Face Of The Deep A Theology Of Becoming:

The Face of the Deep Catherine Keller, 2003-12-16 This is a groundbreaking highly original work of postmodern feminist theology from one of the most important authors in the field The Face of the Deep deconstructs the Christian doctrine of creation which claims that a transcendent Lord unilaterally created the universe out of nothing Catherine Keller's impassioned graceful meditation develops an alternative representation of the cosmic creative process drawing upon Hebrew myths of creation from chaos and engaging with the political and the mystical the literary and the scientific the sexual and the racial As a landmark work of immense significance for Jewish and Christian theology gender studies literature philosophy and ecology The Face of the Deep takes our originary story to a new horizon rewriting the starting point for Western spiritual discourse

Face of the Deep Catherine Keller, 2002 Annotation This is a groundbreaking highly original work of postmodern feminist theology from one of the most important authors in the field The Face of the Deep deconstructs the Christian doctrine of creation which claims that a transcendent Lord unilaterally created the universe out of nothing Catherine Keller's impassioned graceful meditation develops an alternative representation of the cosmic creative process drawing upon Hebrew myths of creation from chaos and engaging with the political and the mystical the literary and the scientific the sexual and the racial As a landmark work of immense significance for Jewish and Christian theology gender studies literature philosophy and ecology The Face of the Deep takes our originary story to a new horizon rewriting the starting point for Western spiritual discourse

The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien, 2006-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom

Patience—A Theological Exploration Paul Dafydd Jones, 2022-11-17 What does it mean to exercise patience What does it mean to endure to wait and to persevere and on other occasions to reject patience in favor of resistance haste and disruptive action And what might it mean to describe God as patient Might patience play a leading role in a Christian account of God's creative work God's relationship to ancient Israel God's governance of history and God's saving activity The first instalment of Patience: A Theological Exploration engages these questions in searching imaginative and sometimes surprising ways Following reflections on the biblical witness and the nature of constructive theological inquiry its interpretative chapters engage landmark works by a number of ancient medieval modern and contemporary authors disclosing both the promise and peril of talk about patience Patience stands at the center of this innovative account of God's creative work God's relationship with ancient Israel creaturely sin scripture and God's broader providential and salvific purposes Religions in the Making John B. Cobb Jr.,2012-11-06 Whitehead had a place for God in his comprehensive cosmological vision and his theism has long attracted interest from some Christian theologians But Whitehead's ideas have much wider use Some Buddhists have found help in articulating their nontheistic vision and relating it to the current world of thought and action In this book religious writers in seven different traditions articulate how they can benefit from Whitehead's work So this volume demonstrates that various features of his thought can contribute to many communities According to his followers Whitehead shows that the deepest convictions and commitments of the major religious communities can be complementary rather than in conflict Readers of this book will see how that plays out in some detail A Whiteheadian Hindu can recognize the truth in a Whiteheadian Judaism and both can appreciate the insights of Chinese Whiteheadians committed to their classical thinking Perhaps a new day in interreligious understanding has come

A World of Becoming William E. Connolly,2011-01-17 The prominent political theorist William E Connolly outlines a political philosophy for the contemporary world a world whose powers of creative evolution include and exceed the human estate Heart of the Cross Wonhee Anne Joh,2006-01-01 Theologies have often pointed to the cross as a place of suffering and sacrifice while feminist critiques have frequently argued against interpretations of the cross as patriarchal valorizing of suffering Wonhee Anne Joh points toward a new interpretation of the cross as a place of love where God and humanity come together in a surprising way Interpreting the cross as performing a double gesture that has a subversive effect Joh argues that the cross works simultaneously to pay homage to and to menace complex oppressive powers Utilizing the Korean concept of jeong Joh constructs a theology that is feminist political and love centered while acknowledging the cross as source of pain and suffering Joh's innovative vision is a call for political love that is stronger than powers of oppression CCAR Journal: The Reform Jewish Quarterly, Spring 2023 Edwin Goldberg,2023-04-27 This edition of CCAR Journal considers various scholarly issues including a study of Bava M tzia 59b a discussion of Jacob Neusner and Reform Judaism and an analysis of Joseph and Aseneth's marriage Another article addresses equity riders in rabbinic employment contracts The issue also contains new book reviews and poems Published by CCAR Press a division of the Central Conference of American Rabbis Evangelism and the Openness of God Vaughn W. Baker,2012-12-18 Argues that a dynamic concept of God as articulated in open theism better serves the evangelistic mission of the church than does conventional theology Back The Negro's Church Benjamin E. Mays,2015-08-04 Benjamin E Mays 1894 1984 was President and Professor Emeritus of Morehouse College Liturgy as a Way of Life (The Church and Postmodern Culture) Bruce Ellis Benson,2013-04-15 How do the arts inform and cultivate our service to God In this addition to an award winning series distinguished philosopher

Bruce Ellis Benson rethinks what it means to be artistic Rather than viewing art as practiced by the few he recovers the ancient Christian idea of presenting ourselves to God as works of art reenvisioning art as the very core of our being God calls us to improvise as living works of art Benson also examines the nature of liturgy and connects art and liturgy in a new way This book will appeal to philosophy worship liturgy art music and theology students as well as readers interested in engaging issues of worship and aesthetics in a postmodern context including Christian artists and worship leaders Original Sin and the Evolution of Sexual Difference Megan Loumagne Ulishney, 2022-11-03 Original Sin and the Evolution of Sexual Difference develops an interdisciplinary conversation between evolutionary biology feminist philosophy and theology in order to illuminate the entanglement of Christian thinking about original sin with theologies of sexual difference It then assesses the opportunities for rethinking original sin and its implications for theologies of sexual difference in light of developments in evolutionary biology and feminist theology and philosophy Despite some resistances in the present age to conceptions of both original sin and meaningful sexual differences this study argues that both can provide essential insights that help to make sense of some of the features of human life in the twenty first century especially the stubborn persistence of inequality poverty environmental degradation and the pernicious patterns of sexual violence and abuse that have been uncovered by the MeToo movement To this end Megan Loumagne Ulishney marshals resources from a variety of places Augustine of Hippo feminist theology the Extended Evolutionary Synthesis John Paul II and a new group of feminist philosophers known as the New Feminist Materialists to develop an analysis of original sin and sexual difference that is grounded in both scientific and theological insights about creaturely life The project cultivates a sense of wonder at the diversity and unpredictability of human biology a value for the role of creativity in the human participation that partially shapes our ongoing evolution and humility about the extent to which we can predict and control the future of the evolution of our species It illuminates the interdependencies that define creaturely life the persistent entanglement of nature and culture the centrality of desire to human identity and behaviour and the role played by biology in the transmission of sin It develops a vision of material life as evolving generative and imbued with activity but also as simultaneously infected with sin and saturated with the divine

Dancing with God Karen Baker-Fletcher, 2006-12-01 Dancing With God is an exploration of the divine gifts of courage and grace in the face of evil Moreover it is a doctrine of God as the source of that courage Baker Fletcher presents an understanding of the work of the Trinity with regard to the problem of crucifixion a metaphor she uses for unnecessary violence She develops a process of relational womanist theology that considers the empathetic omnipresence of God in the midst of unnecessary suffering and the healing power of God in movement of the Holy Spirit She engages the contributions of a diversity of theologians like Paul Tillich Karl Barth Gordon Kaufman John Cobb Jr Majorie Suchocki Charles Hartshorne Andrew Sung Park and Katie Cannon in her discussion of the dance of the Trinity in creation and the problem of sin evil and suffering Through creative works like that of Alice Walker s The Color Purple and journalist Joyce King s account of the

James Byrd Jr murder in Jasper County Texas Baker Fletcher reveals the healing encouraging power of the Holy Spirit in the lives of survivors of unnecessary violence

Teaching as a Sacramental Act Mary Elizabeth Moore, 2004-11-01 Moore asserts that Christian vocation and the teaching vocation in particular can be best understood as sacramental mediating the grace of God through ordinary creation for the sanctification of human life and the well being of all creation She develops her argument through three important factors a historical theological analysis of the Christian sacraments and sacramentality a phenomenological study of teaching events and a description of six sacramental movements and corresponding teaching practices informed by Jewish Christian traditions and Eucharistic practices The nine detailed chapters include Searching for the Sacred Sacred Teaching Education as Sacrament Expecting the Unexpected Remembering the Dismembered Seeking Reversals Giving Thanks Nourishing Life Reconstructing Community and Repairing the World and Mapping the Future of Sacramental Teaching Teaching as a Sacramental Act is ideal for students pastors Christian educators spiritual directors and pastoral caregivers who want to rethink and reshape the teaching ministry of the church

Theologies of Creation Thomas Jay Oord, 2014-10-02 Humans have long wondered about the origin of the universe And such questions are especially alive today as physicists offer metaphysical theories to account for the emergence of creation Theists have attributed the universe s origin to divine activity and many have said God created something from absolute nothingness The venerable doctrine of creatio ex nihilo especially emphasizes God s initial creating activity Some contributors to this book explore new reasons creatio ex nihilo should continue to be embraced today But other contributors question the viability of creation from nothing and offer alternative initial creation options in its place These new alternatives explore a variety of options in light of recent scientific work new biblical scholarship and both new and old theological traditions

T&T Clark Handbook of the Doctrine of Creation , 2024-03-07 The T how the doctrine of creation informs and is informed by various dogmatic commitments and how the doctrine of creation relates to a range of human concerns and activities The Handbook represents a celebration of fascination with bewilderment at lament about and hope for all that is and serves as a scholarly innovative and constructive reference for those interested in attending to what Christian belief has to contribute to thinking about and living with the mysterious existence named creation

Ecological Solidarities Krista E. Hughes, Dhawn B. Martin, Elaine Padilla, 2019-10-30 Operating on the premise that our failure to recognize our interconnected relationship to the rest of the cosmos is the origin of planetary peril this volume presents academic activist and artistic perspectives on how to inspire reflection and motivate action in order to construct alternative frameworks and establish novel solidarities for the sake of our planetary home The selections in this volume explore ecologies of interdependence as a frame for religious theological and philosophical analysis and practice Contributors examine questions of justice climate change race class gender and coloniality and discuss alternative ways of engaging the world in all its biodiversity Each essay poem reflection and piece of art contributes to and reflects upon how to live out entangled differences toward positive global change Constructive and practical global and local communal and personal Ecological Solidarities is an innovative contribution to the discourses on relational and liberative thought and practice in religion philosophy and theology It will be welcomed by scholars of World Christianity and theology as well as seminary students activists and laity interested in issues of justice and ecology

Creation ex nihilo Gary A. Anderson, Markus Bockmuehl, 2017-11-15 The phrase creation ex nihilo refers to the primarily Christian notion of God's creation of everything from nothing Creation ex nihilo Origins Development Contemporary Challenges presents the findings of a joint research project at Oxford University and the University of Notre Dame in 2014 2015 The doctrine of creation ex nihilo has met with criticism and revisionary theories in recent years from the worlds of science theology and philosophy This volume concentrates on several key areas the relationship of the doctrine to its purported biblical sources how the doctrine emerged in the first several centuries of the Common Era why the doctrine came under heavy criticism in the modern era how some theologians have responded to the objections and the relationship of the doctrine to claims of modern science for example the fundamental law of physics that matter cannot be created from nothing Although the Bible never expressly states that God made everything from nothing various texts are taken to imply that the universe came into existence by divine command and was not assembled from preexisting matter or energy The contributors to this volume approach this topic from a range of perspectives from exposition to defense of the doctrine itself This is a unique and fascinating work whose aim is to present the reader with a compelling set of arguments for why the doctrine should remain central to the grammar of contemporary Christian theology As such the book will appeal to theologians as well as those interested in the relationship between theology and science Contributors Gary A Anderson Markus Bockmuehl Janet Soskice Richard J Clifford S J Sean M McDonough Gregory E Sterling Khaled Anatolios John C Cavadini Joseph Wawrykow Tzvi Novick Daniel Davies Cyril O Regan Ruth Jackson David Bentley Hart Adam D Hincks S J Andrew Pinsent and Andrew Davison Motherly Rebekah Pryor, 2022-01-31 How can contemporary art reimagine the body of the mother in relation to a feminist Christian conception of the divine And at the level of culture what might be the implications of the maternal body imaged as ordinary multiple generative and divine Following movements in her own visual art practice and traversing the discourses of feminist theory contemporary art and philosophy of religion artist and scholar Rebekah Pryor considers philosopher Luce Irigaray's key notions of sexuate difference the sensible transcendental and love at work in thinking on the way to proposing alternate artistic and theological motifs of the maternal body and the divine for our time Five new motifs emerge challenging iconographic conventions and proposing an expanded vision of the mother and the divine in feminist theology and contemporary art Stormy Weather William E. Connolly, 2024-09-03 Composed as a counter history of western philosophical and political thought Stormy Weather explores the role western cosmologies have played in the conquests of paganism in Europe and the Americas the production of climate wreckage and the concealment of that wreckage from western humanists and earth scientists until late in the day A lived cosmology Connolly says contains embedded understandings about the beginnings of the earth and the way time unfolds The text engages the major western cosmologies of Augustine Descartes Kant Tocqueville together with pagan and minor western orientations that posed challenges to them or could have Hesiod Ovid William Apess Amazonian and Aztec cosmologies Catherine Keller's minor Christianity James Baldwin and Michel Serres instigate key responses often challenging binary logics and the subject object dichotomy with a world of multiple human and nonhuman subjectivities Connolly pursues a conception of time as a multiplicity of intersecting temporalities to come to terms with the vicissitudes of climate destruction and the grandeur of an earth neither highly susceptible to mastery nor designed to harmonize smoothly with humans The book revisits the improbable necessity of a politics of swarming to respond to the ongoing wreckage and potential fascist responses to vast infusions of climate refugees from the south into temperate zone capitalist states Stormy Weather draws on the work of earth scientists indigenous thinkers naturalists humanists and students of nonwestern cosmologies Ultimately Connolly contends that critical intellectuals today must not remain enclosed in disciplinary silos or even in the humanities as currently defined to do justice to our moment of climate wreckage
