Extraordinary Faith For Ordinary Time Sermons For Pentecost Last Third Gospel:

Extraordinary Faith for Ordinary Time Larry R. Kalajainen, 1994 For those who grumble at grace never experience it Those who risk accepting it discover that their lives are changed forever Salvation came to Zacchaeus because he was willing to go out on a limb to see Jesus Salvation comes to us when we are willing to go out on a limb and risk becoming all that we can be through the grace of that same Jesus Christ from the Proper 26 sermon Larry R Kalajainen writes that we are ordinary people and ordinary time is a gift to us It offers us opportunity to practice living by the grace notes of the gospel seasons It is time filled not with meaning assigned to it by the gospel events but with the meanings that we give to it as we live in time as Christ s disciples The author adds that God has invested time with meaning and we celebrate that meaning in the gospel seasons But we also have an investment to make in time Ordinary time is our time It is ours to fill with meaning with purpose with faithful discipleship and love The twelve sermons in this book are based on gospel texts primarily from Luke Sermons follow the Revised Common Episcopal Lutheran and Roman Catholic lectionaries Larry R Kalajainen New Brunswick New Jersey is a United Methodist pastor in the Southern New Jersey Annual Conference He holds a doctorate in Biblical Studies from Drew University He and his wife Carol and their two daughters spent six years as missionaries
