Expository Thoughts on the Gospels ... By John Charles Ryle, 1954 Expository thoughts on the Gospels, with the text complete John Charles Ryle (bp. of Liverpool.), 1856 The Gospel of John J. Ryle, 2012-09-16 J. C. Ryle's Expository Thoughts were first published in 1856 and met with such a warm welcome from evangelical Christians of all denominations. He prepared the work not for scholars only but insisted that they were for family and private use. In other words, like all his writings, they were intended to help the ordinary man and woman. I have a strong conviction, he wrote, that we want more reverent, deep searching study of the Scriptures in the present day. Most Christians see nothing beyond the surface of the Bible when they read it. We want more clear knowledge of Christ as a living Person, a living Priest, a living Physician, a living Friend, a living Advocate at the right hand of God, and a living Saviour soon about to come again. Most Christians know little of Christianity but the skeleton of doctrines. I desire never to forget these two things if I can do anything to make Christ and the Bible more honourable in these latter days. I shall be truly thankful and content. Basic Books for the Minister's Library David W. Brookman, 1986 The Gospel of Matthew J. C. Ryle, 2012-09-18 J. C. Ryle's

C.) Ryle,2012-01 The subject perhaps was never more important than it is at the present day There is a widely spread desire to make things pleasant in religion to saw off the corners and edges of the cross and to avoid as far as possible self denial On every side we hear professing Christians declaring loudly that we must not be narrow and exclusive and that there is no harm in many things which the holiest saints of old thought bad for their souls That we may go anywhere and do anything and spend our time in anything and read anything and keep any company and plunge into anything and all the while may be very good Christians this is the maxim of thousands In a day like this I think it good to raise a warning voice and invite attention to the teaching of God's Word It is written in that Word Come out and be separate The Gospel of John J. The Cross: Crucified with Christ, and Christ Alive in Me J. C. Ryle, 2019-11-01 I am crucified with Christ nevertheless I live yet not I but Christ lives in me and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God who loved me and gave himself for me Galatians 2:20 I want to tell you what perhaps the greatest Christian who ever lived the Apostle Paul thought of the cross of Christ Believe me the cross is one of deepest importance This is no mere question of controversy this is not one of those points on which men may agree to differ and feel that differences will not shut them out of heaven A man must be right on this subject or he is lost forever Heaven or hell happiness or misery life or death blessing or cursing in the last day all hinges on the answer to this question What do you think about the cross of Christ Let me show you 1 What the apostle Paul did not glory in 2 What Paul did glory in 3 Why all Christians should think and feel about the cross like Paul
