The Ecumenical Movement Michael Kinnamon, Brian E. Cope, 1996-12-31 Included in this collection of documents from the twentieth century ecumenical movement are passages from texts produced by assemblies conferences and studies of the World Council of Churches and similar bodies covering three areas of historical concern within modern ecumenism faith and order life and work and mission and evangelism The ecumenical movement : [an anthology of key texts and voices

Michael Kinnamon, 2013 The ecumenical movement : an anthology of key texts and voices Michael ; Cope Kinnamon (Brian E.), 1997 Proceedings of IAC-SSaH 2014 Collective of authors, 2014-11-10 International Academic Conference on Social Sciences and Humanities in Prague 2014 IAC SSaH 2014 in Prague The American Church that Might Have Been Keith Watkins, 2014-11-03 During a forty year period ending in 2002 leaders of major American churches tried to unite their members ministries and public service in a new church they named A Church of Christ Uniting Participating in this movement were four Methodist Churches the Episcopal Church the nation s largest Presbyterian Church the United Church of Christ the Christian Church Disciples of Christ and the International Council of Community Churches With a membership of close to twenty million this church would have been spread throughout the nation more fully than any other church except the Roman Catholic Leaders of the movement believed that this union would enable church members to experience their Christian life more fully It would heal divisions that had existed since the Protestant Reformation 450 years earlier and displace the denominational system that was increasingly dysfunctional By coming together in a new way these churches could work more effectively at overcoming problems in American life especially the challenges related to racism Although the Consultation on Church Union COCU closed before converting its vision into a new form of the church it had a significant effect on these churches and the nation This is a story that needs to be remembered Modern Western

Christian Theological Understandings of Muslims Since the Second Vatican Council Mahmut Aydin, 2002

Transforming Renewal Andy Lord, 2015-01-12 Pentecostal and charismatic renewal movements have seen great growth over the last century and have engaged with many Christian traditions Yet there are signs that all is not well and there is a need to develop theologies of renewal that engage with practice and across the traditions if the movements are to continue to grow In particular this book seeks an ecumenical engagement between David Watson and Thomas Merton leaders in the charismatic and monastic renewal movements The aim is to reflect on the theological roots of these renewal movements through a study of particular people who lived them in practice and sought to help others understand how the triune God was at work This is done against the wider background of contemporary renewal theology to develop constructive proposals for renewal theology in the future Receptive ecumenism provides the method for bringing the different voices into conversation in ways that also point forward in approaches to ecumenical dialogue It is thus a study relevant to those seeking new ways in theology those involved in renewal and ecumenical movements students of Thomas Merton and all who seek to better understand the Christian renewal movements that have swept the world      Development Beyond the Secular Catherine Loy,2017-09-30 The intersection of religion and development has for some decades been considered contentious with scholars of both disciplines inhibited by the constraints of either the religious or the secular paradigm they primarily inhabit Development Beyond the Secular aims to provide a new resource for those interested in the study of religions and development primarily postgraduate and academic and for those development practitioners wishing to contextualize their discipline within a religious frame Using the work of Christian Aid as its primary lens this book examines and critiques the theological underpinnings of development work and questions how Christian values are manifest through day to day work in the world of poverty eradication      Communion, Diversity, and Salvation Brian Flanagan,2011-06-09 Questions surrounding the understanding of communion are a significant feature of much contemporary ecclesiology but their prominence calls attention to wider questions regarding ecclesiological method Brian Flanagan addresses the questions of how to characterize a systematic ecclesiology and the possibility of a systematic communion ecclesiology through an investigation of the concept of communion in the work of Jean Marie Tillard OP Tillard s theology is noted as the most prominent Roman Catholic communion ecclesiology Flanagan argues that Tillard contributes to systematic ecclesiology by defining the concept of communion in relation to Christology soteriology and theological anthropology thereby framing an answer to the contemporary question of ecclesial unity and diversity The book also assesses the danger of idealism in Tillard s thought and suggests that further engagement with social scientific study of the church will help strengthen nuance and critique Tillard s idea of communion      New & Enlarged Handbook of Christian Theology Donald W. Musser,Joseph Price,2011-09-01 This handbook provides thorough introductory articles on important themes in Christian theology Along with cross references and select bibliographies it is an indispensable reference source The Handbook consists of 148 topical entries arranged alphabetically Instead of a Table of Contents a Routes For Reading page suggests related entries and cross referencing makes surfing this volume easier than ever      The Spirit-Baptized Church Frank D. Macchia,2020-04-16 Frank D Macchia argues that the Son of God baptized and continues to baptize humanity in the Spirit by pouring forth the Spirit on the Day of Pentecost All four Gospels and the book of Acts describe how the Son is sent of the Father and empowered by the Spirit to fulfil this mission Macchia in turn claims that Christ succeeds by incorporating others into himself and into the love of the Father The Spirit Baptized Church proposes a richly pneumatological ecclesiology that is dominated by a Pentecostal confessional concern while also open to a larger ecumenical conversation The volume focuses not only on the dogmatic Trinitarian foundations and election processes of the Spirit baptized church but also on its marks and witnessing practices As an exceptionally detailed study of the Spirit baptismal metaphor this volume is a valuable resource for scholars of ecclesiology Pentecostalism and systematic theology      The Concept of "Sister Churches" in Catholic-Orthodox Relations since Vatican II Will T. Cohen,2017-09-28 Often invoked between Vatican II and the end of the twentieth century by both

Orthodox and Catholic officials across their confessional division the expression sister churches reflected their growing rapprochement as well as a shift on the Catholic side from a more centralized ecclesiology to one more attentive to the local church and conciliarity Pope John Paul II in his 1995 encyclical Ut Unum Sint spoke significantly of a doctrine of sister churches that would help guide the Catholic and Orthodox toward unity along a path of mutual respect rather than either tradition's submission to the other In his comprehensive treatment of the history of the expression sister churches over half a century of Catholic Orthodox relations Dr Will Cohen explores why the concept developed as it did why it was so fiercely contested and what remains vital about the concept today In the process Dr Cohen illuminates the ways in which Catholic and Orthodox ecclesiology respectively is each most capable of renewing and sustaining its proper balance when open to the authentic gifts of the other

Witnessing to Christ Today Daryl M. Balia, Kirsteen Kim, 2010 The Centenary of the World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh in 1910 is a suggestive moment for many people seeking direction for Christian mission in the twenty first century Since 2005 an international group has worked collaboratively to develop an intercontinental and multid denominational project now known as Edinburgh 2010 and based at New College University of Edinburgh Essential to the work of the Edinburgh 1910 Conference and of abiding value were the findings of the eight think tanks or commissions These inspired the idea of a new round of collaborative reflection on Christian mission but now focused on nine themes identified as being key to mission in the twenty first century The study process is intended to contribute from a research perspective to the aim of Edinburgh 2010 witnessing together to Christ in the twenty first century and to the development of a new vision in terms of God's purposes for creation in Christ and a renewed spirituality and mission ethos in the life of churches worldwide Witnessing to Christ Today contains a summary of what has been achieved through the study process up to the end of 2009 and forms the preparatory volume for the centenary conference to be held in Edinburgh on 2-6 June 2010 There the material will be subjected to rigorous critique from various transversal perspectives and engaged with by church and mission delegates from around the world

Spirit Flowing Like Water Nausikaa Haupt, Olle Kristenson, Michael Nausner, Gregory Ryan, 2025-06-19 What if churches focused less on wanting other Christian traditions to become more like theirs and more on exploring what they might learn from them Might this not only help churches to deepen faith mission and service but also revitalize the ecumenical landscape with new possibilities This is the provocative and inspiring vision presented by Receptive Ecumenism a movement which has crossed denominations and continents engaging church leaders ecumenists scholars and Christians in their everyday lives Spirit Flowing Like Water presents the latest conversations in this field It not only engages leading scholars and practitioners of Receptive Ecumenism between churches but also explores the possibility of learning from difference within a church community Internal Receptive Ecumenism and adapting the approach to a wider ecumenism beyond the visible church Church leaders ecumenists and theologians from five continents have contributed chapters on transforming ecumenism practicing mission in context and broadening the horizon

They write not only for those already engaged in ecumenical work but with an invitation to all communities leaders and individuals to take a fresh look at what walking together in Christ means in our polarized world

The Disciples: A Struggle for Reformation (Paperback) D. Duane Cummins, 2009      Edinburgh 2010 David A. Kerr, Kenneth R. Ross, 2009

The Centenary of the World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh 1910 is a suggestive moment for many people seeking direction for Christian mission in the 21st century Several different constituencies within World Christianity are holding significant events around 2010 Since 2005 an international group has worked collaboratively to develop an interncontinental and multid denominational project now known as Edinburgh 2010 and based at New College University of Edinburgh This initiative brings together representatives of twenty different global Christian bodies representing all major Christian denominations and confessions and many different strands of mission and church life to prepare for the Centenary

Daryl Balia International Director Edinburgh 2010      Missions and Unity Norman E. Thomas, 2010-11-01 This study is the first comprehensive history of the impact of the modern missionary movement on the understanding of and work toward Christian unity It tells stories from all branches of the church Roman Catholic Orthodox and Protestant in its many types conciliar evangelical Pentecostal and independent

Part 1 Historical highlights the contribution of modern missions to Christian unity from William Carey and his antecedents and peers to present day missions Part 2 Ten Models of Unity takes an inductive approach to history asking not how should Christians cooperate but how has the missionary movement helped Christians to work together at the local national regional and global level Part 3 Wider Ecumenism broadens the evidence to include how the missions movement has helped not only institutional churches but also broader society to have concern for the unity of the entire human family Included here is the story of how the Protestant missionary movement influenced the forming of the United Nations as well as the drafting of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights The study also covers the movement s impact on Christian attitudes toward and relations with persons of other faiths

Mission and Unity is the standard reference work in the field for persons studying modern history modern church history missions and ecumenics
