cold War Why do wars persistently erupt among nations particularly the Great Powers What are the primary factors that drive nations to violence power prestige ideology or territory Or is it motivated by pure fear and mistrust Peering nervously at the 21st Century we wonder whether American supremacy and globalization will help ensure peace and stability Or will shifts in power with the emergence of new economic super nations lead to further tensions and conflicts in this century Together with 29 Peace Nobel laureates an outstanding group of scholars gathered in Oslo Norway on December 6 2001 for the three day Nobel Centennial Symposium to discuss The Conflicts of the 20th Century and the Solutions for the 21st Century Read this book for the scholars candid insights and analyses as well as their thought provoking views on the factors that led to conflicts in the 20th Century and whether the 21st Century will be a more peaceful one This is a rare and possibly the best and only book compilation of the highly intellectual analyses by world experts and Nobel Peace laureates on the perennial issues of War Peace Africa's

Transition from Colonisation to Independence and Decolonisation: Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness, Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart, and Moses Isegawa's Abyssinian Chronicles Ulrich Pallua, 2004-03-08 The concept of Africaness visualises Africa from three different points of view and at three different stages of history With reference to Africa's political background from the 19th to the 20th century Joseph Conrad the coloniser Chinua Achebe the colonised and Moses Isegawa the decolonised tell the story of the black continent and its development from colonisation to independence This development epitomises the heart of darkness whose laws and characteristics have changed throughout the centuries

Humanity's Ruins Danielle Bouchard, 2025-07-11 Danielle Bouchard examines how genocidal aspirations animate contemporary Western humanitarian projects and discourses showing that humanitarianism perpetuates fundamentally racist conceptualizations of what it means to be human Brute Reality Stuart Price, 2010-01-11 Brute Reality provides an authoritative analysis of those formal attempts made by prominent social actors to present a rationale for the existence and exercise of coercive power The War on Terror and its associated campaigns are presented as an aggressive attempt to assert the contradictory interests of a trans national elite The period chosen to illustrate the key characteristics of this enterprise extends from the state of war created after the September 11th attacks to the strategic adjustments begun during the nadir of the Iraq adventure it also includes reference to the modifications in policy carried out under the auspices of the Obama Presidency The book provides a critical insight into a number of influential structures that have helped to shape contemporary attitudes to warfare and contains a wealth of transcripts and media sources from Channel Four's coverage of September 11th to the rhetorical pronouncements of leading politicians Brute Reality represents a significant addition to the existing literature on representations of the War on Terror in the mass media and will have a strong appeal to keen students of media communication cultural and American studies Hidden Enemies of Democracy George E. Monroe, 2019-08-27 After a startling discovery during a visit to the site of the Nazi Trials in Nuremberg Germany George Monroe spent six years researching and writing about his emerging discoveries revealing that hidden enemies are hard at work on a stealthy plan to kill democracy and replace it with a free market scheme under the exclusive control of a few power hungry monopolists

Ten Lessons in Theory Calvin Thomas, 2023-07-27 A thoroughly updated edition of the witty and engaging exploration of the history application and tenets of literary theory The first edition of Ten Lessons served as a literary introduction to theoretical writing a strong set of pedagogical prose poems unpacking Lacanian psychoanalysis continental philosophy Marxism cultural studies feminism gender studies and queer theory Here Calvin Thomas returns to these ten lessons each based on an axiomatic sentence selected from the canons of theory each exploring the basic assumptions and motivations of theoretical writing But while every lesson explains the working terms and core tenets of theory each also attempts to exemplify theory as a liberatory practice bell hooks to liberate theory as a practice of creativity Foucault in and of itself The revised updated and expanded second edition featuring 25% new material still argues for theoretical writing as a genre of creative writing a way of engaging in the art of the sentence the art of making sentences that make trouble that desire to make radical changes in very fabrication of social reality Features Critical keywords bolded for easy reference Expanded footnotes with detailed discussion of key concepts Anti racist overhaul of each lesson in the wake of Trumpism Black Lives Matter and MeToo Urgent emphasis on Afropessimism critical race theory and other developments in postcolonial Black cultural production Designed to cross reference with Adventures in Theory A Compact Anthology edited by Calvin Thomas The Bloomsbury Handbook of Literary and Cultural Theory edited by Jeffrey R Di Leo The Bloomsbury Handbook to 21st Century Feminist Theory edited by Robin Truth Goodman The Massacre in History Mark Levene, Penny Roberts, 1999 The role of massacre in history has been given little focused attention either by historians or academics in related fields This is surprising as its prevalence and persistence surely demands that it should be a subject of serious and systematic exploration What exactly is a massacre When and why does it happen Is there a cultural as well as political framework within which it occurs How do human societies respond to it What are its social and economic repercussions Are massacres catalysts for change or are they part of the continuity of the human saga These are just some of the questions the authors address in this important volume Chronologically and geographically broad in scope The Massacre in History provides in depth analysis of particular massacres and themes associated with them from the 11th century to the present Specific attention is paid to 15th century Christian Jewish relations in Spain the St Batholemew s Day massacre England and Ireland in the civil war era the 19th century Caucasus the rape of Nanking in 1937 and the Second World War origins of the Serb Croat conflict The book explores the subject of massacre from a variety of perspectives its relationship to politics culture religion and society its connection to ethnic cleansing and genocide and its role in gender terms and in relation to the extermination of animals The historians provide evidence to suggest that the massacre is often central to the course of human development and societal change

The Cultural Complex Thomas Singer, Samuel L. Kimbles, 2004-07-31 Based on Jung s theory of complexes this book offers a new perspective on conflicts between groups and cultures demonstrating how the effects of cultural complexes can be felt in the behaviour of disenfranchised groups across the world
