An Underground Education Richard Zacks,1999-04-20 The best kind of knowledge is uncommon knowledge Okay so maybe you know all the stuff you're supposed to know that there are teenier things than atoms that Remembrance of Things Past has something to do with a perfumed cookie that the Monroe Doctrine means we get to take over small South American countries when we feel like it But really is this kind of knowledge going to make you the hit of the cocktail party or the loser spending forty five minutes examining the host's bookshelves Wouldn't you rather learn things like how the invention of the bicycle affected the evolution of underwear Or that the 1949 Nobel Prize for Medicine was awarded to a doctor who performed lobotomies with a household ice pick Or how Catherine the Great really died Or that heroin was sold over the counter not too long ago For the truly well rounded intellectual nothing fascinates so much as the subversive the contrarian the suppressed and the bizarre Richard Zacks auto didact extraordinaire has unloosed his admittedly strange mind and astonishing research abilities upon the entire spectrum of human knowledge ferreting out endlessly fascinating facts stories photos and images guaranteed to make you laugh gasp in wonder and occasionally shudder at the depths of human depravity The result of his labors is this fantastically illustrated quasi encyclopedia that provides alternative takes on art business crime science medicine sex lots of that and many other facets of human experience Immensely entertaining and arguably enlightening An Underground Education is the only book that explains the birth of motion pictures using photos of naked baseball players Richard Zacks is the author of History Laid Bare Love Sex and Perversity from the Ancient Etruscans to Warren G Harding which was excerpted in classy magazines like Harper's and earned the attention of the even classier New York Times which noted that Zacks specializes in the raunchy and perverse The Georgia State Legislature voted on whether to ban the book from public libraries He has studied Arabic Greek Latin French Italian and Hebrew and received the Phillips Classical Greek Award at the University of Michigan He has also told his publisher that he made a living in Cairo cheating royalty from a certain Arab country at games of chance although the claim remains unverified His writing has appeared in the New York Times The Atlantic Monthly Time Life Sports Illustrated The Village Voice TV Guide and similarly diverse publications Zacks is married and busy warping the minds of his two children Georgia and Ziegfield He resides in New York City and can be reached via e-mail at rzacks@echonyc.com

Hill,2009-09 A collection of interesting and sometimes silly facts that relates to a Bible verse The Toothpick Henry Petroski,2008-11-04 A celebration culture and technology as seen through the history of the humble yet ubiquitous toothpick from the best selling author of The Pencil From ancient Rome where emperor Nero made his entrance into a banquet hall with a silver toothpick in his mouth to nineteenth century Boston where Charles Forster the father of the American wooden toothpick industry ensured toothpicks appeared in every restaurant the toothpick has been an omnipresent yet often overlooked part of our daily lives Here with an engineer s eye for detail and a poet s flair for language Henry Petroski takes us on an incredible tour of this most interesting invention Along the way he peers inside today s surprisingly secretive toothpick manufacturing industry and explores a treasure trove of the toothpick s unintended uses and perils from sandwiches to martinis and beyond

Persuasive Imagery Linda M. Scott,Rajeev Batra,2003-04-02 This volume synthesizes and advances existing knowledge of consumer response to visuals Representing an interdisciplinary perspective contributors include scholars from the disciplines of communication psychology and marketing The book begins with an overview section intended to situate the reader in the discourse The overview describes the state of knowledge in both academic research and actual practice and provides concrete sources for scholars to pursue Written in a non technical language this volume is divided into four sections Image and Response illustrates the difficulty encountered even in investigating the basic influences processes and effects of mere exposure to imagery Image and Word presents instances in which the line between words and pictures is blurred such as the corporate logo which is often pictorial in nature but communicates on an abstract level usually attributed to words Image and the Ad contributes to our appreciation for the exquisite variations among advertising texts and the resultant variability in response not only to different ads but among different viewers of the same ad Image and Object carries the inquiry of visual response over the bridge toward object interaction Having traveled a path that has gone from the precise working of the brain in processing visual stimuli all the way to the history of classical architecture readers of this volume will have a new respect for the complexity of human visual response and the research that is trying to explain it It will be of interest to those involved in consumer behavior consumer psychology advertising marketing and visual communication
