Eyewitness Protest Stories From Indonesia:

Television, Nation, and Culture in Indonesia Philip Kitley, 2014-07-31 The culture of television in Indonesia began with its establishment in 1962 as a public broadcasting service From that time through the deregulation of television broadcasting in 1990 and the establishment of commercial channels television can be understood Philip Kitley argues as a part of the New Order's national culture project designed to legitimate an idealized Indonesian national cultural identity But Professor Kitley suggests that it also has become a site for the contestation of elements of the New Order's cultural policies Based on his studies he further speculates on the increasingly significant role that television is destined to play as a site of cultural and political struggle

Historical Dictionary of East Timor Geoffrey C. Gunn, 2010-12-18 East Timor also known as Timor Leste comprises the eastern half of the island of Timor located at the eastern end of the Indonesian archipelago East Timor was among the last of colonial territories to become independent and it actually had to be liberated twice First after more than four centuries of Portuguese colonial rule it achieved independence in 1975 only to be invaded and occupied by Indonesia After a blood soaked occupation of 24 years and following intense international pressure the Jakarta regime only grudgingly allowed East Timor to form a nation of its own in 1999 Since then the new state has faced further armed clashes and is only now able to seriously engage in nation building Historical Dictionary of East Timor relates the turbulent history of this country through a chronology an introductory essay an expansive bibliography and over 200 cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons events places organizations and other aspects of East Timor history from the earliest times to the present Crossing Cultures Bruce Bennett, Jeff Doyle, Satendra Pratap Nandan, Loes Baker, 1996 Twenty five essays which show ways in which interactions between individuals and societies in the Asia Pacific have contributed to literary and cultural creativity Introd The Timor Story Helen Hill, 1976 Australian National Bibliography , 1996 Torture and Peacebuilding in Indonesia Budi Hernawan, 2017-10-25 State sponsored torture and peacebuilding encapsulate the essence of many of the current conflicts in Indonesia Papua in particular provides a thought provoking example of the intricacy and complexity of building peace amidst enduring conflict and violence This book examines the complex power relations that have constructed the gruesome picture of the fifty year practice of torture in Papua as well as the ongoing Papuan peacebuilding movements that resist the domineering power of the Indonesian state over Papuans Conceptualising theatres of torture and peace the book argues that torture in Papua is performed in public by the Indonesian state in order to communicate its policy of terror towards Papuans it is not meant for extracting information gaining confessions or exacting punishment A Torture Dataset is provided codifying evidence from a broad range of cases collected through sensitive interviews In examining the data the author crafts a new more holistic framework for analyzing cases of torture and employs an interdisciplinary approach integrating three different theories Foucault s theory of governmentality and sovereignty Kristeva s theory of abjection and Metz s theory of memoria passionis the memory of suffering The book successfully establishes a new understanding of torture as public theatre and offers a new perspective of strengthening the existing Papuan peacebuilding framework of Papua Land of Peace It will be of interest to academics working on Southeast Asian Studies Peace and Conflict Studies Transitional Justice Peacebuilding Human Rights and Anthropology of Violence The Politics of Southeast Asia's New Media William Atkins, 2013-11-19 The past decade has seen a major structural shift in broadcasting in Southeast Asia with the development of digital satellite and cable broadcasting This shift has impacted upon some of the most information sensitive governments in the world Singapore Malaysia and until recently Indonesia Atkins traces this development in five countries showing that the challenge to authoritarian regimes anticipated by modern theorists as a result of the globalization of news and information is not materializing Instead a new commercial elite has arisen Southeast Asia s own mini moguls who act as gatekeepers for state interests as partners to global media companies Dynamics of Dissent in Indonesia David Bourchier, 2010 In June 1978 a forty five year old Indonesian named Sawito Kartowibowo was pronounced guilty of subversion He was charged with having composed a number of inflammatory documents criticizing the government s failings and requesting that Suharto stand down as President These documents would have been quite insignificant if those who had endorsed them had not been so well known Their signatories included former Vice President Mohammad Hatta and four very prominent and well respected religious leaders the head of the Catholic Church in Indonesia Cardinal Darmoyuwono the Moslem publicist and writer Hamka H Abdulmalik Karim Amrullah leading mystic and founder of the Indonesian Police Said Sukanto Tjokrodiatmojo and retired General T B Simatupang a Protestant leader and former Armed Forces Chief of Staff As it was the controversy over the documents became a national issue and the Sawito affair is one of the enigmas of recent Indonesian history Puzzles abounded from the afternoon in September 1976 when the government dramatically announced the discovery of a plot to topple the President and a number of subsequent arrests Had a coup been planned Who was behind it And who on earth was Sawito the man the government declared had tricked Hatta and his fellow signatories into the dark conspiracy Much of the public interest in Sawito in the months following the announcement derived from the publicization of a diary written by a former Indonesian diplomat describing a series of spiritual pilgrimages undertaken by Sawito in the early 1970s According to the diary Sawito had meditated on a sacred Javanese mountain top and there received supernatural signs that he was destined to rule Indonesia Subsequently in a solemn and archaic ritual involving symbols of the fifteenth century Majapahit Kingdom Sawito had been invested as Ratu Adil the messianic Just King The press and later the courts drew the conclusion that Sawito convinced of his regal destiny had then embarked on a mission to replace Suharto as President In order to achieve this so the story went he had drafted a number of subversive documents and with guile and deceit obtained the signatures of several gullible dignitaries One newspaper ran a cartoon of a demented looking Sawito praying before a row of Javanese daggers keris and a fuming incense pot dreaming of the presidential throne The tiny figure running towards him and brandishing a piece of paper calls to Sawito It s not the age for that sort of thing any more mas The general impression was thus created that the affair was essentially a product of Sawito s mystically inspired claim to power This became the accepted perception of the Sawito affair both for a large majority of Indonesians and in a number of Western academic treatments of the subject A classic historical pattern of political challenge seemed to be repeating itself and parallels were drawn between the Sawito challenge and messianic Ratu Adil movements of Java s past Analysts also invoked Javanese cultural tradition in an attempt to come to terms with the government s remarkably severe response to the affair Some sought to explain the danger Sawito posed to Suharto by referring to traditional conceptions of the linkage between earthly and supernatural authority still exercising an influence in Indonesian society As some readers will be unfamiliar with the cultural historical frame of reference alluded to here and elsewhere in this study it is necessary briefly to identify a few key elements of the Javanese cosmology

Contemporary Authoritarianism in Southeast Asia William Case, 2013-09-27 Over the past two decades book length analyses of politics in Southeast Asia like those addressing other parts of the developing world have focused closely on democratic change election events and institution building But recently democracy's fortunes have ebbed in the region In the Philippines the progenitor of people power democracy has been diminished by electoral cheating and gross human rights violations In Thailand though the former Prime Minister Thaksin Shinawatra scored successive electoral victories he so committed executive abuses that he served up the pretext by which royalist elements in the military might mount a coup one that even gained favour with the new middle class And in Indonesia lauded today as the region's only democracy still standing the government's writ over the security forces has remained weak with military commanders nestling in unaccountable domains there to conduct their shadowy business dealings Elsewhere dominant single parties persist in Malaysia Singapore Vietnam Cambodia and Laos while a military junta perpetuates its brutal control over Burma This volume the first to bring together a series of country cases and comparative narratives about the recent revival of authoritarian rule in Southeast Asia identifies the structural and voluntarist dynamics that underlie this trend and the institutional patterns that are taking shape This book was published as a special issue of The Pacific Review
