Economics in a Changed Universe Gerald L. Houseman, 2008-05-29 A revolution in economics politics and international affairs has been shaped by the new economics of information For the first time we are able to look at our world through a lens illuminated by a much more precise understanding of how economies work and how individuals groups and corporations react to them All of the disciplines of the social sciences are affected by this development but the greatest impact we can expect will be upon public policy making Joseph E Stiglitz and his fellow Nobel Prize winners have demonstrated with the precision and force of logic reason and mathematics that the folklore of what has been regarded as political economy for the past two hundred and thirty years has misled us with ideological and mystical but useless ideas such as free enterprise and the immutability of market givens Houseman describes and demonstrates the new resonance liveliness and optimism which characterize the economics of information calling upon his own experience with Third World issues and problems He also looks at this new but often ignored economics as a challenge to the existing literature of the social sciences and to the practices and assumptions of policy makers interest groups such as environmentalists labor and multinational corporations think tanks international organizations such as the IMF and World Bank and political activists Effectively arguing that the changed universe of economics requires any of us concerned with world affairs to re think and adjust our assumptions Houseman provides us with the necessary insight to apply this new paradigm to real world problems

Air Transport and Regional Development Policies Anne Graham, Nicole Adler, Hans-Martin Niemeier, Ofelia Betancor, António Pais Antunes, Volodymyr Bilotkach, Enrique J. Calderón, Gianmaria Martini, 2020-12-17 Air Transport and Regional Development Policies is one of three interconnected books related to a four year European Cooperation in Science and Technology COST Action established in 2015 The Action called Air Transport and Regional Development ATARD aimed to promote a better understanding of how the air transport related problems of core regions and remote regions should be addressed in order to enhance both economic competitiveness and social cohesion in Europe This book focuses on policy implications related to air transport and regional development It begins with chapters that generally discuss important policy issues related to air transport and regional development in relation to connectivity and accessibility dependency airport governance and regulation and air traffic control frameworks This is followed by a number of chapters that consider government subsidies and state aid The final chapters focus on other policy implications tourism development airport expansion passenger taxation and noise control Currently no other single source publication covers this topic area in such a comprehensive manner insofar as it considers so many policies and examples The book aims at becoming a major reference source on the topic drawing from experienced researchers in the field covering the diverse experience and knowledge of the members of the COST Action The book will appeal to academics practitioners and government bodies who have a particular interest in acquiring detailed comparative knowledge and understanding of the policy implications of air transport and regional development Along with the other two books Air Transport and Regional Development Methodologies and Air Transport and Regional Development Case Studies it fills a much needed gap in the literature Handbook of New Media Leah A Lievrouw, Sonia M. Livingstone, 2006-01-17 Thoroughly revised and updated this Student Edition of the successful Handbook of New Media has been abridged to showcase the best of the hardback edition This Handbook sets out boundaries of new media research and scholarship and provides a definitive statement of the current state of the art of the field Covering major problem areas of research the Handbook of New Media includes an introductory essay by the editors and a concluding essay by Ron Rice Each chapter written by an internationally renowned scholar provides a review of the most significant social research findings and insights Banking On Basel Daniel Tarullo, 2008-11-30 The turmoil in financial markets that resulted from the 2007 subprime mortgage crisis in the United States indicates the need to dramatically transform regulation and supervision of financial institutions Would these institutions have been sounder if the 2004 Revised Framework on International Convergence of Capital Measurement and Capital Standards Basel II accord negotiated between 1999 and 2004 had already been fully implemented Basel II represents a dramatic change in capital regulation of large banks in the countries represented on the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision Its internal ratings based approaches to capital regulation will allow large banks to use their own credit risk models to set minimum capital requirements The Basel Committee itself implicitly acknowledged in spring 2008 that the revised framework would not have been adequate to contain the risks exposed by the subprime crisis and needed strengthening This crisis has highlighted two more basic questions about Basel II One is the method of capital regulation incorporated in the revised framework fundamentally misguided Two even if the basic Basel II approach has promise as a paradigm for domestic regulation is the effort at extensive international harmonization of capital rules and supervisory practice useful and appropriate This book provides the answers It evaluates Basel II as a bank regulatory paradigm and as an international arrangement considers some possible alternatives and recommends significant changes in the arrangement Regulating Older Drivers David S. Loughran, Seth A. Seabury, Laura Zakaras, 2007 Are older drivers posing increasing risk to the public If so what public policies might mitigate that risk Older drivers those 65 and older are slightly likelier than drivers aged 25 to 64 to cause an accident but drivers aged 15 to 24 are nearly three times likelier than older drivers to do so The authors of this paper conclude that stricter licensing policies targeting older drivers would likely not improve traffic safety substantially The U.S. Experience with No-Fault Automobile Insurance James M. Anderson, Paul Heaton, Stephen J. Carroll, 2010-02-15 No fault regimes a formerly popular alternative to the tort compensation system for auto accident victims have gradually lost support Over time premiums and claim costs have grown in no fault states relative to other states primarily driven by explosive medical cost increases No fault and tort states have also converged across many domains affecting costs including excess claiming litigation patterns and noneconomic damage payments
