multifaceted analysis of the Sámi society and its histories and people offering valuable insights into how they live and see the world. The chapters examine a variety of social and cultural practices and consideration is given to environmental, legal and political conditions and power relations. The contributions by a range of experts of Sámi studies and Indigenous scholars are drawn from across the Sápmi region which spans from central Norway and central Sweden across Finnish Lapland to the Kola Peninsula in Russia. Sámi perspectives, concepts and ways of knowing are foregrounded throughout the volume. The material connects with wider discussions within Indigenous studies and engages with current concerns relating to globalization, environmental and cultural change, Arctic politics, multiculturalism, postcolonialism and neoliberalism. The Sámi World will be of interest to scholars from a number of disciplines including Indigenous studies, anthropology, sociology, geography, history and political science.

Life Stories of Women Artists, 1550-1800 Julia K. Dabbs, 2020-08-18. The struggles and achievements of forty-six notable women artists of the early modern period as documented by their contemporaries are uniquely brought together in this anthology. The life stories presented here are foundational texts for the history of art but since most are found only in rare volumes and few have been translated into English until now they have been generally inaccessible to many scholars. Originally published in biographical compendia such as Vasari's Lives of the Artists, the writings included here document not only the lives of relatively well-known women artists such as Artemisia Gentileschi and Sofonisba Anguissola but also those who have languished in obscurity like Anna Waser and Li Yin. Each life story is preceded by a brief introduction to the artist as well as to her biographer and the texts themselves are annotated to provide necessary clarification. Beyond their documentary value, these stories provide fascinating insight as to how men commonly characterized women artists as exceptions to their sex and attempted to explain their presence in the male-dominated realm of art. The introductory chapter to the book explores this intriguing gender dynamic and elucidates some of the strategies and historical context that factored into the composition of these lives. The volume includes an appended index to women artists' life stories in biographical compendia of the period.

Daily Life of Women Colleen Boyett, H. Micheal Tarver, Mildred Diane Gleason, 2020-12-07. Indispensable for the student or researcher studying women's history, this book draws upon a wide array of cultural settings and time periods in which women displayed agency by carrying out their daily economic, familial, artistic and religious obligations. Since record keeping began, history has been written by a relatively few elite men. Insights into women's history are left to be gleaned by scholars who undertake careful readings of ancient literature, examine archaeological artifacts and study popular culture such as folktales, musical traditions and art. For some historical periods and geographic regions, this is the only way to develop some sense of what daily life might have been like for women in a particular time and place. This reference explores the daily life of women across civilizations. The work is organized in sections on different civilizations from around the world arranged chronologically. Within each society, the encyclopedia highlights the roles of women within five broad thematic categories: the arts, economics and work, family and community life recreation and social customs and religious life Included are numerous sidebars containing additional information document excerpts images and suggestions for further reading Outstanding Women's Monologues Craig Pospisil,Danna Call,2010 Editors Craig Pospisil and Danna Call compiled this new collection of more than fifty monologues selected exclusively from Dramatists Play Service publications from recent seasons Inside these pages you will find an enormous range of voices and subject matter characters from their teens to their sixties and authors of widely varied styles but all immensely talented These monologues represent some of the best writing in the American theatre today and we are proud to bring them together in this new volume Remarkable Women of San Diego Hannah S. Cohen,Gloria G.

Harris,2016-11-21 San Diego enjoys a diverse legacy of formidable female leaders Ellen Browning Scripps financed and established the groundbreaking Scripps Oceanography Institute In 1927 Belle Benchley became the nation s first female zoo director and for nearly thirty years pioneered new forms of exhibition and developed the world class San Diego Zoo Guatemalan activist and advocate Luisa Moreno established the United Fish Cannery Workers Union to protect the rights of workers during World War II Ruth Alexander set new altitude records for light planes at the peak of the city s aviation boom Bertha Pendleton became the first female and first African American San Diego school superintendent in 1993 Authors Hannah Cohen and Gloria Harris document these and many more stories of extraordinary local women Hausa Women in the Twentieth Century Catherine M. Coles,Beverly Mack,1991-10-01 The Hausa are one of the largest ethnic groups in Africa with populations in Nigeria Niger and Ghana Their long history of city states and Islamic caliphates their complex trading economies and their cultural traditions have attracted the attention of historians political economists linguists and anthropologists The large body of scholarship on Hausa society however has assumed the subordination of women to men Hausa Women in the Twentieth Century refutes the notion that Hausa women are pawns in a patriarchal Muslim society The contributors all of whom have done field research in Hausaland explore the ways Hausa women have balanced the demands of Islamic expectations and Western choices as their society moved from a precolonial system through British colonial administration to inclusion in the modern Nigerian nation This volume examines the roles of a wide variety of women from wives and workers to political activists and mythical figures and it emphasizes that women have been educators and spiritual leaders in Hausa society since precolonial times From royalty to slaves and concubines in traditional Hausa cities and in newer towns from the urban poor to the newly educated elite the invisible women whose lives are documented here demonstrate that standard accounts of Hausa society must be revised Scholars of Hausa and neighboring West African societies will find in this collection a wealth of new material and a model of how research on women can be integrated with general accounts of Hausa social religious political and economic life For students and scholars looking at gender and women s roles cross culturally this volume provides an invaluable African perspective
