in more than 125 lush color and black and white photographs I love that town No clocks No locks No restrictions Marlene Dietrich The playground in the desert built by the mob and transformed by Howard Hughes the fabulous extraordinary madhouse that is Las Vegas Nevada has long been regarded as the Entertainment Capital of the World During the post war boom years no place was as fascinating as Vegas Distinguished by millions of colorful neon lights the sounds of rumba music and the clink of silver dollars Vegas was a recreational colony for Hollywood s most glamorous and a dream destination for thousands of ordinary Americans Vegas Gold vividly showcases the glitz glamour and charm of Sin City s golden years from the 1950s to the 1980s An adoring ode to this ultimate adult playground it celebrates the best of old Las Vegas the Sands Hotel the Stardust Fremont Street the Golden Nugget the Riviera Hotel the Desert Inn and the Horseshoe and its legendary headliners including Frank Sinatra Marlene Dietrich Elvis Presley Liberace Ann Margret Sammy Davis Jr Eartha Kitt Noel Coward and of course the gorgeous Vegas showgirls Framed by quotes and short essays that profile the marquee names that made Las Vegas the ultimate destination the legendary years of this magical city live on in all their glory in Vegas Gold Becoming America's Playground Larry D. Gragg,2019-08-29 In 1950 Las Vegas saw a million tourists In 1960 it attracted ten million The city entered the fifties as a regional destination where prosperous postwar Americans could enjoy vices largely forbidden elsewhere and it emerged in the sixties as a national hotspot the glitzy resort city that lights up the American West today Becoming America s Playground chronicles the vice and the toil that gave Las Vegas its worldwide reputation in those transformative years Las Vegas s rise was no happy accident After World War II vacationing Americans traveled the country in record numbers making tourism a top industry in such states as California and Florida The Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce saw its chance and developed a plan to capitalize on the town s burgeoning reputation for leisure Las Vegas pinned its hopes for the future on Americans need for escape Transforming a vice city financed largely by the mob into a family vacation spot was not easy Hotel and casino publicists closely monitored media representations of the city and took every opportunity to stage images of good clean fun for the public posing even the atomic bomb tests conducted just miles away as an attraction The racism and sexism common in the rest of the nation in the era prevailed in Las Vegas too The wild success of Frank Sinatra s Rat Pack performances at the Sands Hotel in 1960 demonstrated the city s slow progress toward equality Women couldn t work as dealers in Las Vegas until the 1970s yet they found more opportunities for well paying jobs there than many American women could find elsewhere Gragg shows how a place like the Las Vegas Strip with its glitz and vast wealth and its wildly public consumption of vice rose to prominence in the 1950s a decade of Cold War anxiety and civil rights conflict Becoming America s Playground brings this pivotal decade in Las Vegas into sharp focus for the first time

Tales of Old Las Vegas Sam O'Connor, 2009 Las Vegas in 1960 was a gas according to Frank Sinatra Even the visitor knew something deliciously sinister was not only constantly lurking in Las Vegas dark underbelly but some nefarious deed could be taking place at that very moment Tales of Old Las Vegas describes some of the mystery and excitement the town held for visitor and native alike Some of the characters are famous people you may have heard of Others are the little known but colorful people of the streets of Las Vegas who enjoyed the good life in their own way The Las Vegas atmosphere in the 50s and 60s was particularly heady and magical It was the era of the Rat Pack and Ocean s Eleven Dean Martin was dealing 21 at the Sands for fun and driving the pit bosses crazy Frank Sinatra was getting into fist fights with hotel managers and driving his dentist crazy Those were the days when 5 for the show room captain could get you a seat close to the stage for almost any show except Frank and Dean s show A 500 bill couldn t buy a seat at those performances Those who lived in the city were smug in the knowledge that it was an insider s playground a familiar turf that was fun to know and move around in Tales of Old Las Vegas brings us into the lives of the adventurers who lived in that magical era It shows how they were affected by a free rolling city and the violent people who made and enforced the rules Fly on the Wall Dick
